

Waiter, There's No Fly in My Soup

WHEN I GO OUT to a nice restaurant, aside from a decent table (being short and green usually means that I get stuck in a corner near the kitchen), all I really want is to get a good hot bowl of broth with flies in it.

Or worms.

Or, sometimes, grubs in hot garlic, with some crisp French bread to sop up the sauce.

But, no, these days, with health departments being so strict, it's virtually impossible to get any of these ingredients to land near the table...much less in your soup bowl. So, while some people bring their own artificial sweetener, I just bring my own flies.
