Love Human And Divine The Heart Of Christian Ethics:

Love, Human and Divine Edward Collins Vacek, 1994-04-01 Although the two great commandments to love God and to love our neighbors as ourselves are central to Christianity few theologians or spiritual writers have undertaken an extensive account of the meaning and forms of these loves Most accounts in fact make love of God and love of self either impossible or immoral Integrating these two commandments Edward Vacek SJ develops an original account of love as the theological foundation for Christian ethics Vacek criticizes common understandings of agape eros and philia examining the arguments of Aquinas Nygren Outka Rahner Scheler and other theologians and philosophers He defines love as an emotional affirmative participation in the beloved s real and ideal goodness and he extends this definition to the love between God and self Vacek proposes that the heart of Christian moral life is loving cooperation with God in a mutually perfecting friendship

Love and Christian Ethics Frederick V. Simmons, 2016-12-15 At the heart of Christian ethics is the biblical commandment to love God and to love one s neighbor as oneself But what is the meaning of love Scholars have wrestled with this question since the recording of the Christian gospels and in recent decades teachers and students of Christian ethics have engaged in vigorous debates about appropriate interpretations and implications of this critical norm In Love and Christian Ethics nearly two dozen leading experts analyze and assess the meaning of love from a wide range of perspectives Chapters are organized into three areas influential sources and exponents of Western Christian thought about the ethical significance of love perennial theoretical questions attending that consideration and the implications of Christian love for important social realities Contributors bring a richness of thought and experience to deliver unprecedentedly broad and rigorous analysis of this central tenet of Christian ethics and faith William Werpehowski provides an afterword on future trajectories for this research Love and Christian Ethics is sure to become a benchmark resource in the field

Brady The Intentional Life Series Ramesh P. Richard, 2004-05-01 This set includes all three books of the Intentional Life Series Soul Passion Soul Mission and Soul Vision Throughout the Ages humanity has pursued the meaning of life However most of us live decidedly arbitrary lives muddling through from day to day In the Intentional Life Series Dr Ramesh Richard who has been called the layman's Ravi Zacharias articulates how a meaningful life must be a truly intentional life comprised of passion mission and vision He believes that in order for us to embody our true selves and become what we were designed to be we must reevaluate that passion mission and vision and conform them to God's will In Soul Passion Richard argues that even though many of us know there must be something more to life we stumble about with undirected goals and undiscovered passion He motivates readers to ask themselves what their passion is where they have placed their heart love trust and sufficiency Discovering your soul passion is the foundation for living a biblically well built and profitable life In Soul Mission Richard explores what it means to have a mission for your life that is in response to God's universal purpose Readers will find themselves deeply challenged to evaluate why they're here and find assistance with developing their own soul mission In Soul Vision Richard closes the trilogy by orienting his readers to the future through guidance from the Divine Visionary The Nature of Love Thomas Jay Oord, 2010-04-01 God is love Consequently shouldn't love exist at the center of Christian theology When love is at the center theology is understood differently than it has typically been understood Some theologians have placed faith at the center others God's sovereignty still others the Church but Dr Oord places the emphasis on love God's love for us revealed in Christ in the Church and in creation and our love for God and others as ourselves must be afforded its rightful place Beginning with the foundation of love is what differentiates the Christian faith from others a loving God Dr Oord defines love as To love is to act intentionally in sympathetic empathetic response to God and others to promote overall well being Is this not what has defined Christians throughout history
