Regional Security In The Third World:

Regional Security in the Middle East Zeev Maoz, 2013-06-17 Middle Eastern politics of the 1990s have been characterized by a drive towards peace Whether this is successful or not will depend on the negotiating process These articles discuss the challenges and provide some practical advice on how risks of failure could be avoided Regional Security in the Middle East Pinar Bilgin, 2019-01-31 In this new and fully revised edition Pinar Bilgin provides an accessible yet critical analysis of regional security in the Middle East analysing the significant developments that have taken place in the past years Drawing from a wide range of critical approaches to security the book offers a comprehensive study of pasts presents and futures of security in the region The book distinguishes itself from previous critical studies on regional security by opening up both region and security Different from those approaches that bracket one or the other this study takes seriously the constitutive relationship between inventing regions and conceptions and practices of security There is not one Middle East but many shaped by the insecurities of those who voice them This book focuses on how present day insecurities have their roots in practices that have throughout history been shaped by geopolitical inventions of security In doing so the book lays the contours of a framework for thinking critically about regional security in this part of the world This second edition of Regional Security in the Middle East is a key resource for students and scholars interested in International Relations and Political Science Security Studies and Middle East Studies Regional Security in the Middle East ,

Security Studies Christopher W. Hughes, Yew Meng Lai, 2011-02-18 This reader brings together key contributions from many of the leading scholars in the field offering students an informed overview of the most significant work in security studies The editors chart the development of the key theoretical and empirical debates in security studies in the Cold War and post Cold War periods introducing the ideas of the most influential past masters and contemporary thinkers on security in the UK US and elsewhere The book is divided into five areas What is Security Security Paradigms Security Dimensions and Issues Security Frameworks and Actors The Future of Security In order to guide students through the issues the book has a substantial critical introduction exploring the development of security studies as well as introductory essays that provide an overview of each section highlighting clearly how the readings fit together Suggestions for further reading and key questions for discussion are also included Security Studies is an invaluable resource for all students of security studies and international relations

Critical Security Studies: Concepts and Cases Keith Krause, 2005 Rewiring Regional Security in a Fragmented World Chester A. Crocker, Fen Osler Hampson, Pamela R. Aall, United States Institute of Peace, 2011 Rewiring Regional Security in a Fragmented World examines conflict management capacities and gaps regionally and globally and assesses whether regions through their regional organizations or through loose coalitions of states regional bodies and non official actors are able to address an array of new and emerging security threats Arms Transfer Limitations and Third World Security Thomas Ohlson, 1988 Is the arms trade totally uncontrolled What are the main obstacles to limitations on arms transfers What can be learned from past attempts at arms transfer control This book which completes SIPRI's trilogy on the facts and implications of Third World build up of major conventional weapons assesses past efforts current proposals and future possibilities to limit the transfer of weapons and military technology to Third World countries It is a companion to the two SIPRI volumes Arms Production in the Third World 1986 and Arms Transfers to the Third World 1971 85 OUP 1987

Building Regional Security in the Middle East Emily B. Landau, Tamar Malz, Zeev Maoz, 2004-11-23 Discussions on regional security were initiated in the Middle East in 1992 as part of the Middle East peace process The collapse of the Oslo process and other regional developments in the latter half of the 1990s have diminished hopes that the initial gains made in this direction might further develop as violence has again become the primary mode of effecting political changes in the region On the backdrop of this somewhat dismal current reality in the Middle East the rationale for this volume is that research into regional security structures should nevertheless be pursued When looking at the long term process of creating regional security setbacks are not unlikely The articles that make up this collection focus on the problems that have been encountered and possible directions for getting regional efforts back on track A special issue of the Journal of Strategic Studies

Documents on Disarmament, 1986 Documents on Disarmament United States. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, 1986

Regional Security in Southeast Asia Mely Caballero Anthony, 2005 The book examines ASEAN's mechanisms in managing challenges and threats to regional security Its extensive analyses of the ASEAN story of managing regional security cover the different phases of ASEAN's development as a regional organization and explore the perceptible changes that have occurred in regional mechanisms of conflict management The book also examines the roles of relevant actors beyond the states of ASEAN and the key interactions that have evolved over time which have been instrumental in moving regional mechanisms beyond the ASEAN way The book argues that the ASEAN way has not been impervious to change As the association finds its way through periods of crises and continues to confront the many challenges ahead ASEAN and its mechanisms are already being transformed beyond the narrow confines of the modalities associated with the ASEAN way The changes in the political and security landscape of the region as well as the democratic transitions taking place in some member states have set the stage for a much more dynamic set of regional actors and processes that bring into question the kind of regionalism that is now taking place in the region the way regionalism is changing in Southeast Asia

Regional Security and Confidence-building Processes Solomon Nkiwane, United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research, 1993 Asian Security Jasjit Singh, 1991 Politics and Economy in Jordan Rodney Wilson, 2005-12-05

Spyridon N. Litsas, Aristotle Tziampiris, 2018-06-12 This volume provides an introduction to the Eastern Mediterranean region and introduces the concept of the Eastern Mediterranean as a new regional subsystem Due to recent events in contemporary international politics the Eastern Mediterranean can be seen as a laboratory where the balance of power among Great Powers and regional states are being tested Written by leading academics in their respective fields this book addresses key developments in the area and argues that the Eastern Mediterranean should be viewed as a distinct region Particular emphasis is given to the initiatives undertaken by Israel Greece Cyprus and Turkey the role played by the United States and Russia and the issues of energy migration and Islamic terrorism Bringing together relevant information and theoretical debates this book will be of interest to graduate students and academics studying international relations and politics in the Eastern Mediterranean as well as policymakers and journalists who want to have a clearer understanding of developments in the region Problems and Prospects of Sustaining Democracy in Nigeria Bamidele A. Ojo, 2001

The past few years have been very traumatic ones for many Nigerians With the exception of those in power or close to the seat of power the changes of 1998 were a welcome relief given the tyranny and repression that the country had suffered under General Abacha With many people in prison and more in exile the death of Abacha was received with a sigh of relief Many observers have seen the resilience that has come to signify the strength and potential of this once giant of Africa as well as the destruction and the socio political and economic decay of the past decades The Nigerian people have endured the exploitation of their rights due to the lack of democratic leadership and with this in mind they have been called to attention to fight for their country

International and Regional Security Benjamin Miller, 2016-11-10 This volume is a collection of the best essays of Professor Benjamin Miller on the subjects of international and regional security The book analyses the interrelationships between international politics and regional and national security with a special focus on the sources of international conflict and collaboration and the causes of war and peace More specifically it explains the sources of intended and unintended great power conflict and collaboration The book also accounts for the sources of regional war and peace by developing the concept of the state to nation balance Thus the volume is able to explain the variations in the outcomes of great power interventions and the differences in the level and type of war and peace in different eras and various parts of the world For example the book's model can account for recent outcomes such as the effects of the 2003 American intervention in Iraq the post 2011 Arab Spring and the conflicts between Russia and Ukraine The book also provides a model for explaining the changes in American grand strategy with a special focus on accounting for the causes of the invasion of Iraq in 2003 Finally the book addresses the debate on the future of war and peace in the 21st century This book will be essential reading for students of international security regional security Middle Eastern politics foreign policy and IR The Transformation of Security in the Asia/Pacific Region Desmond Ball,2013-10-14 The security architecture of the Asia Pacific region is in a profound transformation Such changes are not without problems which are discussed here Regional Security Structures in Asia Ashok Kapor,2018-10-24 Kapor argues that explanations of international relations in Asia in the post Second World War period have relied too much on the Cold War as a key explanatory factor and have not given enough emphasis to the useful concepts of regional power formation conflict formation and conflict resolution The author outlines these concepts and goes on to elaborate on them and to apply them to three key Asian regions northeast southeast and south Asia discussing practical strategic issues in an historical perspective and arguing that these concepts and other concepts which he discusses are extremely helpful in making sense of the complex pattern of international relations in Asia
