Violent and Vulnerable Performances: Challenging the Gender Boundaries of Masculinities and Femininities ,2019-01-04

This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 As social constructs masculinities and femininities are continually being challenged and reconstructed and in so doing new subjectivities are re produced The boundaries of gender thus remain both violent and vulnerable violent in the Butlerian sense of subject formation and normative gender policing and vulnerable as they are fraught with possibilities for new ways of gendering and new definitions of sexual difference This volume thus examines the boundaries of masculinities and femininities through various cultural socio historical and political contexts and the tensions which arise from the constant challenges and reconstructions Violent and Vulnerable Performances Challenging the Gender Boundaries of Masculinities and Femininities contains fourteen chapters which demonstrate the situatedness of gender and its impacts on race class sex the body identity language work the family and further cultural socio political and economic processes Public Health Reports ,1941 Divine Election Eduardo J. Echeverria,2016-09-14

This dogmatic study addresses two perennial questions First how do we reconcile God s sovereignty with human freedom not just in general but particularly with respect to the Church s full understanding of God s plan of salvation as a work of grace Second and equally crucial is the question of how we reconcile God s universal salvific will with the mystery of predestination election and reprobation The author of this study does theology within the normative tradition of confessional Catholicism and thus in the light of Catholic teaching But this study is also an ecumenical work indeed a work in receptive ecumenism and hence he listens attentively to the reflections and arguments not only of his fellow Catholic theologians Matthias Joseph Scheeben and Hans Urs von Balthasar but also theologians of the Evangelical and Reformed traditions John Calvin Herman Bavinck Karl Barth and G C Berkouwer This book concludes with a Catholic synthesis regarding the doctrine of divine election in dogmatic and ecumenical perspective A Course in Categorical Data Analysis Thomas Leonard,2020-08-26

Categorical data comprising counts of individuals objects or entities in different categories emerge frequently from many areas of study including medicine sociology geology and education They provide important statistical information that can lead to real life conclusions and the discovery of fresh knowledge Therefore the ability to manipulate understand and interpret categorical data becomes of interest if not essential to professionals and students in a broad range of disciplines Although t tests linear regression and analysis of variance are useful valid methods for analysis of measurement data categorical data requires a different methodology and techniques typically not encountered in introductory statistics courses Developed from long experience in teaching categorical analysis to a multidisciplinary mix of undergraduate and graduate students A Course in Categorical Data Analysis presents the easiest most straightforward ways of extracting real life conclusions from contingency tables The author uses a Fisherian approach to categorical data analysis and incorporates numerous examples and real data sets Although he offers S PLUS routines through the Internet readers do not need full knowledge of a statistical software package In this unique text the author chooses methods and an approach that nurtures intuitive thinking He trains his readers to focus not on finding a model that fits the data but on using different models that may lead to meaningful conclusions The book offers some simple innovative techniques not highlighted in other texts that help make the book accessible to a broad interdisciplinary audience A Course in Categorical Data Analysis enables readers to quickly use its offering of tools for drawing scientific medical or real life conclusions from categorical data sets Game Theory Hans Peters, 2008-08-15 This book presents the basics of game theory both on an undergraduate level and on a more advanced mathematical level It covers topics of interest in game theory including cooperative game theory Every chapter includes a problem section Lectures Delivered Before the Young Men's Christian Association Young Men's Christian Association (England), Young Men's Christian Association (England), 1861 Married Men Exemption [drafting of Fathers] United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Military Affairs, 1943 Medical Services, General History Sir William Grant MacPherson, 1921 The British Empire and the First World War Ashley Jackson, 2017-06-26 The British Empire played a crucial part in the First World War supplying hundreds of thousands of soldiers and labourers as well as a range of essential resources from foodstuffs to minerals mules and munitions In turn many imperial territories were deeply affected by wartime phenomena such as inflation food shortages combat and the presence of large numbers of foreign troops This collection offers a comprehensive selection of essays illuminating the extent of the Empire's war contribution and experience and the richness of scholarly research on the subject Whether supporting British military operations aiding the British imperial economy or experiencing significant wartime effects on the home fronts of the Empire the war had a profound impact on the colonies and their people The chapters in this volume were originally published in Australian Historical Studies The Journal of Imperial and Commonwealth History First World War Studies or The Round Table The Commonwealth Journal of International Affairs Report, 1952 Justification: A Guide for the Perplexed Alan J. Spence, 2012-01-26 This title provides an upper level introduction to the doctrine of justification which triggered the Reformation and is still high up on the agenda in Ecumenical dialogue The core of the book is an historical survey of the doctrine of justification as it has developed within the Western church a somewhat simplified version of McGrath's Justitia Dei but with a more outspoken assessment of the various moves that are taken at various stages in the discussion Attention will be paid to the context or prevailing world view in which such a doctrine is deemed significant Although the focus is on a number of principal theologians there are some reference to their peers or followers Only at the end the Pauline texts are examined The conclusion considers what part a doctrine of justification can have within a modern worldview in which the concept of divine judgement has generally been marginalised Continuum's Guides for the Perplexed are clear concise and accessible introductions to thinkers writers and subjects that students and readers can find especially challenging or indeed downright bewildering Concentrating specifically on what it is that makes the subject difficult to grasp these books explain and explore key themes and ideas guiding the reader towards a thorough understanding of demanding material

The Children of Lincoln William D. Green, 2018-10-23 How white advocates of emancipation abandoned African American causes in the dark days of Reconstruction told through the stories of four Minnesotans White people Frederick Douglass said in a speech in 1876 were the children of Lincoln while black people were at best his stepchildren Emancipation became the law of the land and white champions of African Americans in the state were suddenly turning to other causes regardless of the worsening circumstances of black Minnesotans Through four of these children of Lincoln in Minnesota William D Green's book brings to light a little known but critical chapter in the state's history as it intersects with the broader account of race in America In a narrative spanning the years of the Civil War and Reconstruction the lives of these four Minnesotans mark the era's most significant moments in the state the Midwest and the nation for the Republican Party the Baptist church women's suffrage and Native Americans Morton Wilkinson the state's first Republican senator Daniel Merrill a St Paul business leader who helped launch the first Black Baptist church Sarah Burger Stearns founder and first president of the Minnesota Woman Suffragist Association and Thomas Montgomery an immigrant farmer who served in the Colored Regiments in the Civil War each played a part in securing the rights of African Americans and each abandoned the fight as the forces of hatred and prejudice increasingly threatened those hard won rights Moving from early St Paul and Fort Snelling to the Civil War and beyond The Children of Lincoln reveals a pattern of racial paternalism describing how even enlightened white Northerners fatigued with the Negro Problem would come to embrace policies that reinforced a notion of black inferiority Together their lives so differently and deeply connected with nineteenth century race relations create a telling portrait of Minnesota as a microcosm of America during the tumultuous years of Reconstruction
