Nature Tourism Conservation And Development In Kwazulu Natal South Africa:

Nature Tourism, Conservation, and Development in Kwazulu-Natal, South Africa Bruce A. Aylward, Ernst Lutz, 2003 This publication considers environmental social and economic issues concerning the development of nature tourism Using KwaZulu Natal in South Africa as a case study it highlights the benefits and trade offs in promoting and managing sustainable nature tourism development and examines how to promote the objectives of economic growth poverty reduction and conservation Three key issues are explored the need to move beyond development of a wildlife industry to the creation of a true nature tourism economy that supports biodiversity the role of the private sector in achieving equitable development and job creation while generating conservation finance and alternative pricing and other market mechanisms to encourage the growth and economic viability of nature tourism Tourism and Protected Areas Robyn Bushell, Paul F. J. Eagles, 2007 Bringing together the diverse experiences of park agencies and managers conservation NGO s and international agencies this book examines the role of tourism in protected area management Using case studies from around the world it provides examples of successful partnerships between community public and private sectors It also explores how tourism can be used as a management tool for financing protected areas It concludes by summarizing the lessons learnt and the challenges facing protected areas in the future A Scientific Bibliography of the Drakensberg, Maloti and Adjacent Lowlands Rodney Moffett, 2021-04-19 This bibliography includes scientific articles on the Drakensberg Maloti and Adjacent Lowlands published between 1808 and 2019 Although focussing on material appearing in accredited journals there is such a wealth of information in the form of unpublished yet traceable reports documents presentations and dissertations these are also included The bibliography has two parts a complete list arranged alphabetically and the same references arranged in 33 different disciplines These range from Palaeobotany with 17 entries to Rock Art with 502 entries Responsible Tourism Anna Spenceley, 2012-05-04 Responsible Tourism presents a wide variety of valuable lessons learned in responsible tourism initiatives in Southern Africa that many tourism practitioners can use in their efforts to make the tourism sector work for the poor and for the environment Dr Harsh Varma Director Development Assistance Department World Tourism Organization UNWTO For those interested in how tourism can assist in the economic and social development of societies in need Responsible Tourism effectively integrates scales and types of knowledge to present an informative stimulating perspective It will be on my bookshelf Steve McCool Professor Emeritus Wildland Recreation Management University of Montana Responsible tourism is one of the most significant contemporary issues for tourism scholars and practitioners alike This useful and clearly written collection of new research demonstrates the innovations in responsible tourism occurring within southern Africa and provides lessons for international research and practice Professor Christian Rogerson University of Witwatersrand South Africa Conservation efforts are often seen to be in conflict with local livelihoods and resource use the park versus people debate Responsible tourism and Ecotourism are often invoked as a third way that serve both ends Yet do they actually work in practice This volume delves deep into practice in southern Africa the hotbed of innovation on the issue and provides a comprehensive evidence based examination of what works and what fails using a wealth of information from scholars and practitioners working in the region This book opens with an overview of the issues looks at what sustainable and responsible tourism are in practice and how they may contribute to conservation poverty alleviation and local economic development Part 1 examines policies and institutional activities in responsible tourism by governments donor agencies and nongovernmental organizations and addresses the market for responsible travel Part 2 considers responsible nature based tourism the economics of wildlife tourism and ecotourism transfrontier conservation areas ecological impacts of tourism and other issues Part 3 looks at more detailed case studies of community based tourism projects and highlights the reasons for successes and failures in this sector The book concludes with a synthesis of the key findings with implications for policy destination planning business management and future private sector and donor interventions Published with the Southern African Sustainable Use Specialist Group SASUSG of IUCN

Conservation and Development Andrew Newsham, Shonil Bhagwat, 2015-12-22 Conservation and development share an intertwined history dating back to at least the 1700s But what are the prospects for reconciling the two and how far have we come with this project This book explores these questions through a detailed consideration of the past present and future of the relationship between conservation and development Bringing to bear conceptual resources from political ecology social ecological systems thinking and science and technology studies Conservation and Development sets this relationship against the background of the political and economic processes implicated in environmental degradation and poverty alike Whilst recognising that the need for reconciling conservation and development processes remains as compelling as ever it demonstrates why trade offs are more frequently encountered in practice than synergies It also flags alternative visions for conservation and development obscured or ignored by current framings and priorities Bringing together policy and theory Conservation and Development is an essential resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students and a useful reference for researchers in related fields Each chapter contains a reading guide with discussion questions The text is enlivened by a number of new case studies from around the world A must read for anyone interested in understanding the history current state and projections for future shifts in the relationship between conservation and development
