Stories from an Ancient Land Magnus Fiskesjö, 2021-08-13 The Wa people have a rich civilization of their own and a deep history in the mountains of Southeast Asia Their mythology suggests their land is the first place inhabited by humans which they care for on behalf of the world This book introduces aspects of Wa culture including their approach to the world s troubles and the lessons others might learn from it It also presents a new interpretation of Wa headhunting questioning explanations that see it as a primitive custom and instead placing it within the fraught history of the last few centuries

Peaks of Faith Ju-K'ang T'ien, 2016-05-18 This is a pioneering study of the impact of Christianization among the Chinese Focusing primarily on the minority peoples of Yunnan province it nonetheless fully mirrors the historical development of the Protestant mission in China Drawing on many years of observation in the field and upon a comprehensive consultation of official documents relating to Christians on the mountain peaks the study chronicles how the early foreign missionaries thanks to their self sacrifice and the examples they set of religious zeal cemented the hitherto segregatory and leaderless tribes together vigorously shaking the desolate mountain folk out of their age long isolation It was the trend of the time to identify Christianity as the desirable agent to promote socio economic change in the undeveloped communities This is a timely original contribution to the historical study of the Christian missionary enterprise and the pressing problem of freedom of worship that currently exists in China

From Jerusalem to Irian Jaya Ruth A. Tucker, 2011-01-04 This is history at its best From Jerusalem to Irian Jaya is readable informative gripping and above all honest From Jerusalem to Irian Jaya helps readers understand the life and role of a missionary through real life examples of missionaries throughout history We see these men and women as fallible and human in their failures as well as their successes These great leaders of missions are presented as real people and not super saints This second edition covers all 2 000 years of mission history with a special emphasis on the modern era including chapters focused on the Muslim world Third World missions and a comparison of missions in Korea and Japan It also contains both a general and an illustration index where readers can easily locate particular missionaries stories or incidents New design graphics photographs and maps help make this a compelling book From Jerusalem to Irian Jaya is as informative and intriguing as it is inspiring an invaluable resource for missionaries mission agencies students and all who are concerned about the spreading of the gospel throughout the world

People Helping People: How Every Christian Can Counsel Harold Ewing Burchett, 2016-02-10 How can we ourselves become more Christlike And how can we help struggling people with their spiritual hang ups Find answers to these questions along with dynamic instructions for bringing freedom to those who are bound in long standing sinful habits With many years of pastoral experience the author aims to help others become skilled in using Scripture prayer and wise counsel for the benefit of their fellows

Songs of the Lisu Hills Aminta Arrington, 2020-01-07 The story of how the Lisu of southwest China were evangelized one hundred years ago by the China Inland Mission is a familiar one in mission circles The subsequent history of the Lisu church however is much less well known Songs of the Lisu Hills brings this history up to date recounting the unlikely story of how the Lisu maintained their faith through twenty two years of government persecution and illuminating how Lisu Christians transformed the text based religion brought by the missionaries into a faith centered around an embodied set of Christian practices Based on ethnographic fieldwork as well as archival research this volume documents the development of Lisu Christianity both through larger social forces and through the stories of individual believers It explores how the Lisu most of whom remain subsistence farmers have oriented their faith less around cognitive notions of belief and more around participation in a rhythm of shared Christian practices such as line dancing attending church and festivals evangelizing working in one another s fields and singing translated Western hymns These embodied practices demonstrate how Christianity developed in the mountainous margins of the world s largest atheist state A much needed expansion of the Lisu story into a complex study of the evolution of a world Christian community this book will appeal to scholars working at the intersections of World Christianity anthropology of religion ethnography Chinese Christianity and mission studies Career

Defining Crises in Missions Paul Keidel, 2005-06-01 Career Defining Crises in Mission is written to help missionaries evaluate their ministry approaches and to pursue those that place relationships over programs Each of the 12 chapters takes a well known missiological principle and instead of focusing on the theory behind it uses Bible studies illustrations true stories and practical suggestions to encourage missionaries to make decisions that cultivate relationships with people as they choose mission methods Waking the Giant Ryan Shaw, 2005-12-15 College campuses of the world have historically been the premier place where laborers for the nations have been fashioned by the hand of God These individuals have most often been influenced by powerful and united student mission movements in their college communities Now it s this generation s turn Waking the Giant envisions and provides practical tools for individuals and ministries among the emerging generation to be set aflame through a grassroots mission movement God is on the move in extraordinary ways The time has come

Prayers and Promises for Worried Parents Robert J. Morgan, 2013-09-10 Originally published under title Moments for families with prodigals Colorado Springs Colo NavPress c2003 Straight to the Heart of 1 and 2 Kings Phil Moore, 2019-03-22 We know better than to take all we see and hear at face value We are taught to look for the story behind the story That s what the writer of 1 and 2 Kings gave to the Jewish exiles in Babylon His message breathed hope into their down and out nation and it still breathes hope into its readers hearts today Get ready for a revelation of the real meaning of history and of the power that is at work behind the headlines on the evening news Get ready for God to catch you up into the story behind the story Canaan to Corinth Michael Li-Tak Shen, 2010 Michael Li Tak Shen carefully examines the biblical view of God s absolute uniqueness and argues that the biblical texts are consistent in their prohibition of idolatry and its paraphernalia in whatever form a helpful point in similar pastoral situations today in a world of idols ideologies addictions and runaway consumerism The high view of the absolute nature of God warns against lax and mistaken notions of so called

Christian freedom Robert Solomon Bishop the Methodist Church in Singapore Book Jacket The Day is Yours Ian Stackhouse, 2014-07-08 A gentle but provocative protest against the fast food spirituality of the modern Church Calls for a slow spirituality for people on the go This book is powerful and persuasive and deals with the difficult subject of ordering our lives in a more biblical way Salvationist a stimulating book that will benefit many in living well for God Evangelicals Now

Borderland Infrastructures Alessandro Rippa, 2025-10-01 Across the Chinese borderlands investments in large scale transnational infrastructure such as roads and special economic zones have increased exponentially over the past two decades Based on long term ethnographic research Borderland Infrastructures addresses a major contradiction at the heart of this fast paced development small scale traders have lost their historic strategic advantages under the growth of massive Chinese state investment and are now struggling to keep their businesses afloat Concurrently local ethnic minorities have become the target of radical resettlement projects securitization and tourism initiatives and have in many cases grown increasingly dependent on state subsidies At the juncture of anthropological explorations of the state border studies and research on transnational trade and infrastructure development Borderland Infrastructures provides new analytical tools to understand how state power is experienced mediated and enacted in Xinjiang and Yunnan In the process Rippa offers a rich and nuanced ethnography of life across China's peripheries Sharing Jesus Effectively in the Buddhist World David S. Lim, Steve Spaulding, Paul H. De Neui, 2005 This is the third book in the Sharing Jesus in the Buddhist World series written by evangelical mission reflective practitioners who are committed to developing more effective ways to win the Buddhist peoples to the Lord Jesus Christ The opening chapter describes The Changing Demographic Context of Global Buddhism the next six describe some of the best models of mission approaches for reaching Buddhists and the last four depict some past and present people movements or church planting movements
