Nature Woman And The Art Of Politics:

Nature, Woman, and the Art of Politics Eduardo A. Velásquez, 2000-08-28 This impressive collection of previously unpublished essays examines the relationship between competing conceptions of nature and woman By looking historically and comprehensively at the problems and questions associated with human thinking about nature and woman the contributors strive to gain the proper vantage point from which to assess modern virtues and vices Also taking note of important religious and literary contributions to thought on nature and woman these essays present a broad range of claims from classical Greece to the present intended to stimulate modern thinking Nature Woman and the Art of Politics will prove indispensable to scholars of philosophy political science and women s studies

The Politics of Liberty in England and Revolutionary America Lee Ward, 2004-07-26 This study locates the philosophical origins of the Anglo American political and constitutional tradition in the philosophical theological and political controversies in seventeenth century England By examining the quarrel it identifies the source of modern liberal republican and conservative ideas about natural rights and government in the seminal works of the Exclusion Whigs Locke Sidney and Tyrrell and their philosophical forebears Hobbes Grotius Spinoza and Pufendorf This study illuminates how these first Whigs and their diverse eighteenth century intellectual heirs such as Bolingbroke Montesquieu Hume Blackstone Otis Jefferson Burke and Paine contributed to the formation of Anglo American political and constitutional theory in the crucial period from the Glorious Revolution through to the American Revolution and the creation of a distinctly American understanding of rights and government in the first state constitutions

Politics, Literature, and Film in Conversation Matthew D. Dinan, Paul E. Kirkland, Denise Schaeffer, Natalie Taylor, 2021-05-04 This volume presents a series of essays in honor of noted scholar of political theory Mary P Nichols The essays reflect Nichols pathbreaking work in ancient Greek political thought as well as her influential treatments of works of literature and film in conversation with political theory Part I Conversations Concerning Love and Friendship features essays about the philosophical meaning of human connection and affection Part II Conversations Between Politics and Poetry looks at the political significance of art and the ways in which political rule can be understood to be artistic or poetic Part III Conversations from Tragedy to Comedy considers whether the human need for community is something to be lamented or celebrated Broad in scope and interdisciplinary in approach the essays in this volume address authors such as Plato Aristotle Shakespeare Machiavelli Mary Wollstonecraft G W F Hegel Jane Austen Henry James William Faulkner Albert Camus J R R Tolkien and Aleksander Solzhenitsyn as well as the films of Woody Allen and Whit Stillman

The Politics of Love Maxime Foerster, 2018-04-03 What would love be if heterosexual couples were no longer assigned gender and sexual norms Maxime Foerster examines the heterosexual trouble between men and women in nineteenth century French Romantic and Decadent literature Key works by authors ranging from George Sand to Charles Baudelaire persistently demonstrate that heterosexuality did not work these authors and many others investigated the struggle that men and women alike waged against patriarchal norms Whereas Romantic fiction dedicated itself to the reinvention of love Decadence promoted sexual and gender deviance In expertly evaluating the discord afflicting fictional heterosexual couples male and female dandies and doctors and their female patients Foerster shows the crucial role that literature played in the fashioning of alternative identities A concluding look at Proust's la recherche du temps perdu traces the legacy of heterosexual trouble in the twentieth century Feminist Politics and Human Nature (Philosophy and Society) Alison M. Jaggar, 1988-10-24 To find more information about Rowman and Littlefield titles please visit www.rowmanlittlefield.com Children in the Hellenistic World Olympia Bobou, 2015 Bobou offers a systematic analysis of ancient Greek statues of children from the sanctuaries houses and necropoleis of the Hellenistic world in order to understand their function and meaning Looking at the literary and epigraphical evidence she argues that these statues were important for transmitting civic values to future citizens Surfacing the Politics of Desire Rajeshwari S.

Vallury, 2008-08-09 A particular model of masculine desire has traditionally been evoked in an effort to understand the subordinate role of women in male authored fiction Because of this the belief that male authored texts are unfailingly built upon the denial of feminine difference has come to dominate many aspects of literary studies Surfacing the Politics of Desire re-examines the myths of masculine desire in order to challenge this premise placing literature at the centre of recent feminist debates over the ontology and politics of sexual difference Citing examples of textual resistance to analytical feminist thought Rajeshwari S. Vallury argues that literature is expressive of desires that are not always configured in terms of oppression or the denial of difference In other words a particular politics of reading obscures the multiplicity of desire that literature is capable of affirming and risks sacrificing the possibilities of both literature and desire Through a re-evaluation of the sexual politics practiced by nineteenth century male writers such as Balzac Gautier and Maupassant Vallury moves towards a reconfiguration of the relationship between aesthetics and politics Surfacing the Politics of Desire calls into question dominant feminist approaches to the literary representation of gender Enlisting the philosophy of Deleuze and Guattari Vallury calls for a different method of reading one based on a deeper understanding of the politics of literature

"Landscape Imagery, Politics, and Identity in a Divided Germany, 1968-1989" Catherine Wilkins, 2017-07-05 Landscape Imagery Politics and Identity in a Divided Germany 1968-1989 explores the communicative relationship between German landscape painting and the viewing public that developed in the wake of the student revolutions of the late 1960s The book demonstrates that contrary to some historical thinking more similarities than differences characterized the sociopolitical concerns of East and West Germans during the late Cold War Era and that it was these shared issues that were reflected in the revival of the Romantic painting genre Catherine Wilkins focuses on recovering the agency of the individual artist and in revising historiography with sensitivity to narration from below Interdisciplinary in nature art historians can benefit from the study's analysis of images and artists not widely known outside of Germany Additionally the consolidation of statistics and data regarding German postwar cultural policy are relevant for political and cultural historians The author contributes to the ongoing multidisciplinary debates regarding Histoire Crois in arguing that a clear dichotomy between East Germany and West Germany did not exist but rather that the residents of both nations shared a concern over some of the same issues of the period and memory studies by using images as primary historical sources able to be employed in the recovery of potentially subversive memory and identity Issues related to gender relations environmentalism and spiritual belief are addressed by Wilkins with appeal for scholars working with those particular themes Poststructuralist and literary theorists as well can find arguments supporting an alternative means of writing history through artworks and private memories
