Contexts for Teacher Education Bengi Sonyel,2025-07-09 Continuing Professional Development enables learning to become conscious and proactive rather than passive and reactive It involves teachers documenting and keeping a record of their increasing skills knowledge and experience they gain throughout their career Educators need to be aware of effective teaching by applying effective teaching strategies approaches and continuous assessment Good teaching is not just a matter of being efficient developing competence mastering technique and possessing the right kind of knowledge is also highly important Good teaching also involves emotional work It is infused with pleasure passion creativity challenge and joy The way we as educators behave as professionals is fundamental to the quality of classroom teaching and learning and is at the core of much research Continuing career long professional development is necessary for all educators to keep pace with change and to review and renew their own knowledge skills and visions for good teaching Asian Research on English for Specific Purposes Youzhong Sun,Liwen Li,Hong Cai,2020-05-20 English for Specific Purposes ESP addressing the communicative needs and practices of particular professional or occupational groups has developed rapidly in the past fifty years and is now a major force in English language teaching and research This critical volume helps innovate the theory practice and methodology for ESP teaching and research in Asian countries and areas Promoting communication and enhancing cooperation on ESP research and pedagogy across cultures it provides ESP scholars educators and practitioners with an opportunity to benefit from each other s research and expertise in an age of globalization and digitalization The volume provides an in depth analysis of the latest scholarship on English teaching and research for general and specific academic and occupational purposes the intercultural communication in ESP contexts corpus linguistics and data driven instruction for ESP computer assisted language learning and mobile assisted language learning evaluation of English writing courses and ESP translation strategies The Use of Pop Songs in the EFL Classroom Ornerová Lenka,2011-03-09 Inhaltsangabe Introduction I have chosen the topic of using pop songs in the EFL classroom because I strongly believe that working with pop songs is a highly motivational device When I was a student at a lower and upper secondary school listening to songs in English classes was my favourite activity I have always wanted to be able to understand the lyrics of songs I listened to Later I realized that I have learned a lot from listening to pop songs and analyzing their lyrics Therefore in my diploma project I would like to prove that using pop songs is a highly motivational device in teaching English with instructional value and that students enjoy working with pop songs The theoretical part of this diploma project is based on relevant sources of background literature In the first two chapters the use of songs is described with regard to motivation and the Multiple Intelligences Theory The third and fourth chapter deal with the reasons for using songs and their classification In the last two chapters of the theoretical part pedagogical principles of using pop songs in class as well as the pros and cons of teaching through pop songs are presented The practical part is based on the findings of three surveys I have conducted in the field of using songs in the EFL classroom In the first part of the research I present an analysis of questionnaires which I distributed among English teachers at lower and upper secondary schools and grammar schools In the second part of the research I describe students attitudes to pop song based lessons which I taught during my teaching practice at grammar schools In the third part of the research I analyze the types of songs presented in commonly used textbooks at lower and upper secondary schools In addition I present a self developed teaching material containing a list of pop songs suitable for the EFL classroom In the last part of the practical part I answer the research questions and provide some implications for my own teaching
