Lu Xun's Affirmative Biopolitics Wenjin Cui, 2021-11-29 This book explores an extraordinary case of affirmative biopolitics through the study of Lu Xun 1881 1936 the most prominent cultural figure of modern China Diverging from the Enlightenment humanist framework in reference to which Lu Xun is commonly interpreted it demonstrates how his thinking is defined by a naturalistic conception of culture that is best understood in the global context of what Foucault defines as the biological turn of modernity In comparison to ontologically grounded modern Western theories of life it brings to light the deep connection between Lu Xun's affirmative biopolitics and the epistemic ground of Chinese tradition what is known as correlative thinking Combining close readings of literary texts with a theoretical consideration of broader issues of culture this book is an essential read for scholars and students who are interested in Lu Xun modern Chinese intellectual history comparative studies of Chinese and Western thought and the question of affirmative biopolitics

The Specter of Materialism

Petrus Liu, 2022-12-09 In recent years queer theory appears to have made a materialist turn away from questions of representation and performativity to those of dispossession precarity and the differential distribution of life chances Despite this shift queer theory finds itself constantly reabsorbed into the liberal project of diversity management This theoretical and political weakness Petrus Liu argues stems from an incomplete understanding of capitalism's contemporary transformations of which China has been at the center In The Specter of Materialism Liu challenges key premises of classic queer theory and Marxism turning to an analysis of the Beijing Consensus global capitalism's latest mutation to develop a new theory of the political economy of sexuality Liu explores how relations of gender and sexuality get reconfigured to meet the needs of capital in new regimes of accumulation and dispossession demonstrating that evolving US Asian economic relations shape the emergence of new queer identities and academic theories In so doing he offers a new history of collective struggles that provides a transnational framework for understanding the nexus between queerness and material life

Politics of Art

Zhiguang Yin, 2015-02-04 In Politics of Art Zhiguang Yin investigates members of the Creation Society and their social network while in Japan The study contextualises the Chinese left wing intellectual movements and their political engagements in relation with the early 20th century international political events and trends in both East Asia and Europe

The Creation Society was largely viewed as a subject of literary studies. This research however evaluates these intellectuals in the context of Chinese revolution and elaborates their theoretical contribution to the Chinese Communist Party's practice of theoretical struggle as a main driving force of ideological construction. As this study tries to demonstrate, theoretical struggle drives the ideological politics forward while maintaining its political vigour. Nietzsche and Asian Thought Graham Parkes, 1996-06 Nietzsche's work has had a significant impact on the intellectual life of non-Western cultures and elicited responses from thinkers outside of the Anglo-American philosophical traditions as well. These essays address the connection between his ideas and philosophy. Children's Lit in China, A history of children's literature in China set in the framework of China's revolution and modernization. Lu Xun and his brother Zhou Zhuren were the founding fathers of the idea of the political importance of children and how that connected with literature tailored for them in the 20s and 30s.

The Lure of the Modern Shu-mei Shih, 2001-04-20 Shu mei Shih's study is the first book in English to offer a comprehensive account of Chinese literary modernism from Republican China. In The Lure of the Modern Shih argues for the contextualization of Chinese modernism in the semicolonial cultural and political formation of the time. Engaging critically with theories of modernism, postcoloniality and global and local cultural studies, Shih analyzes pivotal issues such as psychoanalysis, decadence, Orientalism, Occidentalism, semicolonial subjectivity, cosmopolitanism and urbanism that were mediated by Japanese as well as Western modernisms. Zhuangzi and Modern Chinese Literature Jianmei Liu, 2016 This is a powerful account of how the ruin and resurrection of Zhuangzi in modern China's literary history correspond to the rise and fall of modern Chinese individuality. By examining the twentieth-century reinterpretation and appropriation of Zhuangzi, the author explores modern Chinese writers' complicated relationship with tradition.
