Chesnut,2015-07-17 The story of Father Ed Dowling S J the Jesuit priest who served for twenty years as sponsor and spiritual guide to Bill Wilson the co founder of Alcoholics Anonymous An icy evening in December 1940 saw the first meeting of two extraordinary spiritual leaders Father Ed said that the graces he received from meeting Bill Wilson were as great as those he had received from his ordination as a priest and Bill in turn described encountering the Jesuit as being like a second conversion experience where he could feel the transcendent presence of God filling the entire room with grace The good priest taught Wilson about St Ignatius Loyolas Spiritual Exercises about the eternal battle between good and evil which the Spanish saint described in that book and explained the Jesuit understanding of the way we can use our deepest emotions to receive guidance from God while serving on that battlefield The co founder of the twelve step movement in turn supplied Father Ed with some of the most valuable tools he possessed for carrying out small group therapy on a wide range of different kinds of troubled people Together the two men discussed Poulains Graces of Interior Prayer and Bills attempts to make spiritual contact with both spooks and saints and explored the world of LSD experiences and the teachings of the Catholic Hindu and Buddhist mystics in Aldous Huxleys Perennial Philosophy And we will see how Father Ed with his deep social conscience helped Bill W turn his book on the Twelve Traditions into a Bill of Rights for the twelve step movement and how he laid out his own spiritual vision of Alcoholics Anonymous at the A A International in St Louis in 1955 The Women Behind the Door Roddy Doyle,2025-09-09 Booker Prize winner Roddy Doyle s spectacular return to his iconic character

Paula Spencer whom he originated in the groundbreaking The Woman Who Walked Into Doors and its follow up Paula Spencer There is not a writer currently working in English who can match Doyle for the fluency with which he tacks back and forth between the hilarious and the heartbreaking The New York Times At sixty six Paula Spencer mother grandmother widow addict survivor is finally living her life A job at the dry cleaners she enjoys a man Joe with whom she shares what she wants friends who see her for who she is and four grown children now with families and petty dramas the likes of which Paula could only have hoped for Despite its ghosts Paula has started to push her past aside That is until Paula s eldest Nicola turns up on her doorstep Independent affluent a loving wife and mother a success Nicola is suddenly determined to leave it all behind Over the next few days Nicola gradually confides in Paula the secret that unleashed this moment of crisis and mother and daughter find themselves untangling anecdotes jokes memory and revelation to confront the bruised but beautiful symmetry of what each means to the other The next sequence in the life of Roddy Doyle s quietly remarkable ever memorable Paula Spencer The Women Behind the Door is a delicately devastating portrait of shame and the inescapable shadow it casts over families

Christianity and Depression Tasia Scrutton,2020-03-31 It is now universally accepted that we are experiencing a profound mental health epidemic and too often Christians have struggled to know how to respond The need for the church to take mental health issues more seriously is urgent and this is perhaps especially true when it comes to understanding depression Offering a theological and biblical account of depression this book considers how depression has been understood and interpreted by Christians and how plausible and pastorally helpful these understandings are It offers an important and well informed resource for those with or preparing for positions of pastoral responsibility within the Christian Church With a foreword by John Swinton Lay Saints Joan Carroll Cruz, 2015-10 These are the footprints that the saints on ascending to heaven left behind upon our earth in order that we following after might attain to the same reward The Venerable Bede In Lay Saints Ascetics and Penitents Joan Carroll Cruz guides you through the lives of fifty eight lay men and women who achieved the heights of sanctity These inspiring biographies present saints who seemed destined for sainthood as well as those who led sinful lives prior to a conversion of heart Find a role model from among these saints as Joan Carroll Cruz explores the acts of charity that you can imitate ascetical practices that lead us closer to God stories of conversion effective acts of penance to atone for prior sins the stories of pilgrims who spent their lives searching for closer union with God Both those who have just begun their spiritual journey and those well advanced on the road to perfection will find a saint to help them take that next step closer to God Through their examples these saints will inspire ever greater acts of charity and remind sinners that there is yet hope for salvation
