Natural History Of Singapore:

200 Martyn E. Y. Low, Kate Pocklington, Peter K. L. Ng, 2019 Of Whales and Dinosaurs Kevin Y.L. Tan, 2015-04-18
Singapore's collection of Southeast Asian animals one of the world's largest dates back to the old Raffles Museum officially established in 1878. With the opening of the Lee Kong Chian Natural History Museum in 2015 the original Raffles Museum has reincarnated and the loop on its remarkable 127 year history has closed. Beneath the sleek exterior of today's modern museum building lies a saga of titanic struggles and changes. That the collections survived at all through the multiple challenges of the nineteenth century the disruption of World War Two and its potential disintegration in the face of Singapore's modernization is nothing short of miraculous. This book is not only an institutional history of the museum but also tells the story of frustrations commitment and courage of the numerous individuals who battled officialdom innovated endlessly and overcame the odds to protect Singapore's natural history heritage. The book features 108 historical photographs and natural history illustrations printed in full colour throughout. The Singapore Naturalist, Etc. No. 1-5. July 1922-Jan. 1925 Singapore Natural History Society (Singapore), 1922 Singapore: A Biography Mark Ravinder Frost, Yu-Mei Balasingamchow, 2013-02-26. From the Publisher Singapore. A Biography takes you there to those critical moments in the island's past as captured through the personal accounts of people who actually lived through them. Encounter violent unrest on the city's streets the jostling down its corridors of power the high life of its up and coming elites and the daily struggles of existence that lay beyond its five foot ways in an epic drama that stretches back over seven centuries. Grounded in scholarship yet fired by the imagination this book tells a new Singapore story one more dramatic complex and engrossing than you might expect. Singapore was not always the orderly and successful city state that it appears to be now. Over the last seven centuries the island has undergone several changes of identity. In this entertaining and wide ranging account drawn from research undertaken in collaboration with the National Museum of Singapore Mark Ravinder Frost and Yu Mei Balasingamchow present Singapore's mercurial life story as experienced by the people who participated in it. Singapore A Biography brings together a Ming dynasty travelogue 19th century memoirs and correspondence modern oral histories and even radio and television broadcasts to reconnect a contemporary audience with the Singapore story. While famous names from Singapore's past take their place this new story also introduces a cast of lesser known though no less compelling historical personalities from dissenting poets and radical ideologues to patriotic factory workers and early feminists. The portrait of Singapore that emerges is dashing lively and multi layered and it offers fresh insight into the ruptures and continuities that have made Singaporeans and their nation what they are today. 50 Years Of Science In Singapore Bernard Tiong Gie Tan, Hock Lim, Kok Khoo Phua, 2016-12-12.
