in great depth Ridlehoover fills this gap with a closely argued and in depth study ranging from methodology and the structure of the prayer itself to examining the Father will forgiveness and evil petitions and the relevance of word and deed for hearers and doers Ridlehoover s examination of the relationship between the Sermon and Prayer advances studies in compositional criticism and intratextuality Warlike Christians in an Age of Violence Nick Megoran,2017-10-03 How should Christians respond to war This age old question has become more pressing given Western governments recent overseas military interventions and the rise of extremist Islamist jihadism Grounded in conservative evangelical theology this book argues the historic church position that it is inadmissible for Christians to use violence or take part in war It shows how the church s propensity to support the just wars crusades rebellions or humanitarian interventions of its host nations over time has been disastrous for the reputation of the gospel Instead the church s response to war is simply to be the church by preaching the gospel and making peace in the love and power of God The book considers challenges to this argument for gospel peace What about warfare in the Old Testament and military metaphors in the New What of church history And how do we deal with tyrants like Hitler and terrorists like Islamic State Charting a path between just war theory and liberal pacifism numerous inspiring examples from the worldwide church are used to demonstrate effective and authentically Christian responses to violence The author argues that as Christians increasingly drop their unbiblical addiction to war we may be entering one of the most exciting periods of church history Handbook on the Gospels (Handbooks on the New Testament) Benjamin L. Stevenson,2017-01-31 Peter Stevenson provides an introduction to the practice of preaching It is designed for people from various church traditions in the early stages of ministerial formation Preaching is a complex and challenging business requiring a demanding mixture of skills People listening to a sermon have the right to expect that a person who stands up to preach can interpret the Bible competently has a grasp of core Christian beliefs and believes what they preach They also expect someone who has the necessary range of communication skills to put the message across in an accessible way Such a range of expectations presents daunting challenges to the most experienced preacher Including practical exercises which could be used by individuals or by groups this book is suitable for introductory courses in preaching or for modules which consider preaching within an overall focus upon leading public worship Meeting God in Scripture
