Relational Justice Repairing The Breach:

Relational Justice Jonathan Burnside, Nicola Baker, 2003-10-31 The Relationships Foundation exists to foster relational approaches to social economic and other problems including justice issues This book presents a refreshing challenge and is suitable to people who prefer non adversarial non conflict and non argument laden solutions Prison Patter Angela Devlin, 1996 Rita Hayworth dancing by candlelight in a small Mexican village Elizabeth Taylor devouring homemade pasta and tenderly wrapping him in her pashmina scarf streaking for Sir Laurence Olivier in a drafty English castle terrifying a dozing Jackie Onassis carrying an unconscious Montgomery Clift to safety on a dark New York City street Captured forever in a unique memoir Frank Langella s myriad encounters with some of the past century s most famous human beings are profoundly affecting funny wicked sometimes shocking and utterly irresistible With sharp wit and a perceptive eye Mr Langella takes us with him into the private worlds and privileged lives of movie stars presidents royalty literary lions the social elite and the greats of the Broadway stage What for instance was Jack Kennedy doing on that coffee table Why did the Queen Mother need Mr Langella s help When was Paul Mellon going to pay him money owed How did Brooke Astor lose her virginity Why was Robert Mitchum singing Gilbert Sullivan patter songs at top volume and what did Marilyn Monroe say to him that helped change the course of his life Through these shared experiences we learn something too of Mr Langella s personal journey from the age of fifteen to the present day Dropped Names is like its subjects riveting and unforgettable

Restoring Justice Daniel W. Van Ness, Karen Heetderks Strong, Jonathan Derby, L. Lynette Parker, 2022-05-30 Restoring Justice An Introduction to Restorative Justice Sixth Edition offers a clear and convincing explanation of restorative justice a movement within criminal justice with ongoing worldwide influence The book explores the broad appeal of this vision and offers a brief history of its roots and development as an alternative to an impersonal justice system focused narrowly on the conviction and punishment of those who break the law Instead restorative justice emphasizes repairing the harm caused or revealed by criminal behavior using cooperative processes that include all the stakeholders The book presents the theory and principles of restorative justice and discusses its four cornerpost ideas Inclusion Encounter Repair and Cohesion Multiple models for how restorative justice may be incorporated into criminal justice are explored and the book proposes an approach to assessing the extent to which programs or systems are actually restorative in practice The authors also suggest six strategic objectives to significantly expand the use and reach of restorative justice and recommended tactics to make progress towards the acceptance and adoption of restorative programs and systems Handbook of Restorative Justice Gerry Johnstone, Daniel Van Ness, 2013-01-11 This book provides a comprehensive and authoritative account and analysis of restorative justice one of the most rapidly growing phenomena in the field of criminology and justice studies This book aims to meet the need for a comprehensive reliable and accessible overview of the subject It draws together leading authorities on the subject from around the world in order to elucidate and discuss the key concepts and principles of restorative justice

explain how the campaign for restorative justice arose and developed into the influential social movement it is today describe the variety of restorative justice practices explain how they have developed in various places and contexts and critically examine their rationales and effects identify and examine key tensions and issues within the restorative justice movement brings a variety of disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives to bear upon the understanding and assessment of restorative justice The Handbook of Restorative Justice is essential reading for students and practitioners in the field

Perceptions of Criminal Justice Vicky De Mesmaecker, 2014-03-05 In recent decades research into the legitimacy of criminal justice has convincingly demonstrated the importance of procedural justice to citizens sense of trust and confidence in legal authorities and their resulting willingness to conform to the law and cooperate with the legal authorities Reversing the age old question why do people break the law theories of procedural justice have provided insight into the factors that encourage people to abide by the law suggesting that experiences of procedural fairness are crucial to achieving compliance with the law and to enhancing the legitimacy of criminal justice While these studies are important in showing that legal authorities need to pay attention to the fairness judgements of the people involved in legal procedures the focus on showing the importance of procedural justice has had the ironic consequence of distracting researchers from studying the equally important question of what fairness means to the people involved in legal proceedings In one of the first studies on procedural justice to use a qualitative research design the author provides the reader with detailed and insightful descriptions of the elements that determine how victims and defendants assess the fairness of their contact with the police and the courts Focusing on both the pre trial and the post trial phases this book will be of interest to academics and students engaged in the study of the psychology of law procedural justice and the legitimacy of criminal justice

Victims of Crime and Community Justice Brian Williams, 2005-05-15 Dr Brian Williams lays bare the assumptions about victims and offenders that currently restrict efficient policy making He evaluates proposed solutions including restorative justice and informal community justice and draws on evidence and experiences from the UK and around the world to investigate which measures have proved effective

Criminal Justice 2000 Mick Cavadino, Iain Crow, 1999-06-30 A comprehensive outline of criminal justice in the UK at the turn of the century by three of the UK s leading exponents and that contains suggestions for restorative justice approaches for the future

Criminal Justice 2000 Michael Cavadino, Iain Crow, James Dignan, 1999 A comprehensive outline of criminal justice in the UK at the turn of the century by three of the UK s leading exponents and that contains suggestions for restorative justice approaches for the future

Restorative Justice Theo Gavrielides, 2017-09-19 The legitimacy and performance of the traditional criminal justice system is the subject of intense scrutiny as the world economic crisis continues to put pressure on governments to cut the costs of the criminal justice system This volume brings together the leading work on restorative justice to achieve two objectives to construct a comprehensive and up to date conceptual framework for restorative justice suitable even for newcomers and to challenge the barriers of restorative justice in the hope of taking its theory and practice a step further The selected articles start by answering some fundamental questions about restorative justice regarding its historical and philosophical origins and challenge the concept by bringing into the debate the human rights and equality discourses Also included is material based on empirical testing of restorative justice claims especially those impacting on reoffending rates victim satisfaction and reintegration The volume concludes with a critique of restorative justice as well as with analytical thinking that aims to push its barriers It is hoped that the investigations offered by this volume not only offer hope for a better system for abolitionists and reformists but also new and convincing evidence to persuade the sceptics in the debate over restorative justice Restorative Justice for Juveniles Lode Walgrave,1998 A selection of papers presented at the international conference Leuven May 12 14 1997 Criminology and Public Theology Millie, Andrew,2020-11-11 At a time when criminal justice systems appear to be in a permanent state of crisis leading scholars from criminology and theology come together to challenge criminal justice orthodoxy by questioning the dominance of retributive punishment This timely and unique contribution considers alternatives that draw on Christian ideas of hope mercy and restoration Promoting cross disciplinary learning the book will be of interest to academics and students of criminology socio legal studies legal philosophy public theology and religious studies as well as practitioners and policy makers Justice in the Making: Relating, Participating, Communicating Robyn Ann Penman,2025-01-12 Why don't measures relying on distributive justice really seem to solve social justice problems How can we account for the persistence of racist injustice despite good intentions How well is justice really served in our adversarial system in courts Are procedural justice measures really good enough Has restorative justice been co-opted and compromised by the conventional justice system Robyn Penman invites you to explore with her what it can mean to reimagine justice as something we make together in the dynamic process of relating and communicating with all its uncertainties and open endedness She draws particularly on ideas from the relational turn in philosophy on pragmatism on social constructionism and on a communication perspective Using a relational communication framework Robyn Penman shows how it is possible to pick up the threads of recent critiques and reform proposals in the justice literature and transform them into something so much better In doing so she develops a rich grammar including concepts such as relational responsivity and responsibility to account for the dynamics of making justice She also offers new insights and possibilities towards acting justly in an ongoing co-created process Controversies in Critical Criminology Martin Schwartz,Suzanne E. Hatty,2014-09-25 These original essays introduce students to the complex and influential field of critical criminology It presents many of the theories of critical criminology Marxist Feminist Left Realist Postmodern Constitutive Peacemaking and Restorative Justice and explores how despite their distinctions each theory is rooted in radical criminology and all are critical of mainstream criminology Justice that Restores Charles W. Colson,2001 Something clearly is wrong with the current justice system in which repeat incarceration is high injustice is rampant and 25 percent of African American males can expect to spend time behind bars Colson s biblical ideas for reform have the potential to turn the system around keep innocent people out of prison and give victims some relief Support for Crime Victims in a Comparative Perspective Ezzat A. Fattah,1998 A collection of essays dedicated to the memory of Prof Frederic McClintock

Victim-Offender Mediation in Europe EUFORUMRJ,2000-06-21 This publication is an initiative of the European Forum for Victim Offender Mediation and Restorative Justice and results from its first conference which was held in Leuven Belgium from 27 29 October 1999 The first six chapters consider victim offender mediation and restorative justice from a more theoretical point of view These analyses of theoretical legal policy ethical and societal aspects of mediation and restorative justice have been written by well known scholars in this field The second part of the book consists of overviews of the situation with regard to victim offender mediation in the eight European countries in which it is currently the most developed Austria Belgium Finland France Germany Norway Poland and the United Kingdom For these last chapters a multitude of information was collected in each of these countries and this is presented and analysed comparatively The following topics are discussed for each of the countries the history of victim offender mediation in that particular country the legal context policy and implementation the number of programmes and the way they function the practice of mediation the number and characteristics of cases evaluation and research and finally challenges obstacles and expectations for the future This is probably the first time that such extensive reports on the practice of victim offender mediation in Europe have been brought together in this way In publishing this book the European Forum is seeking to contribute to the realisation of one of its objectives namely providing people all over Europe and beyond with information on victim offender mediation and restorative justice in other countries Restorative justice is a relatively new field and is still very much evolving A full exchange of information and ideas will contribute to this process Journal of Moral Theology, Volume 5, Number 2 David M.
