Nature Conservation:

Nature Conservation Klaus-Dieter Hupke, 2023-01-01 Many things happen in nature reserves that are contradictory at first glance For example flower meadows are mown down during maintenance work even though all the plants growing there are protected Elsewhere protected reed beds are burnt down in a fen or the top layer of soil is removed with bulldozers in a dune conservation area Still other areas are to remain completely untouched by human intervention The author Klaus Dieter Hupke shows the different strategies of nature conservation He also shows that nature conservation is mostly not exactly what the term says in essence protection of nature On the contrary in Central Europe nature conservation areas are predominantly the relics of old agricultural and thus cultural landscapes Often aesthetic aspects of a landscape section are also in the foreground when designating it as a natural monument or nature reserve Moreover nature conservation runs the risk of becoming a substitute action and an alibi for a still growing destruction of traditional and near natural landscape systems in Central Europe as well as globally The updated second edition now explicitly includes the consequences of climate change for nature conservation and has also incorporated a stronger reference to Austria as well as to the central Alpine region in some places for the relevant readers

The Law of Nature Conservation Christopher Rodgers, 2013-03-21 Providing a detailed account of the law of nature conservation this book reviews and discusses the way in which the law promotes the conservation of species of animal bird and plant and how it protects natural habitats for protected species Using an interdisciplinary approach the book sets nature conservation in its economic and scientific context It explains how the law reconciles the public interest in promoting biodiversity and the conservation of species and habitats on the one hand and the private property rights of landowners and other resource appropriators on the other The book offers an illuminating new interpretation of this area of environmental regulation using a resource allocation model of property rights to explain how legal and economic instruments for promoting nature conservation work in practice The analysis covers all recent legislation and case law including the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009 the Conservation of Habitats and Species Regulations 2010 and the 2012 National Planning Policy Framework The book will serve as a critical guide to UK nature conservation law for those working in the system and a valuable reference point on the UK s approach to the area for environmental lawyers and policy makers overseas

Environmental Law Toolkit--NSW, 2005 The Environmental Law Toolkit is a community guide to environmental law in New South Wales It is intended to provide a practical resource for members of the community with an interest in using the law to protect the environment In particular this guide covers the following elements of environmental law environmental planning and assessment natural resource management pollution management biodiversity conservation and natural and cultural heritage The guide also includes a chapter on environmental advocacy covering topics such as submissions letters and petitions using the media access to information defamation law and safe speech incorporating an environmental group corporations and environmental advocacy environmental protest and criminal law and seeking legal advice and representation

Potential Analysis for Further Nature Conservation in Azerbaijan Michael Succow Stiftung zum Schutz der Natur,2009

Cultural Landscapes and Land Use Martin Dieterich,Jan van der Straaten,2004-06-02 Cultural landscapes are created by people and used by people but still decidedly rich in biodiversity and in harmony with nature The landscapes of fairy tales without dragons Socio economic complexity on top of biological diversity is the challenge nature conservation faces in the context of cultural landscape This book is an attempt to approach this complexity and provide a theoretical background as well as guidelines and examples for hands on solutions It draws on inputs from scientists administrators independent consultants and politicians from Europe and the United States With a particular emphasis on agriculture it attempts to merge disciplines such as philosophy law planning economics and conservation biology toward a common goal nature conservation and the preservation of biological diversity in landscapes under the pressure of human usage

The History of Geoconservation Cynthia V. Burek,Colin D. Prosser,2008 This book is the first to describe the history of geoconservation It draws on experience from the UK Europe and further afield to explore topics including what is geoconservation where when and how did it start who was responsible and how has it differed across the world Geological and geomorphological features processes sites and specimens provide a resource of immense scientific and educational importance They also form the foundation for the varied and spectacular landscapes that help define national and local identity as well as many of the great tourism destinations Mankind s activities including contributing to enhanced climate change pose many threats to this resource the importance of safeguarding and managing it for future generations is now widely accepted as part of sustainable development Geoconservation is an established and growing activity across the world with more participants and a greater profile than ever before This volume highlights a history of challenges set backs successes and visionary individuals and provides a sound basis for taking geoconservation into the future OECD Environmental Performance Reviews: Austria 2003 OECD,2003-11-19 This review of Austria s environmental conditions and policies evaluates progress in reducing the pollution burden improving natural resource management integrating environmental and economic policies and strengthening international co operation Urban Ecology Kevin J. Gaston,2010-09-16 This is the urban century in which for the first time the majority of people live in towns and cities Understanding how people influence and are influenced by the green component of these environments is therefore of enormous significance Providing an overview of the essentials of urban ecology the book begins by covering the vital background concepts of the urbanisation process and the effect that it can have on ecosystem functions and services Later sections are devoted to examining how species respond to urbanisation the many facets of human ecology interactions and the issues surrounding urban planning and the provision of urban green spaces Drawing on examples from urban settlements around the world it highlights the progress to date in this burgeoning field as well as the challenges that lie ahead
