Odyssey On The Sea Of Faith:

Sea of Faith Don Cupitt, 2013-01-26 This text began in the 1860s as a phrase from Matthew Arnold's picture of the decline of religion as the retreat of the tide on Dover's beach. The book has had a significant impact for its account of historical developments and its presentation of Christian non-realism.

The Philosophy of Religion Beverley Clack, Brian R. Clack, 2019-05-29 For over twenty years Beverley Clack and Brian R. Clack's distinctive and thought-provoking introduction to the philosophy of religion has been of enormous value to students and scholars, providing an approach to the subject that is bold and refreshingly alternative. This revised and updated edition retains the accessibility which makes the book popular while furthering its distinctive argument regarding the human dimension of religion. The central emphasis of the philosophy of religion, the concept of God and the arguments for and against God's existence, is reflected in thorough analyses while alternative approaches to traditional philosophical theism are explored. The treatments of both the miraculous and immortality have been revised and expanded, and the concluding chapter updates the investigation of how philosophy of religion might be conducted in an age defined by religious terrorism. Clear, systematic and highly critical, the third edition of The Philosophy of Religion will continue to be essential reading for students and scholars of this fascinating and important subject.

God in Postliberal Perspective Robert Andrew Cathey, 2016-04-22 Who is God? The variety of images of God tends to overwhelm us in the present age. Is God a fiction of human construction or a reality that makes claims upon how we practice faith in God? How does this quest for an understanding of God illumine who we are? God in Postliberal Perspective presents an introduction to the doctrine and concept of God in contemporary philosophy and theology, exploring how some theologians and philosophers dare to speak of God as real in our sceptical, pluralistic and interfaith age. Robert Cathey tours the house of realism as constructed by postliberal Christians: David Burrell, William Placher, Bruce Marshall, in conversation with living communities of faith and critical work in philosophy and theology, and develops a distinctive argument about the relation of realism and non-realism in constructing the doctrine of God in postliberal theology. Offering a reading of postliberal theology which is open to critical discussion with other types of theology, philosophy and faith traditions, this book proposes a model of theological reflection that may be extended to the reality claims of a wide range of doctrines and concepts.
