Federmeier,2022-06-29 The Psychology of Learning and Motivation Volume 76 the latest release in this ongoing series features empirical and theoretical contributions in cognitive and experimental psychology ranging from classical and instrumental conditioning to complex learning and problem solving Presents the latest information in the highly regarded Psychology of Learning and Motivation series Provides an essential reference for researchers and academics in cognitive science Contains information relevant to both applied concerns and basic research

Motivation, Emotion, and Goal Direction in Neural Networks Daniel S. Levine,Samuel J. Leven,2014-01-14 The articles gathered in this volume represent examples of a unique approach to the study of mental phenomena a blend of theory and experiment informed not just by easily measurable laboratory data but also by human introspection Subjects such as approach and avoidance desire and fear and novelty and habit are studied as natural events that may not exactly correspond to but at least correlate with some known or unknown electrical and chemical events in the brain Human Motivation David C. McClelland,1988-01-29 Human Motivation originally published in 1987 offers a broad overview of theory and research from the perspective of a distinguished psychologist whose creative empirical studies of human motives span forty years David McClelland describes methods for measuring motives the development of motives out of natural incentives and the relationship of motives to emotions to values and to performance under a variety of conditions He examines four major motive systems achievement power affiliation and avoidance reviewing and evaluating research on how these motive systems affect behaviour Scientific understanding of motives and their interaction he argues contributes to understanding of such diverse and important phenomena as the rise and fall of civilisations the underlying causes of war the rate of economic development the nature of leadership the reasons for authoritarian or democratic governing styles the determinants of success in management and the factors responsible for health and illness Students and instructors alike will find this book an exciting and readable presentation of the psychology of human motivation Cambridge International AS and A Level Business Coursebook with CD-ROM Peter Stimpson, Alistair Farquharson, 2014-10-16 This revised set of resources for Cambridge International AS and A Level Business syllabus 9609 is thoroughly updated for the latest version of the curriculum Written by experienced authors the Coursebook provides comprehensive coverage of the syllabus Accessible language combined with the clear visually stimulating layout makes this an ideal resource for the course Questions and explanation of key terms reinforce knowledge different kinds of activities build application analytical and evaluation skills and case studies contextualise the content making it relevant to international learners It provides thorough examination support for all papers with exam style questions with each chapter and an extensive Paper 3 style case study with each unit The student CD ROM contains revision aids further questions and activities A Teacher s CD ROM is also available A Total Performance System Dale Brethower, 2011-06-08 It has been obvious to those of us in behavioral analysis that many of the problems of business and industry could be analyzed in terms of the management of behavior What was needed was the use of a knowledge of behavior analysis to develop effective personnel incentive systems Not only was it obvious to Dale and Karen Brethower but they and some of their colleagues have actually been doing it for the last few years The results of their work are presented in this text It should be emphasized that the approach presented in this book is a general one it is just as applicable to the management of behavior in education health and government institutions etc as in business and industry A total performance system is a functional combination of systems analysis and feedback systems Like behavioral analysis the total performance system approach has an extremely wide range of applications both within and outside the areas of business and industry Frontiers of Motivational Psychology Donald R. Brown, Joseph Veroff, 2012-12-06 The Art and Craft of Play Directing David Stevens, 2013-03-13 Theatre is an interpretive art based upon a director s emotional reaction to reading a play and imagining a production of that play Before the audience experiences the production the director must go through a process part art and part craft to create it This book is intended to introduce undergraduate students with a solid theatre background to that process Stevens includes chapters covering theatre and art the interpretation of the script composition and movement working with actors and matters of style Each chapter contains exercises in order for students to consolidate what they have learned The complete text of John Millington Synge's Riders to the Sea is included as an example and study text and Stevens relates many examples from his own rich directing background Twenty production photos two sample floor plans and numerous diagrams round out the text The study of directing is a life long project and in this book Stevens provides a basis for that study Battlefield Emotions in Late Antiquity: A Study of Fear and Motivation in Roman Military Treatises Łukasz Różycki, 2021-06-22 Battlefield Emotions in Late Antiquity is a pioneering work the first to present a comprehensive analysis of fear and motivation on the battlefields of Late Antiquity By examining military treatises Łukasz Różycki identifies means of manipulating the morale of soldiers on the same and on opposing sides showing various examples of military trickery The book analyzes non combat properties of equipment commanders speeches war cries keeping up appearances and other methods of affecting the human psyche The book is written in the spirit of new military history and combines the methodology of a historian archaeologist and philologist and also considers aspects of psychology particularly related to the functioning of groups and individuals in extreme situations
