The Style of Hawthorne's Gaze John Dolis, 2014-07-14 An exploration of Nathaniel Hawthorne's narrative technique and unique vision of the world The Style of Hawthorne's Gaze is an unusual and insightful work that employs a combination of critical strategies drawn from art history philosophy psychoanalysis and contemporary aesthetic and literary theory to explore Nathaniel Hawthorne's narrative technique and his unique vision of the world Dolis studies Hawthorne's anti technological and essentially Romantic view of the external world and examines the recurring phenomena of lighting motion aspectivity fragmentation and imagination as they relate to his descriptive techniques Dolis sets the world of Hawthorne's work over and against the aesthetic and philosophical development of the world understood as a view from its inception in the camera obscura and perspective in general to its 19th century articulation in photography In light of this general technology of the image and drawing upon a wide range of contemporary critical theories Dolis begins his study of Hawthorne at the level of description where the world of the work first arises in the reader's consciousness Dolis shows how the work of Heidegger Merleau Ponty Freud Lacan and Derrida can provide fresh insights into the sophisticated style of Hawthorne's perception of and system for representing reality

Framing the Victorians Jennifer Green-Lewis, 1996 A wide ranging exploration of the complex and often conflicting discourse on photography in the nineteenth century Framing the Victorians traces various descriptions of photography as art science magic testimony proof document record illusion and diagnosis Victorian photography argues Jennifer Green Lewis inspired such universal fascination that even two so self consciously opposed schools as positivist realism and metaphysical romance claimed it as their own Photography thus became at once the symbol of the inadequacy of nineteenth century empiricism and the proof of its totalizing vision Green Lewis juxtaposes textual descriptions with pictorial representations of a diverse array of cultural activities from war and law enforcement to novel writing and psychiatry She compares for example the exhibition of Roger Fenton's Crimean War photographs 1855 with W H Russell's written accounts of the war published in the Times of London 1884 and 1886 Nineteenth century photography she maintains must be reread in the context of Victorian written texts from and against which it developed Green Lewis also draws on works by Thomas Hardy Nathaniel Hawthorne and Henry James as well as published writing by Victorian photographers in support of her view that photography provides an invaluable model for understanding the act of writing itself We cannot talk about realism in the nineteenth century without talking about visuality claims Green Lewis and Framing the Victorians explores the connections

American Archives Shawn Michelle Smith,1999-12-19 Visual texts uniquely demonstrate the contested terms of American identity In American Archives Shawn Michelle Smith offers a bold and disturbing account of how photography and the sciences of biological racialism joined forces in the nineteenth century to offer an idea of what Americans look like or should look like Her varied sources which include the middle class portrait baby picture criminal mugshot and eugenicist record as well as literary scientific and popular texts enable her to demonstrate how new visual paradigms posed bodily appearance as an index to interior essence Ultimately we see how competing preoccupations over gender class race and American identity were played out in the making of a wide range of popular and institutional photographs Smith demonstrates that as the body was variously mapped and defined as the key to essentialized identities the image of the white middle class woman was often held up as the most complete American ideal She begins by studying gendered images of middle class domesticity to expose a transformation of feminine architectures of interiority into the essences of blood character and race She reads visual documents as well as literary texts by Nathaniel Hawthorne Pauline Hopkins and Theodore Dreiser as both indices of and forms of resistance to dominant images of gender class race and national identity Through this analysis Smith shows how the white male gaze that sought to define and constrain white women and people of color was contested and transformed over the course of the nineteenth century Smith identifies nineteenth century visual paradigms that continue to shape debates about the terms of American belonging today American Archives contributes significantly to the growing field of American visual cultural studies and it is unprecedented in explaining how practices of racialized looking and the parameters of American looks were established in the first place

Haunted by the Civil War Shirley Samuels,2025-10-28 How the legacy of the Civil War as presented by writers poets and artists of the time has shaped American visions of democracy In Haunted by the Civil War Shirley Samuels explores the work of Walt Whitman Emily Dickinson Herman Melville Frederick Douglass Charlotte Perkins Gilman and others to investigate the long cultural shadow of America s cataclysmic sundering Juxtaposing these texts with images ranging from paintings by Winslow Homer to newspaper and magazine illustrations of political controversies Samuels argues that the Civil War still haunts our attitudes toward democracy The recent toppling of Confederate monuments the continuing protests over racial and sexual discrimination immigration and Indigenous land rights each of these forms part of the war s legacy Examining the fraught deliberations about an ideal American democracy in the early republic Samuels turns to the language of sensation in the poetry of Melville Dickinson and Whitman alongside Lincoln s relation to the poetic and visual culture of his time She considers the haunted afterlives of war in the work of Louisa May Alcott and Harriet Beecher Stowe as well as in popular nineteenth century inspirational fiction And she investigates the literature of men at sea and on rivers enabling both connection and escape as seen in Melville and Mark Twain while examining women s wartime work and experience in writings by Gilman and Frances Harper Why does the Civil War still haunt us To find the answer Samuels identifies not only the ghosts that cannot rest but also the cultural practices that name them
