Meij,2017-07-31 Indonesian Manuscripts from the Islands of Java Madura Bali and Lombok discusses aspects of the long and impressive manuscript traditions of these islands which share many aspects of manuscript production Many hitherto unaddressed features of palm leaf manuscripts are discussed here for the first time as well as elements of poetic texts indications of mistakes colophons and the calendrical information used in these manuscripts All features discussed are explained with photographs The introductory chapters offer insights into these traditions in a wider setting and the way researchers have studied them This original and pioneering work also points out what topics needs further exploration to understand these manuscript traditions that use a variety of materials languages and scripts to a wider public Rhyme and Rhyming in Verbal Art, Language, and Song Venla Sykäri,Nigel Fabb,2022-12-05 This collection of thirteen chapters answers new questions about rhyme with views from folklore ethnopoeitics the history of literature literary criticism and music criticism psychology and linguistics The book examines rhyme as practiced or as understood in English Old English and Old Norse German Swedish Norwegian Finnish and Karelian Estonian Medieval Latin Arabic and the Central Australian language Kaytetye Some authors examine written poetry including modernist poetry and others focus on various kinds of sung poetry including rap which now has a pioneering role in taking rhyme into new traditions Some authors consider the relation of rhyme to other types of form notably alliteration An introductory chapter discusses approaches to rhyme and ends with a list of languages whose literatures or song traditions are known to have rhyme Music in Java J. Kunst,2012-12-06 One day in the summer of 1921 a postal delivery brought me a little packet of reprints from the periodical Djawa articles about Indonesian music by Dr JAAP KUNST which until that moment had not come to my notice A cursory glance was enough to convince me that the author was a very gifted man who had made a sound and absolutely scientific study of the subject and thereby made a valuable contribution by means of careful observation and actual tone measurements to the facts known from the older studies by GRONEMAN LAND and ELLIS These measure ments were particularly satisfying to me personally since they constituted an astonishing confirmation of a hypothesis concerning the genesis of tone systems through the cycle of blown fifths which I had propounded two years previously without however having published it At the same time it was proved through the perfect conformity existing between the measured and the theoretical absolute pitches vibration frequencies that Indonesian gamelan tuning too belongs to the radius of ancient Chinese culture much the same as is the case with Pan pipes and xylo phones all over the world The first contact between Dr KUNST and myself led to a regular correspondence which especially contributed to a further development of the above mentioned theory of tone systems
