Children's Respiratory Nursing Janice Mighten, 2012-08-13 Children's Respiratory Nursing is a comprehensive patient centred text providing up to date information about the contemporary management of children with respiratory conditions It looks at acute and chronic respiratory conditions in both primary and secondary health care sectors and explores the subject from a child and family focused perspective Children's Respiratory Nursing is divided into four user friendly sections The first section provides a general background for children's respiratory nursing Section two explores the various investigations that aid diagnosis and treatment such as assessment of defects in airflow and lung volume oxygen therapy and long term ventilation Section three looks at respiratory infection and provides an overview of the common infections in children with reference to national and local guidelines The final section considers the practical issues that impact on children's nurses the transition from children to adult services legal and ethical issues and the professional communication skills needed for dealing with children and their families This practical text is essential reading for all children's nurses who have a special interest in respiratory conditions and would like to develop a greater level of understanding of the management required. Special Features: Examples of good practice provided throughout. Includes evidence-based case studies. Explores care in both hospital and community settings. A strong practical approach throughout.

Breast Cancer Nursing Care and Management Victoria Harmer, 2011-01-25 This book is an excellent resource for nurses working in either a hospital or primary care. Breast Cancer Care News This book would be really helpful to other breast cancer nurses and students about to embark on work in this field. Journal of Community Nursing This comprehensive handbook is for nurses and other healthcare professionals involved in the care of people with breast cancer. It gives up-to-date evidence-based information and practical advice on nursing care throughout diagnosis, treatment, recovery and end-of-life care. Each chapter is written by an expert in the field. Topics include the anatomy of the breast, available treatments, complementary therapies, the psychological care of patients and their families and the role of the specialist nurse. This book provides a well-balanced approach to all aspects of managing breast malignancy. The importance of writing from a nursing perspective is underlined so that the essence of support and bedside care is maintained. This second edition includes updates on guidelines as well as references to recent trials and changes to the breast screening programme. A new chapter on survivorship issues covering the long-term consequences and effects of recovering from breast cancer. The A to Z of Loss Elizabeth Bell, 2005 In a unique approach, this book links policy, theory and research with the expertise of service providers and users to explore the major debates concerning the provision of mental health services. Many of these dilemmas revolve around questions of who makes the choices and who has control. The book examines the power and demands of the disparate groups involved in the provision and use of services before considering the different practice options and their implicit values and goals. This book will inform critical debate among all those involved in the mental health enterprise and challenge health professionals to consider their own practice. It is timely and relevant reading for practitioners and managers at every level in all disciplines and from all agencies as well as service users and carers. Loss, Bereavement and Grief Bob Spall, Stephen Callis, 1997 Helps the reader to confront and address the personal issues of experienced and feared loss, thus enabling them as a professional carer to work more effectively with others.
