Rekindling the Torch David J. Azrieli,Joe King,Gil Troy,2008 Rekindling the Torch The Story of Canadian Zionism begins with the long and troubled history of the Jewish people that informed the nineteenth century idea of Zionism the search for a homeland After surviving anti Semitic laws and pogroms Jewish refugees faced not only the ultimate crime against humanity but also the shocking indifference of the West when they were turned back from safe havens Far from weakening the spirit these combined tragedies strengthened their collective will In Canada Jewish immigrants created communities pooled their resources and rose to become captains of industry among them the Bronfmans the Batshaws and the Hayes They organized and actively pursued the goals of nationhood in Palestine Richly illustrated and extensively researched Rekindling the Torch celebrates the struggle of the Canadian Jewish people and their contributions to the state of Israel Excerpt from Rekindling the Torch from the Preface by David J Azrielli br The remarkable accomplishments of Canadian Zionism have left their marks across their length of the tiny land of Israel in the arts and sciences business and education on all seven university campuses in the forests lovingly planted in once barren hills Their extraordinary contributions to the Jewish State on an organizational and individual basis have inspired industrial development changed the way Isarelis shopped and even lived More than a decade ago when I served as president of the Canadian Zionist Organization I promised myself that this exceptional story would be told that the most outstanding figures in Canadian Zionist history be identified and their accomplishments described With the great assistance of the Joe King and Gil Troy herewith is that story In researching and writing this book we have delved into dusty archives and jogged the memories of many of the principals to ensure that the tale was truly well told I believe that with the publications of this book we have recorded the unique and important role played by Canadians as momentous partners in the historic reappearance on the world scene of a Jewish State after an absence of twenty centuries Malta Spitfire Pilot Denis Barnham,2010-09-30 One of the classic first hand pilot accounts of World War II covers the siege and the Axis aerial onslaught on the island The Spitfire Site Malta Spitfire Pilot is the journal of Flight Lieutenant Denis Barnham Having joined the RAF at the outbreak of war Denis grew from an inexperienced young pilot into a battle hardened Spitfire ace most of which occurred in the 200 grueling operational hours that followed his arrival on the embattled island of Malta in a period of just ten weeks in the spring and summer of 1942 Malta was of great strategic importance to the Allies and was pivotal to their success in North Africa as it provided the perfect launching pad for aircraft to attack Axis supply ships in the Mediterranean As a direct result the island in turn suffered intensive aerial bombardment by the Luftwaffe and Regia Aeronautica This memoir was written by the author as he and his fellow pilots battled against terrible odds and under constant attack It is one man s dramatic and moving account of the air battle to save Malta Much has been written on this subject but the author records his experiences in a personal way rather than strategy It is well worth reading his comments on action in one of the most bombed islands of the war Aeromilitaria Spirit Wind Peter L. H. Tie,Justin T. T. Tan,2020-12-29 Spirit Wind a collaborative investigation into the works and person of the Holy Spirit clearly and richly demonstrates diversity in theological perspectives but unity in the Christian faith All theological discussions should aim at humbly respecting theological distinctiveness while sincerely encouraging theological conversations Spirit Wind offers itself to achieve just that Spirit Wind consists of nine chapters written by nine Chinese theologians born in the Orient and trained in the West who are now serving passionately as seminary professors in Australia Singapore Taiwan or the United States Each author endeavors to explain the person and works of the Holy Spirit not only from Chinese standpoints but also from biblical historical and cultural pastoral perspectives and yet all chapters are theological in nature No theologian claims to capture all matters about the Spirit but every author of this book is captivated by the powerful presence sovereign freedom and beautiful operations of the Holy Spirit You will be too
