Between 1909 and 1912 the Futurists published over thirty manifestos celebrating speed and danger glorifying war and technology and advocating political and artistic revolution. This collection of essays aims to reassess the activities of the Italian Futurist movement from an international and interdisciplinary perspective focusing on its activities and legacies in the field of poetry painting sculpture theatre cinema advertising and politics. The essays offer exciting new readings in gender politics aesthetics historiography intermediality and interdisciplinarity. They explore the works of major players of the movement as well as its lesser known figures and the often critical impact of Futurism on contemporary or later avant garde movements such as Cubism Dada and Vorticism. The publication will be of interest to scholars and students of European art literature and cultural history as well as to the informed general public.

Stranger Magic Marina Warner, 2012-03-03 Our foremost theorist of myth fairytale and folktale explores the magical realm of the imagination where carpets fly and genies grant prophetic wishes. Stranger Magic examines the profound impact of the Arabian Nights on the West the progressive exoticization of magic and the growing acceptance of myth and magic in contemporary experience.
