Love With A Difference:

Love's Labor Eva Feder Kittay, 2013-09-13 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

The Ambivalence of Scarcity and Other Essays Paul Dumouchel, 2014-10-01 First published in French in 1979 The Ambivalence of Scarcity was a groundbreaking work on mimetic theory Now expanded upon with new specially written and never before published conference texts and essays this revised edition explores Ren Girard s philosophy in three sections economy and economics mimetic theory and violence and politics in modern societies The first section argues that though mimetic theory is in many ways critical of modern economic theory this criticism can contribute to the enrichment of economic thinking The second section explores the issues of nonviolence and misrecognition m connaissance which have been at the center of many discussions of Girard s work The final section proposes mimetic analyses of the violence typical of modern societies from high school bullying to genocide and terrorist attacks Politics Dumouchel argues is a violent means of protecting us from our own violent tendencies and it can at times become the source of the very savagery from which it seeks to protect us The book s conclusion analyzes the relationship between ethics and economics opening new avenues of research and inviting further exploration Dumouchel s introduction reflects on the importance of Ren Girard s work in relation to ongoing research especially in social sciences and philosophy

Inductive Studies in English Grammar William Rainey Harper, Isaac Bronson Burgess, 1894

The Philosophy of Christology Hue Woodson, 2022-01-31 Given the perpetual problem of the historical Jesus there remains an ongoing posing of the question to and a continuous seeking of the meaningfulness of Christology From the earliest reckoning with the relationship between Jesus of Nazareth and the Christ of faith what it means to do Christology today remains at the methodological center of the task and scope of every systematic theology Whether giving an account of Albert Schweitzer s bringing an end to the quest for the historical Jesus in 1906 or attending to Rudolf Bultmann s period of no quest culminating with his demythologization project in the 1940s how we still think of Christology as a matter of questions and concerns with meaning speaks to an unavoidable philosophizing of Christology In this way The Philosophy of Christology offers both a particular history of Christology in conjunction with a particular philosophy of Christology which assesses the theological contributions by a group of Bultmannians following Bultmann in the 1950s and 1960s up to what can be reimaged by repurposing Jacques Derrida s philosophical question into the meaning of love in 2002

Life-Destroying Diagrams Eugenie Brinkema, 2022-01-14 In Life Destroying Diagrams Eugenie Brinkema brings the insights of her radical formalism to bear on supremely risky terrain the ethical extremes of horror and love Through close readings of works of film literature and philosophy she explores how diagrams grids charts lists abecedaria toroids tempos patterns colors negative space lengths increments and thresholds attest to formal logics of torture and cruelty violence and finitude friendship and eros debt and care Beginning with a wholesale rethinking of the affect of horror orienting it away from entrenched models of feeling toward impersonal schemes and structures Brinkema moves outward to consider the relation between objects and affects humiliation and metaphysics genre and the general bodily destruction and aesthetic generation geometry and scenography hatred and value love and measurement and ultimately the tensions hazards and speculative promise of formalism itself Replete with etymological meditations performative typography and lyrical digressions Life Destroying Diagrams is at once a model of reading without guarantee and a series of generative experiments in the writing of aesthetic theory Maternal Impressions Cristina Mazzoni,2002 In an unusual combination of reflection autobiography theory and criticism Cristina Mazzoni looks at childbirth and early maternity from the perspective of an academic mother with three young children Mazzoni draws upon examples ranging from contemporary advice manuals and novels to the work of turn of the century Italian scientists and women writers as well as fairy tales religious texts psychoanalytic accounts and feminist theory Throughout her investigations of the various forces that shape cultural views of pregnancy and childbirth Mazzoni strives to imagine and deploy maternity as a concept and a reality capable of challenging conventional representations of subjectivity The questions she addresses dwell on relationship and interdependence the inseparability of the personal and the political and the connections and interactions between bodies and power Maternal Impressions is far more than a book of literary criticism and theory It reveals the multiple bonds and continuities between the contradictory ways in which pregnancy and childbirth were represented a century ago and the manner in which they still haunt feminist experience today In her conclusion Mazzoni points toward a possible ethics of maternity Healing After Narcissists Cole N. Harrington,2025-11-02 Break the Cycle Reclaim Your Power Heal for Good

Radia, 2016-12-14 While modernity aspired to fix radical alienation through aesthetics by assigning an ethical value to narratives contemporary literature and the arts are no longer immune to the impact of commodity culture amplified by globalization In the world of commodity corporate logic and cyborgs the very notion of identity is frequently turned into a spectacle Yet it is also simultaneously mobilized by the search for what Jean Baudrillard describes as the ecstatic form that materializes aesthetics Ecstatic Consumption The Spectacle of Global Dystopia in Contemporary American Literature investigates not only how these transformations affect gender racial and class relations as well as how they impact the representation of historical events Pop culture media and discourses of multiculturalism both important venues of and vehicles for globalization have had an extensive effect on contemporary writers like Don DeLillo Marge Piercy and Jane Smiley as have the discourses of terrorism and assimilation on the works of Diana Abu Jaber Chang Rae Lee Shalom Auslander and Alissa Torres As the works of these authors show the tendency to unify the world as a global village has been frequently complicit in perpetuating oppressive neo colonial ideologies As these writers reveal literature no longer provides a solid cure for the somnambulist culture of instant gratification On the global stage the body becomes the ultimate commodity the fetish of ecstatic consumption as it is persistently mobilized by the search for ecstatic avatar anti forms Whether these forms provide an escape into a utopian space or further enhance the dystopian ecstasy is a crucial query framing this book As it shows the works of DeLillo Smiley Piercy Abu Jaber Lee Auslander and Torres provide important and challenging commentaries on the ecstatic gaze of global dystopia particularly its appetite for alterity and the tragic often disguised as interchangeable metaphors of Otherness fear anxiety terror pain and pleasure titillation exoticism and ecstasy Consequently the book sheds light on the ways in which the culture of spectacle is ever evolving manipulating and affecting the global dependence on the ecstasy of consumption and its many different forms St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans Alexander Maclaren, 1909 Kierkegaard M. Jamie Ferreira, 2009-02-23 The first comprehensive introduction to cover the entire span of Kierkegaard's authorship Explores how the two strands of his writing religious discourses and pseudonymous literary creations influenced each other Accompanies the reader chronologically through all the philosopher's major works and integrates his writing into his biography Employs a unique how to approach to help the reader discover individual texts on their own and to help them closely examine Kierkegaard's language Presents the literary strategies employed in Kierkegaard's work to give the reader insight into subtext Luce Irigaray and the Question of the Divine Alison Martin, 2000 This study examines Luce Irigaray's oeuvre through the question of the divine focusing upon her contention that women need a female divine if they are about to become subjects It attempts to demonstrate that the issue of the divine should not be considered as one aspect of her thought but that it is central to her philosophy of sexual difference Hence Irigaray's critique of patriarchy is presented as a critique of the dominance of a religion of masculinity that favours a single universal Her proposal for two sexed universal divines is explored along with her specific suggestions for female divine ideals Particular emphasis is given to her engagements with Marx Nietzsche and Hegelianism and to the mode of her adoption of Christianity The study applauds the radical profundity of Irigaray s philosophy of sexual difference while remaining critical of the universalism in her notion of the divine for the doubt it casts upon the realization of a sexed culture Plymouth Pulpit ,1871 The Religious Existentialists and the Redemption of Feeling Anthony Malagon,Abi Doukhan,2019-06-27 Traditional philosophizing has generally depended upon reason as its primary access to truth Subjective experiences such as feelings the passions and emotions have typically been viewed as secondary to reason untrustworthy or both The Religious Existentialists and the Redemption of Feeling revisits how the movement of existentialism via the religious existentialists has contributed to a rethinking of the role of subjective experience in contrast to the rationalist and idealist traditions thus reframing the importance of feelings in general for the philosophical enterprise as a whole Through the considerations of a variety of thinkers this collection provides a fresh look at the contributions of twentieth century existentialists thereby re contextualizing the very notion of existentialism offering a powerful and genuine re evaluation of the significance of subjectivity and underscoring the continued relevance of the religious existentialists
