

MY MOTHER'S VOICE

Right from the beginning of time, I hear;
Words like melody, dots of tragedy, I sense;
Rumbling from the tale at night, she said;

Words weighting, a mountain like;
Tongues slicing, a spade like;
The world moving, a thousand lives;

Yet, you'll live, and see many wrongs;
Mountings up-way your way;
Dangers, knocking up your days;
Then you'll stay idle, waiting up for saves;

Take to my voice, when it cracks within few teeth;
Listen to my lips, when it dries out of weaken;
You'll remember, the tale at full moon;

It's not stopping;
Ranging off pang;
Her voice like rains dropping on the knights wear;
Whose fist won't stop freaking;

Then I'll know, the life;
Unending with battle rifle;
The last soul telling the story;
That the voice once said;
