Official Guide to the Smithsonian National Museum of African American History and Culture Nat'l Mus Afr Am Hist Culture, Kathleen M. Kendrick, 2017-04-11 This fully illustrated guide to the Smithsonian's newest museum takes visitors on a journey through the richness and diversity of African American culture and the history of a people whose struggles, aspirations, and achievements have shaped the nation. Opened in September 2016, the National Museum of African American History and Culture welcomes all visitors who seek to understand, remember, and celebrate this history. The guidebook provides a comprehensive tour of the museum, including its magnificent building and grounds and eleven permanent exhibition galleries dedicated to themes of history, community, and culture. Highlights from the museum's collection of artifacts and works of art are presented in full-color photographs accompanied by evocative stories and voices that illuminate the American experience through the African American lens.

The South Korean Film Industry Sangjoon Lee, Dal Yong Jin, Junhyung Cho, 2024-08-08 As shown by the success of Squid Game and Parasite, South Korea's film industry is producing films and original series for streaming services, film studios, and television stations worldwide. South Korea is now arguably considered one of the few countries outside the United States to have captivated the world's hearts and minds through pop music, TV dramas, and film. Similarly, the exponential growth in the South Korean film industry has been mirrored by a growing body of industry and film policy forums and academic conferences in both the East and the West. The South Korean Film Industry is the first detailed scholarly overview of the South Korean film industry. The thirteen chapters discuss topics from short films to popular television series that have engaged global audiences. Contributors explore the major changes in South Korean film making, marketing, and in the international growth and popularity of South Korean films. By bringing together a wide range of academic specialists, The South Korean Film Industry situates the current scholarship on South Korean cinema within the ongoing theoretical debates in contemporary global film studies. This volume will be widely read in undergraduate and graduate classes related to Korean and East Asian studies, cinema, and media studies, cultural studies, and communication studies. Moreover, many institutions offer dedicated modules on South Korean cinema, media, and popular culture for which The South Korean Film Industry will be ideal.

The Archival Afterlives of Philippine Cinema Bliss Cua Lim, 2024-01-05 Drawing on cultural policy, queer, and feminist theory, materialist media studies, and postcolonial historiography, Bliss Cua Lim analyzes the crisis-ridden history of Philippine film archiving, a history of lost films, limited access, and collapsed archives. Rather than denigrate underfunded Philippine audiovisual archives in contrast to institutions in the global North, The Archival Afterlives of Philippine Cinema shows how archival practices of making do can inspire alternative theoretical and historical approaches to cinema. Lim examines formal state and corporate archives, analyzing restorations of the last nitrate film and a star-studded lesbian classic, as well as archiving under the Marcos dictatorship. She also foregrounds informal archival efforts, a cinephilic video store, specializing in vintage Tagalog classics a microcuratorial initiative for experimental films and guerilla screenings for rural Visayan audiences Throughout Lim centers the improvisational creativity of audiovisual archivists collectors advocates and amateurs who embrace imperfect access in the face of inhospitable conditions Improvising the Score Gretchen L. Carlson,2022-06-27 2023 Jazz Journalists Association JJA Jazz Awards for Books of the Year Honorable Mention Recipient On December 4 1957 Miles Davis revolutionized film soundtrack production improvising the score for Louis Malle s Ascenseur pour l chafaud A cinematic harbinger of the French New Wave Ascenseur challenged mainstream filmmaking conventions emphasizing experimentation and creative collaboration It was in this environment during the late 1950s to 1960s a brief golden age for jazz in film that many independent filmmakers valued improvisational techniques featuring soundtracks from such seminal figures as John Lewis Thelonious Monk and Duke Ellington But what of jazz in film today Improvising the Score Rethinking Modern Film Music through Jazz provides an original vivid investigation of innovative collaborations between renowned contemporary jazz artists and prominent independent filmmakers The book explores how these integrative jazz film productions challenge us to rethink the possibilities of cinematic music production In depth case studies include collaborations between Terence Blanchard and Spike Lee Malcolm X When the Levees Broke Dick Hyman and Woody Allen Hannah and Her Sisters Antonio S nchez and Alejandro Gonz lez I rritu Birdman and Mark Isham and Alan Rudolph Afterglow The first book of its kind this study examines jazz artists work in film from a sociological perspective offering rich behind the scenes analyses of their unique collaborative relationships with filmmakers It investigates how jazz artists negotiate their own creative labor examining the tensions between improvisation and the conventionally highly regulated structures hierarchies and expectations of filmmaking Grounded in personal interviews and detailed film production analysis Improvising the Score illustrates the dynamic possibilities of integrative artistic collaborations between jazz film and other contemporary media exemplifying its ripeness for shaping and invigorating twenty first century arts media and culture
