The essays in the volume focus on understanding questions of premodern religion, material culture, processes, and their spatial and environmental contexts through a study of networks of commodities and cultural and religious landscapes. From the early history of coastal regions such as Gujarat and Bengal to material networks of political culture from temples and their connection with maritime trade to the importance of landscape in influencing temple building from regions considered peripheral to mainstream historiography to the development of religious sects, this collection of articles maps the diverse networks and connections across regions and time. Hero-Making Across Genres Amar Singh, Shipra Tholia, Pravin K Patel, 2021-09-30 This book critically examines how a Hero is made, sustained, and even deformed in contemporary cultures. It brings together diverse ideas from philosophy, mythology, religion, literature, cinema, and social media to explore how heroes are constructed across genres, mediums, and traditions. The essays in this volume present fresh perspectives for readers to conceptualize the myriad possibilities the term Hero brings with itself. They examine the making and unmaking of the heroes across literary, visual, and social cultures in religious spaces and in classical texts, in folk tales and fairy tales in literature as seen in Heinrich Böll's Und Sagte Kein Einziges Wort, Thomas Bragg's Heroes like Us, and in movies like Christopher Nolan's Interstellar, Michel Gondry's Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind, and in the short film like Dean Potter's When Dogs Fly. The volume also features nuanced takes on intersectional feminist representations in hero movies, masculinity in sports biopics, taking everyday heroes from the real to the reel, among others. Key themes: A stimulating work that explores the mechanisms that manufacture heroes; this book will be useful for scholars and researchers of English literature, postcolonial studies, cultural studies, film studies, media studies, literary and critical theory, arts and aesthetics, political sociology, and political philosophy. The A to Z of Jainism Kristi L. Framing the Mahabharata Saikat K Bose, 2018-05-01 It all probably was a tale However serious research does identify some events from about a thousand years before the Common Era that qualify as the bases of the epic's plot Apparently collective memory evolved significantly through the centuries before their stories legends and allegories took the forms that we know from the epic today And yet even if no set of historical events can be found to correspond with epic episodes its many stories legends and allegories nevertheless conform to themes that were at one time authentic In other words whether or not epic episodes were historical the ideas and concepts they represent were It is with these ideas and concepts that Framing the Mahabharata weaves the pattern of South Asian society as it evolved through the cusp of the Bronze and Iron Ages developing motifs we are familiar with today Against this pattern it reconstructs the military tactics technology and sociology that marked the interplay of nomadic and sedentary folks most poignantly depicted in the career of war chariots
