Elliott,F. Gresham,J.C. Witt,2013-11-11 What do we know about behavioral analysis and intervention in educational settings Given that educational institutions were among the first to embrace the new technology of behavior change in the late 1950s and early 1960s it is apparent that we have had the opportunity to learn a great deal

The evolution of the field of behavior therapy has witnessed a change in the behavior therapist from an adolescent fascination with repeatedly demonstrating the effectiveness of the new technology to a mature recognition of the complex implications of the behavioral paradigm for individuals systems and society Many facts now taken for granted were considered impossibilities a mere two decades ago In her 1986 presidential address to Division 25 of the American Psychological Association Beth Sulzer Azaroff reviewed a number of changes in attitude in education that were strongly influenced by behavior therapy Most educators now agree that a everyone can learn b complex skills can be taught c precise general and durable performance can be taught and d barriers to learning can be overcome In addition we would add that behavior therapy is being applied to increasingly more complex human problems such as social skill deficits internalizing disorders and dysfunctional systems and organizations

Sick Schools David V. Anderson, 2020-01-10 Who's afraid of for profit education Those who work in non profit or government owned and operated schools Many parents and other stakeholders have been made fearful by this education establishment What's more important to humans nutrition or education Nutrition is more important because it is the prerequisite for other human activities including education What organizations provide food and who pays for the food Food is provided by for profit farmers for profit processors for profit wholesalers and for profit retailers Most food is purchased with the consumers own money but a significant amount is purchased by low income individuals using food stamps Why can't education be provided similarly using education stamps We trust for profit enterprises to provide our food Why can't we trust for profit enterprises to provide K 12 education Fearmongers have frightened us and made us into gullible compliant socialists who despise commercial activities in education Go to the supermarket and ponder its marvelous array of foods and then contemplate how a for profit K 12 education sector would please and amaze its customers
