Signorelli in Orvieto, Orvieto, Chapel of San Brizio Laurence B. Kanter, Luca Signorelli, 1983 Orvieto's Duomo, 2009 How Fra Angelico and Signorelli Saw the End of the World, In 1447 Fra Angelico received a commission to paint the interior of the Capella Nuova in the Cathedral of Orvieto in central Italy The subject chosen was the end of the world and the Last Judgement which filled the high vaulted ceiling the altar and side walls and the inner and outer bays European Art of the Sixteenth Century Stefano Zuffi, 2006 In the sixteenth century the humanist values and admiration for classical antiquity that marked the early Renaissance spread from Italy throughout the rest of the continent Part of the Art through the Centuries series this volume is divided into three sections that discuss the important people concepts and artistic centres of this period Freud's Italian Journey Laurence Simmons, 2006-01-01 Freud's Italian Journey takes the psychoanalytical texts of Freud on the visual arts and literature as its objects for analysis While the biographical figure of Freud appears throughout its pages it is not simply a psychobiographical reading of Freud his personal circumstances and their relationship to his texts Rather the processes of interpretation begun by Freud are turned on Freud himself thus eventually displacing and questioning his theoretical mastery Freud's Italian Journey also argues that Freud's interest in frequent journeys to and obsession with Italy profoundly shaped and informed his elaboration of psychoanalysis The volume organizes its material around the major Italian cities which were the destinations of Freud's travel and the sites of the artworks he examined Freud's many Italian holidays were crucial for his self analysis and methodology but it is also argued here that his papers on Italian subjects must be read as texts marked by fascination and allurements crossed with anxiety and resistance inscribed by memory and forgetting Journeys to Italy heightened Freud's sense of the visual and it is contended that the visual dimension of Freud's writing is crucial to an understanding of his elaboration of the theory of psychoanalysis The relation between image and text is at the heart of Freud's analysis of works of art as he founds a critical methodology in which the two are interrelated image illustrating idea and idea needing to express itself in image but neither finally resolvable into the other Thus the argument of Freud's Italian Journey follows as its model the famous elaboration of the fort da game by Freud moving back and forth between Freud's life and his texts between psychoanalytical and philosophical systems between the written and the visual This leads to the broader conclusion that Freud might provide the key to a new practice of criticism and a new way of seeing and understanding visual images The Christian Travelers Guide to Italy David Bershad, Caroline Mangone, 2011-12-27 The Christian Travelers Guides deal directly with what even the best general travel guides only touch on Christianity's enormous influence on Europe and through its

Beautiful Bodies Margaret R. Miles, 2024-05-28 St Augustine was known as a theologian of feeling for many centuries Renaissance painters pictured him holding his passionately blazing heart in his hand In Augustine's society and education feeling was considered an intimate and integral aspect of thinking so intimately interwoven that philosophers struggled to distinguish these activities Thus Augustine was also committed to learning throughout his passionate and thoughtful life from his early conviction that God and the soul can be known through the meticulous use of reason to mature sermons in which he quoted God is love and commented in effect that is all you need to know about God The role of feeling in his understanding of the effect of Christian doctrines on present life has been less noticed This book proposes that changes in his perception of the value and significance of human bodies from objects of rapacious lust to rapturous admiration of their beauty form the nexus within which Augustine's thought and feeling cohere The old Augustine's understanding of the theological significance of present bodies informed his acknowledged speculations on the qualities and capacities of beautiful bodies nunc et tunc
