James, 2025-05-12 This practical guide provides essential knowledge and tools for nursing and healthcare students and practitioners to develop their leadership skills from the very beginning of their practice and throughout their careers The first section provides an overview of leadership in nursing and healthcare in today's context discussing relevant theory and values based approaches such as congruent compassionate and ethical leadership the role of nurses and healthcare professionals in policy social justice and decision making and how leadership positively impacts quality of patient care and the healthcare professions how we learn leadership skills such as emotional and social intelligence and experiential methods of learning such as reflexivity learning from experience and Action Learning The second section looks at the role of emotions and experiential learning in leadership development and methods such as action learning reflexivity lifelong journaling and the use of narratives and the arts to introduce a range of practical tools and methods for the reader to use in their own development Strategies for the less experienced practitioner and for the more experienced practitioner are presented including action learning and promoting wellbeing and the book also highlights the evidence base the methods draw on This creative text introduces vital tools and uses reflective activities and questions to support readers in building their leadership skills It is ideal for students and practitioners at all levels in nursing and healthcare interested in self development Communication Skills for Effective Management Owen Hargie, David Dickson, Dennis Tourish, 2017-03-14 It is now widely recognized that communication is at the very heart of effective management There is therefore an ever expanding demand for valid and generalizable information on how best to relate to people in organizational contexts Communication Skills for Effective Management meets this demand It demonstrates how for managers to be successful they need to employ a range of key communication skills styles and strategies The contents are based upon the authors considerable experiences of researching teaching and consulting in a range of private and public sector organisations From their academic and real world involvement they have identified the core skills of effective management presented in an academically rigorous yet student friendly way the reader is encouraged to interact with the material covered Each chapter contains a series of boxed text diagrams tables and illustrations which summarise core points Exercises are also provided to enable managers to put the material reviewed into practice All of this is underpinned and supported by a firm foundation of research findings This will be an excellent text for undergraduate business and management students studying business communication and MBA students Practising managers will also find this book to be an invaluable resource Building

Influence in the Workplace Aryanne Oade,2016-04-30 Introduces you to a valuable set of tools enabling you to build influence promote your interests and get buy in to your plans and proposals The book will enable you to identify your own workplace values and those of your key colleagues and understand how to retain the influence you have already gained and stand by your values under pressure Policy That Works for Forests and People Stephen Bass,James Mayers,2013-06-17 1

Introduction 2 Forests people and power the scene the players and the drama 3 Policy that works for forests and people a collaborative project approach 4 Policy in the real world themes in failure and success 5 International policy trends and initiatives their implications for forests and people 6 Conclusions Community Practice David A. Hardcastle,2011-02-18

For almost two decades Community Practice has been a definitive text for social workers community practitioners and students eager to help individuals contribute to and use community resources or work to change oppressive community structures In this third edition a wealth of new charts and cases spotlight the linkages between theoretical orientations and practical skills with an enhanced emphasis on the inherently political nature of social work and community practice Boxes examples and exercises illustrate the range of skills and strategies available to savvy community practitioners in the 21st century including networking marketing and staging political advocacy and leveraging information and communication technologies Other features include New material on community practice ethics critical practice skills community assessment and assets inventory and mapping social problem analysis and applying community practice skills to casework practice Consideration of post 9 11 community challenges Discussion on the changing ethnic composition of America and what this means for practitioners An exploration of a vastly changed political landscape following the election of President Obama the Great Recession the rise of the Tea Party and the increasing political and corporate use of pseudo grassroots endeavors A completely revamped instructor s manual available online at www.oup.com/us/communitypractice This fully revised classic text provides a comprehensive and integrated overview of the community theory and skills fundamental to all areas of social work practice Broad in scope and intensive in analysis it is suitable for undergraduate as well as graduate study Community Practice offers students and practitioners the tools necessary to promote the welfare of individuals and communities by tapping into the ecological foundations of community and social work practice Vital coalitions, vital regions Ina

Horlings,2023-09-04 Many rural regions in Europe are undergoing a dynamic transition driven by forces of urbanisation and agricultural development new patterns of production and consumption and new societal demands However while the historical rural urban divide is eroding rural landscapes are becoming more important to people for leisure recreation and personal orientation The complex processes affecting rural areas are proving difficult for the current institutions to manage

The challenge is to find ways to create new capacity to act and get sustainable initiatives off the ground initiatives that are now often smothered or constrained by the institutional context This book bridges the gap between theory and practice to explore the conditions required to enable a transition towards sustainable regional development It analyses experiences in eight regions in the Netherlands where different regional strategies have been pursued the development of new markets rural services and linkages between producers and consumers spatial designs regional branding and new alliances between agricultural sectors and other sectors The authors argue that specific forms of networks called vital coalitions have the ability to foster better regional co operation and identify the crucial requirements for vital co operation These include the presence of leaders of change agenda setting processes coalition building and supportive government authorities The book is of value to all those interested or involved in rural and regional development professionals policy makers scientists and students
