Nature Of Cities Ecocriticism And Urban Environments:

The Nature of Cities Michael Bennett, David W. Teague, 2021-10-12 Cities are often thought to be separate from nature but recent trends in ecocriticism demand that we consider them as part of the total environment This new collection of essays sharpens the focus on the nature of cities by exploring the facets of an urban ecocriticism by reminding city dwellers of their place in ecosystems and by emphasizing the importance of this connection in understanding urban life and culture The editors both raised in small towns but now living in major urban areas are especially concerned with the sociopolitical construction of all environments both natural and manmade Following an opening interview with Andrew Ross exploring the general parameters of urban ecocriticism they present essays that explore urban nature writing city parks urban wilderness ecofeminism and the city and urban space The volume includes contributions on topics as wide ranging as the urban poetry of English writers from Donne to Gay the manufactured wildness of a gambling casino and the marketing of cosmetics to urban women by idealizing Third World naturalness These essays seek to reconceive nature and its cultural representations in ways that contribute to understanding the contemporary cityscape They explore the theoretical issues that arise when one attempts to adopt and adapt an environmental perspective for analyzing urban life The Nature of Cities offers the ecological component often missing from cultural analyses of the city and the urban perspective often lacking in environmental approaches to contemporary culture By bridging the historical gap between environmentalism cultural studies and urban experience the book makes a statement of lasting importance to the development of the ecocritical movement Melvin Burgess Alison Waller, 2013-10-01 Melvin Burgess has made a powerful name for himself in the world of children's and young adult literature emerging in the 1990s as the author of over twenty critically acclaimed novels This collection of original essays by a team of established and new scholars introduces readers to the key debates surrounding Burgess's most challenging work including controversial young adult novels Junk and Doing It Covering a variety of critical and theoretical perspectives the volume also presents exciting new readings of some of his less familiar fiction for children and features an interview with the author Mussolini's Cities , Ecocinema in the City Robin L. Murray, Joseph K. Heumann, 2017-11-15 In Ecocinema in the City Murray and Heumann argue that urban ecocinema both reveals and critiques visions of urban environmentalism The book emphasizes the increasingly transformative power of nature in urban settings explored in both documentaries and fictional films such as Children Underground White Dog Hatari and Lives Worth Living The first two sections Evolutionary Myths Under the City and Urban Eco trauma take more traditional ecocinema approaches and emphasize the city as a dangerous constructed space The last two sections Urban Nature and Interdependence and The Sustainable City however bring to life the vibrant relationships between human and nonhuman nature Ecocinema in the City provides a space to explore these relationships revealing how ecocinema shows that both human and nonhuman nature can interact sustainably and thrive Routledge Handbook of the Digital Environmental Humanities Charles Travis, Deborah P.

Dixon, Luke Bergmann, Robert Legg, Arlene Crampsie, 2022-09-12 The Routledge Handbook of the Digital Environmental Humanities explores the digital methods and tools scholars use to observe interpret and manage nature in several different academic fields Employing historical philosophical linguistic literary and cultural lenses this handbook explores how the digital environmental humanities DEH as an emerging field recognises its convergence with the environmental humanities As such it is empirically critically and ethically engaged in exploring digitally mediated visualised and parsed framings of past present and future environments landscapes and cultures Currently humanities geographical cartographical informatic and computing disciplines are finding a common space in the DEH and are bringing the use of digital applications coding and software into league with literary and cultural studies and the visual film and performing arts In doing so the DEH facilitates transdisciplinary encounters between fields as diverse as human cognition gaming bioinformatics and linguistics social media literature and history music painting philology philosophy and the earth and environmental sciences This handbook will be essential reading for those interested in the use of digital tools in the study of the environment from a wide range of disciplines and for those working in the environmental humanities more generally Unplanned Cities in Modern American Poetry Daniela Kukrechtová, 2025-07-10 Reveals how five modern American poets challenged prevailing discourses about urbanization through lyrical representations of cities and the diverse people who lived in them In early 20th century America industrialization and the influx of immigrants and rural migrants into urban centers fostered a certain representation of and distaste for cities and their inhabitants The dominant discourse was one of containment through utopian planning and violent reshaping often reflected in both policy making and writings about cities during this time Yet as Daniela Kukrechtová identifies urban literature also reveals voices that challenged that narrative Unplanned Cities in Modern American Poetry shows how the formally innovative works of five poets Jean Toomer William Carlos Williams Hart Crane Frank O'Hara and Gwendolyn Brooks worked against anti urban discourse Their works displayed a love for disorderly cityscapes and the actual urbanites who inhabit them promoting the radical idea that cities were for people while revealing the extreme dystopian utopian discourses that helped create and maintain divisions and disparities Kukrechtová argues that besides offering a radical critique these poets also used their poetry to imagine the mental and emotional attitudes of urban dwellers toward their environment She therefore offers the urban ecocritical approach often missing in literary analyses of modern American poetry Simultaneously the lyrical and socially engaged imagination in these works that is the human implications of various plans designs and policies that helped create the modern American city represent a voice often unheard in urban studies and its history A Companion to Global Environmental History J. R. McNeill, Erin Stewart

Mauldin, 2025-04-21 Offers multiple points of entry into the dynamic and fast growing field of Global Environmental History to specialists and newcomers alike Companion to Global Environmental History provides the cultural intellectual and political context for engagement with the environment in contemporary times Presenting carefully selected essays by both pioneers in the field and younger scholars this timely volume explores the many contours of the relationship between human societies and the natural world on which they depend Divided into four sections the Companion opens by describing how the relationship between society and nature has evolved over time followed by a series of regional and national histories that illustrate how the pieces of the global puzzle fit together The third section examines various drivers of environmental transformations across place and time such as technology colonialism industrial agriculture and climate change The final section surveys different types of environmental thought and action around the world addressing the relationship between religion and the environment environmental movements in China the history of environmentalism in Brazil and more The expanded second edition of the Companion to Global Environmental History features six entirely new chapters on India China Africa early modern cities global environmental governance and European environmentalism The remainder of the book is extensively revised throughout including up to date coverage of agriculture industrialization climate and biological exchanges An invaluable road map to the field s past developments current controversies and future possibilities Companion to Global Environmental History Covers a uniquely broad range of temporal geographic thematic and contextual approaches Presents new evidence for longstanding debates and innovative applications of environmental history Offers fresh insights into environmental thought and culture as well as environmental policy and politics around the world Brings together an international roster of environmental historians from nations including Brazil Germany Canada Switzerland Spain Australia the Netherlands Bangladesh and China Contains comparative perspectives and approaches to the subject sometimes with differing purposes and contrasting conclusions Companion to Global Environmental History Second Edition is an essential reference to current issues and controversies within the field It is an excellent textbook for undergraduate and graduate courses in the subject a handy guide for newcomers to the field as well as an invaluable resource for scholars researchers and environmental historians who want to expand or deepen their knowledge Reconciling Nature Robert M.

Myers, 2019-11-01 Reveals how classic American novels embodied the tensions embedded in American views of the natural world from the Centennial until the end of the Second World War Reconciling Nature maps the complex views of the environment that are evident in celebrated American novels written between the Centennial Celebration of 1876 and the end of the Second World War During this period which includes the Progressive era and the New Deal Americans held three contradictory views of the natural world a recognition of nature s vulnerability to the changes brought by industrialism a fear of the power of nature to destroy human civilization and a desire to make nature useful Robert M Myers argues they reconciled these conflicting views through nature nostalgia policing of wilderness areas and through strategies of control borrowed from the social sciences Myers combines environmental history with original readings of eight novels producing fresh perspectives on Mark Twain s Adventures of Huckleberry Finn Stephen Crane s Maggie Kate Chopin s The Awakening Upton Sinclair s The Jungle Mary Austin s The Ford Theodore Dreiser s An American Tragedy Zora Neale Hurston s Their Eyes Were Watching God and William Faulkner's Go Down Moses While previous ecocritical works have focused on proto environmentalism in classic works of literature Reconciling Nature explores the ambivalence within these texts demonstrating how they reproduce views of nature as threatened threatening and useful The epilogue examines the environmental ideologies associated with the development and deployment of the first atomic bomb Reconciling Nature is an important contribution to ecocriticism American literary studies American studies and environmental history The book has incredible breadth and scope In each chapter Myers incorporates an impressive amount of historical context that always breathes new life into texts that have been discussed at length by other scholars Lloyd Willis author of Environmental Evasion: The Literary Critical and Cultural Politics of Nature's Nation

Key Concepts in Literary Theory Julian Wolfreys, 2013-12-11 Key Concepts in Literary Theory presents the student of literary and critical studies with a broad range of accessible precise and authoritative definitions of the most significant terms and concepts currently used in psychoanalytic poststructuralist Marxist feminist and postcolonial literary studies The volume also provides clear and useful discussions of the main areas of literary critical and cultural theory supported by bibliographies and an expanded chronology of major thinkers Accompanying the chronology are short biographies of major works by each critic or theorist The third edition of this reliable reference work is both revised and expanded including more than 100 additional terms and concepts defined newly defined terms include keywords from the social sciences cultural studies and psychoanalysis and the addition of a broader selection of classical rhetorical terms an expanded chronology with additional entries and a broader historical and cultural range expanded bibliographies including key texts by major critics

Ecology and Popular Film Robin L. Murray, Joseph K. Heumann, 2009-01-08 Ecology and Popular Film examines representations of nature in mainstream film while also looking at film itself as a form of nature writing Considering a selection of mainstream movies that embrace a wide variety of environmental themes from the Lumi res Oil Wells of Baku 1896 to Al Gore's An Inconvenient Truth 2006 Murray and Heumann explore such themes as environmental politics eco terrorism ecology and home tragic and comic eco heroes the spectacular and evolutionary narrative in a manner that is both accessible and fun Other films discussed include The River 1937 Soylent Green 1971 Pale Rider 1985 28 Days Later 2002 and The Day After Tomorrow 2004 The book also includes a comprehensive filmography of films that deal with environmental themes and issues
