Nature Strikes Back:

LOCKDOWN Devisetty N Ravishankar, 2020-07-13 Lockdown is a collection of poems that took shape during the lockdown period starting from March 2020 The poems bring out the spirit of humanity in these times and it attempts to address the various people and events that are currently underway Apart from expressions on the people in the frontline like doctors nurses sanitary workers etc there are other poems on social distancing masks and other general topics on nature mindfulness family etc which will give the reader a choice to experience the inner motives of the author It will also provide the reader an opportunity to think about the issues and draw his or her conclusions that matter in life Avenging Nature Eduardo Valls Oyarzun, Rebeca Gualberto Valverde, Noelia Malla Garcia, María Colom Jiménez, Rebeca Cordero Sánchez, 2020-09-28 Nature thou art my goddess Edmund's bold assertion in King Lear could easily inspire and at the same time function as a lamentation of the inadequate respect of nature in culture In this volume international experts provide multidisciplinary exploration of the insubordinate representations of nature in modern and contemporary literature and art The work foregrounds the need to reassess how nature is already and has been for a while striking back against human domination From the perspective of literary studies art history media studies ethics and philosophy and ethnology and anthropology Avenging Nature highlights the need of assessing insurgent discourses that converging with counter discourses of race gender or class realize the empowerment of nature from its subaltern position Acknowledging the argument that cultural representations of nature establish a relationship of domination and exploitation of human discourse over nonhuman reality and that in consequence our regard for nature as humanist critics is instrumental and anthropocentric the present volume advocates for the view that the time has come to finally perceive nature's vengeance and to critically probe into nature's ongoing revenge against the exploitation of culture The Moral Authority of Nature Lorraine Daston, Fernando Vidal, 2010-08-15 For thousands of years people have used nature to justify their political moral and social judgments Such appeals to the moral authority of nature are still very much with us today as heated debates over genetically modified organisms and human cloning testify The Moral Authority of Nature offers a wide ranging account of how people have used nature to think about what counts as good beautiful just or valuable The eighteen essays cover a diverse array of topics including the connection of cosmic and human orders in ancient Greece medieval notions of sexual disorder early modern contexts for categorizing individuals and judging acts as against nature race and the origin of humans ecological economics and radical feminism The essays also range widely in time and place from archaic Greece to early twentieth century China medieval Europe to contemporary America Scholars from a wide variety of fields will welcome The Moral Authority of Nature which provides the first sustained historical survey of its topic Contributors Danielle Allen Joan Cadden Lorraine Daston Fa ti Fan Eckhardt Fuchs Valentin Groebner Abigail J Lustig Gregg Mitman Michelle Murphy Katharine Park Matt Price Robert N Proctor Helmut Puff Robert J Richards Londa Schiebinger Laura Slatkin Julia Adeney Thomas Fernando Vidal Fear and

Nature Christy Tidwell, Carter Soles, 2021-05-10 Ecohorror represents human fears about the natural world killer plants and animals catastrophic weather events and disquieting encounters with the nonhuman Its portrayals of animals the environment and even scientists build on popular conceptions of zoology ecology and the scientific process As such ecohorror is a genre uniquely situated to address life art and the dangers of scientific knowledge in the Anthropocene Featuring new readings of the genre Fear and Nature brings ecohorror texts and theories into conversation with other critical discourses The chapters cover a variety of media forms from literature and short fiction to manga poetry television and film The chronological range is equally varied beginning in the nineteenth century with the work of Edgar Allan Poe and finishing in the twenty first with Stephen King and Guillermo del Toro This range highlights the significance of ecohorror as a mode In their analyses the contributors make explicit connections across chapters question the limits of the genre and address the ways in which our fears about nature intersect with those we hold about the racial animal and bodily other A foundational text this volume will appeal to specialists in horror studies Gothic studies the environmental humanities and ecocriticism In addition to the editors the contributors include Kristen Angierski Bridgitte Barclay Marisol Cortez Chelsea Davis Joseph K Heumann Dawn Keetley Ashley Kniss Robin L Murray Brittany R Roberts Sharon Sharp and Keri Stevenson Coyote Valley Thomas G. Andrews, 2015-10-05 Thomas Andrews drills deep into the many pressures that have reshaped a small stretch of North America from the ice age to the advent of the Anthropocene and controversies over climate change He brings to the surface lessons about the critical relationships to land climate and species that only seemingly unimportant places on Earth can teach How to Survive Anything Michael Fleeman, 2020-08-18 As we have learned with the coronavirus disease COVID 19 a major disaster can strike anywhere anytime and in any form Survival depends as much on what we know as what we do Learn the skills you need to survive This book explores everything that man and Mother Nature can unleash from hurricanes to blizzards shark attacks to plane crashes even mass shootings nuclear assault and pandemics With practical advice from leading experts how to tips and important tasks to do right now plus real life stories from people who endured catastrophe and lived to tell about it this book is a comprehensive guide on what to do before during and after disaster Owning this book could mean the difference between life and losing it all Business Ethics and Continental Philosophy Mollie Painter-Morland, René ten Bos, 2011-10-06 Business ethics has largely been written from the perspective of analytical philosophy with very little attention paid to the work of continental philosophers Yet although very few of these philosophers directly discuss business ethics it is clear that their ideas have interesting applications in this field This innovative textbook shows how the work of continental philosophers Deleuze and Guattari Foucault Levinas Bauman Derrida Levinas Nietzsche Zizek Jonas Sartre Heidegger Latour Nancy and Sloterdijk can provide fresh insights into a number of different issues in business ethics Topics covered include agency stakeholder theory organizational culture organizational justice moral decision making leadership whistle blowing corporate social responsibility globalization and sustainability The book includes a number of features designed to aid comprehension including a detailed glossary of key terms text boxes explaining key concepts and a wide range of examples from the world of business American Horror Story and Philosophy Richard Greene,Rachel Robison-Greene,2017-12-12 In American Horror Story and Philosophy philosophers with varying backgrounds and interests explore different aspects of this popular erotic thriller TV show with its enthusiastic cult following and strong critical approval The result is a collection of intriguing and provocative thoughts on deeper questions prompted by the creepy side of the human imagination As an anthology show American Horror Story has a unique structure in the horror genre because it explores distinct subgenres of horror in each season As a result each season raises its own set of philosophical issues The show s first season Murder House is a traditional haunted house story Philosophical topics expounded here include the moral issues pertaining to featuring a mass murderer as one of the season s main protagonists the problem of other minds when I see an old hag how can I know that you don t see a sexy maid And whether it is rationally justified to fear the Piggy Man Season Two Asylum takes place inside a mid twentieth century mental hospital Among other classic horror subgenres this season includes story lines featuring demonic possession and space aliens Chapters inspired by this season include such topics as the ethics of investigative reporting and whistleblowing personal identity and demonic possession philosophical problems arising from eugenics and the ethics and efficacy of torture Season Three Coven focuses on witchcraft in the contemporary world Chapters motivated by this season include sisterhood and feminism as starkly demonstrated in a coven the metaphysics of traditional voodoo zombies in contrast to the currently fashionable infected zombies the uses of violent revenge and the metaphysics of reanimation Season Four Freak Show takes place in a circus Philosophical writers look at life under the Big Top as an example of life imitating art several puzzles about personal identity and identity politics crystallized in the two headed girl the bearded lady and the lobster boy the ethical question of honor and virtue among thieves as well as several topics in social and political philosophy Season Five Hotel is among other disturbing material about vampires Chapters inspired by this season include the ethics of creating vampire progeny LGBT related philosophical issues and existentialism as it applies to serial killers Season Six Roanoke often considered the most creative of the seasons so far partly because of its employment of the style of documentaries with dramatic re enactments and its mimicry of The Blair Witch Project and Paranormal Activity Among the philosophical themes explored here are what happens to moral obligations under the Blood Moon the proper role of truth in storytelling and the defensibility of cultural imperialism

The Routledge Companion to Literature and Emotion Patrick Colm Hogan,Bradley J. Irish,Lalita Pandit Hogan,2022-04-05 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Emotion shows how the affective turn in the humanities applies to literary studies Deftly combining the scientific elements with the literary the book provides a theoretical and topical introduction to reading literature and emotion Looking at a variety of formats including novels drama film graphic fiction and lyric poetry the book also includes focus on specific authors such as Shakespeare Chaucer Jane Austen Virginia

Woolf and Viet Thanh Nguyen The volume introduces the theoretical groundwork covering such categories as affect theory affective neuroscience cognitive science evolution and history of emotions It examines the range of emotions that play a special role in literature including happiness fear aesthetic delight empathy and sympathy as well as aspects of literature style narrative voice and others that bear on emotional response Finally it explores ethical and political concerns that are often intertwined with emotional response including racism colonialism disability ecology gender sexuality and trauma This is a crucial guide to the ways in which new interdisciplinary understandings of emotion and affect in fields from neuroscience to social theory are changing the study of literature and of the ways those new understandings are impacted by work on literature also

Power and Technology Jan van Dijk, 2024-09-11 The definition of power varies across disciplines Social scientists tend to deal with social power philosophers of technology with the relation between technology and society and ecologists with the relation between natural and social power Concepts of power and technology are freely used but this relationship is complex and multifaceted In this analytic and ambitious textbook Jan van Dijk brings these perspectives together to provide a more comprehensive answer In attempting to integrate social technical and natural power into one framework he develops a general concept of power which unites all three the first time such an attempt has been made The author argues that it is important to look at these concepts together natural power is not simply a resource for technology and society and its inclusion is crucial given the ecological impact of technologies Overall nine forms of power which comprise the framework are discussed in each chapter force construction coercion domination discipline dependency information persuasion and authority and at all levels individuals organizations and societies Van Dijk concludes with some practical implications and asks two key questions how can automatic and autonomous technology such as AI be controlled by humans And how can we find a more sustainable and less exploitive technology Power and Technology contains many figures tables and illustrations and is suitable for students and scholars of technology studies and the sociology philosophy and history of technology
