Naud Prophet To South Africa:

Pathways in Theology Piet Naud,,2015-05-01 This volume exhibits the engaging and challenging work of public and ecumenical theologian Piet Naud The collection of 26 essays written over three decades constitutes an important contribution to public theology by critically and creatively evaluating diverse pathways through the landscape of Ecumenical African and Reformed theologies Africa's Second Wave of Freedom Lyn S. Graybill,Kenneth W. Thompson,1998 Africa's Second Wave of Freedom represents the work of scholars who share a concern with the development of civil society in Africa The first third of the book deals theoretically with the issues of democracy and stability in Africa In particular the contributors analyze the inadequacy of the United States response to African problems such as environmental decay spiraling debt and health epidemics that do not respect national boundaries the fragility of democracy in Africa and the danger of reversion to dictatorships and the barriers to constitutional democracy in sub Saharan Africa The remainder of the book consists of case studies of various aspects of civil society from Mozambique Nigeria Zimbabwe and South Africa

Cultivating Seeds of Hope Murray Coetzee,Retief Møller,L. D. Hansen,2015-05-01 This publication is a collection of 40 oral testimonies about Beyers Naud but also about the apartheid era in general and about the role that Christianity played in that period In addition to an abundance of insights on Beyers Naud by those who knew him best it offers perspectives on the movements and entities that Naud associated himself with for example the Christian Institute the South African Council of Churches and the people involved in both Stories unfold of faith and suffering as well as betrayal all against the background of an overtly racist apartheid state and by implication against a capitalist system with class divisions that degraded human beings and denied their human dignity Pathways in Ethics Piet Naud,,2016-10-01 The public rationality of Christian faith is demonstrated in the way that Christian convictions make contributions to the contents and substance of intellectual pluralistic public discourses on themes like economic justice and human rights The impact of Christian faith for all walks of life from the most intimate individual life to the most social global and cosmic life are dealt with in this great work of Public Theology from the African soil Prof Nico Koopman Faith Negotiating Loyalties Stephen W. Martin,2008-09-11 Faith Negotiating Loyalties draws readers into the world of Christian faith in South Africa and the question of loyalties in the new post apartheid state It carries out its investigation in two parts Part one examines Christian faith and loyalty during the first nation building exercise following the South African War positioning the creation and contestation of three Christianities corresponding to three nationalisms each of which imagined South Africa in a particular way shaping faith accordingly The idea of an undifferentiated South African Christianity gives way to contesting and contested Christianities nationalism gives way to nationalisms and faith emerges in tension with and in criticism of these loyalties Part two discusses the American theologian H Richard Niebuhr in South Africa Three kinds of faith in his writings are set forth social faith radial faith and reconstructing faith Contextualized within the South African story Niebuhr's ideas suggest self and society as constituted by
