Naval Power And Trade In The Mediterranean AD 500-1100 Princeton Studies In History:

Naval Power and Trade in the Mediterranean Archibald Ross Lewis, 1951 Naval Power and Trade in the Mediterranean AD 500-1100 Archibald Ross Lewis, 1951 Medieval Trade in the Mediterranean World, 2001-09-18 This collection of merchant documents is essential reading for any student of economic developments in the Middle Ages who wishes to go beyond the level of textbook summaries. Different aspects of economic life in the Mediterranean world are delineated in the light of a rich variety of articles and other contemporary writings drawn from Muslim and Christian sources. From commercial contracts, promissory notes and judicial acts to working manuals of practical geography and philology, this volume of documents provides an unparalleled portrait of the world of medieval commerce. Trade and Institutions in the Medieval Mediterranean Jessica Goldberg, 2012-08-23 This book reconstructs the business world of the eleventh century Geniza merchants and in doing so rewrites medieval Islamic and Mediterranean economic history. War at Sea in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance John B. Hattendorf, Richard W. Unger, 2003 Wide ranging in place and time yet tightly focused on particular concerns, these new and original specialist articles show how observations on the early history of warfare based on the relatively stable conditions of the late seventeenth century ignore the realities of war at sea in the middle ages and renaissance. In these studies, naval historians firmly grounded in the best current understanding of the period take account of developments in ships, guns and the language of public policy on war at sea and in so doing give a stimulating introduction to five hundred years of maritime violence in Europe. BOOK JACKET The Mediterranean in History David Abulafia, 2003 What is the Mediterranean? Physical setting, Trading empires, Sea routes, Mare Nostrum, Christian Mediterranean, Resurgent Islam, Battleground of the European powers, Globalized Mediterranean. Medieval Naval Warfare, 1000-1500 Susan Rose, 2002 How were medieval navies organised and how did powerful rulers use them? Throughout the book, major research questions and historiographical debates are identified and guidance is given on how to engage with and evaluate key documentary sources as well as artistic and archaeological evidence. The book's aim is to engender confidence in creative and independent historical thought. This second edition has been fully revised and expanded and now includes coverage of both Islamic and Byzantine history, surveying and critically examining the often radically different scholarly interpretations relating to them. Also new to this edition is an extensively updated and closely integrated companion website which has been carefully designed to provide practical guidance to teachers and students, offering a wealth of reference materials and aids to mastering the period and lighting the way for further exploration of written and non-written sources.
