Chronicling Cultures Robert V. Kemper, Anya Peterson

Royce, 2002-04-23 Some field sites have hosted anthropologists for as long as half a century Chronicling Cultures collects articles from principals of many of the longest and best known anthropology projects from four continents the Kung Harvard Chiapas Project Gwembe Valley Tzintzuntzan and Navajo among others These projects have brought a new understanding of change and persistence in communities over time They have forced researchers to develop methods of involving local communities in research of using data over generations of scholars and of resolving ethical issues of research versus advocacy The projects range from individual scholars who return home year after year to large scale institutionalized projects involving many researchers and numerous studies This volume will be an important addition to the literature on fieldwork on the history of ethnology and on ethnographers role in their host cultures

Oral History Reimagined:

Emerging Research and Opportunities Pack, Sam, 2020-03-20 The traditional method of composing the life history as a flowing narrative is not only morally dishonest but also intellectually inadequate because it conveys the false impression of a chronologically timeless and uninterrupted soliloquy They are highly processed constructed and reified Questions have been removed entire sections have been reordered and redundancies have been deleted After the multiple stages involved in transforming a narrative life into an inscribed text the final product bears little resemblance to the original transcription of the interview By focusing only on the final product life histories ignore the other two components in the communicative process Oral History Reimagined Emerging Research and Opportunities demonstrates the potential of the life history to serve as a new way of writing vulnerably about the other by refusing to hide the authors by sharing equal billing in a dialogic encounter with their informants in order to produce an ethnographic narrative that is multivocal conversational and co constructed The book examines the idea that a reflexive ethnography in the form of a reciprocal exchange between researchers and informants constitutes the logical extension of reflexivity in anthropological research The book s ultimate goal is a balance that dissolves the distinction between the ethnographer as theorizing being and the informant as passive data that reduces the gap between subject and object and that presents both ethnographer and informant as having active voices Featuring topics on life histories reflexive ethnography and narrative structure of autoethnography it is ideally designed for anthropologists ethnographers historians policymakers academicians researchers and students Healing Ways Wade Davies,2001 Chronicles the advent of so called western or scientific medicine in the modern era and how Navajos adapted but did not compromise their traditional healings ways Regional Cultures and Mortality in America Stephen J. Kunitz,2015 Examines how state government policies and their historic beginnings have present day effects on their residents political lives and on population health especially for marginalized groups Minorities, Aging and Health Kyriakos S. Markides,Manuel Miranda,1997-09-22 Ethnic minorities represent a growing percentage of the elderly population in the United States Yet the impact of aging on minority groups and subgroups has only been partially studied Minorities Aging and Health fills the gap and opens the debate on how to provide for the specific needs of an increasingly elderly population Specific issues covered in this volume include mortality and life expectancy the incidence of chronic disease and disabilities diet and nutrition mental health access to health services and long term care and public health care policy
