Navigator Cornwall:

The Colombian Navigator John Purdy, 1823 The Barefoot Navigator Jack Lagan, 2013-08-04 The Barefoot Navigator is an unusual and fascinating exploration of the skills of navigation employed by the ancients and transferrable to the present day The first half of the book investigates the navigation capabilities of seafarers long before modern navigation instruments or charts became available For example how did the Polynesians manage to populate an area of ocean larger than North America simply by analysing clouds currents wind direction sun stars and the flight patterns of ocean birds And how did the Vikings routinely travel between Iceland Greenland and Scandinavia huge tracts of treacherous water The second part of the book analyses how the techniques of the ancients can be employed by 21st century seafarers to supplement today's navigational hardware especially in survival situations This is a unique analysis of practical technology free navigation whose techniques can easily be employed by modern navigators to supplement their personal navigation skills in order to just know where they are It will fascinate navigators and landlubbers alike The New Practical Navigator ... John Hamilton Moore, 1807 Adventures of a Cold War Fast-Jet Navigator David Herriot, 2017-10-30 An RAF navigator's lively candid memoir of flying low and living fast during the Cold War years David Herriot served almost forty years in the Royal Air Force as a navigator first on the Buccaneer S2 and subsequently on the Tornado GR1 This volume recounts his early career operating the Buccaneer on three operational flying tours plus a tour as an instructor on the Operational Conversion Unit With almost 2500 hours on an aircraft that was operated at high speed in all weathers and at ultra low level his task in the rear seat was a demanding one But Herriot was more than just the guy in the back of a Buccaneer he was quite routinely and often to the exasperation of his seniors the life and soul of any party that was taking place either at home base or when overseas defending the flanks of NATO This is an epic adventure for the aviation enthusiast particularly those with affection for the Blackburn Buccaneer and it provides a great deal more than the usual introduction to a specific aircraft type and the people who flew it Here you'll find an absolute insight into life on a fast jet squadron at work and mischievous play during the Cold War and you'll also be introduced to some of the modern RAF's greatest characters The new practical navigator ... The seventeenth edition, etc John Hamilton MOORE, 1810 Churchill's Navigator John Mitchell, Sean Feast, 2010-10-19 An RAF pilot who flew around the world with Winston Churchill during World War II tells his story An RAF Volunteer Reserve officer John Mitchell was mobilized on the outbreak of war and just missed going to join a Battle Squadron in France where he would have undoubtedly been killed Instead he was posted to No 58 Squadron flying Whitleys surviving a tour of operations in 1940-41 that included ditching in the North Sea Awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross he was sent to the US becoming involved in the development of the first navigation training simulators with the famous Link Trainer factory There he was awarded the US Legion of Merit signed by Harry S Truman Then returning to the UK in 1942 he was personally selected to join the crew of Winston Churchill's private aircraft one of the early prototype Avro Yorks called Ascalon For two years he navigated Churchill to conferences around the world from North Africa to Italy the Middle East to Moscow including the famous Teheran and Yalta conferences He also flew General Lyon aka His Majesty George VI on several occasions After the war he enjoyed an eventful career as an air attach including an intelligence posting to Moscow and was senior navigation officer for the long range exercises over the Pole in the converted Lincoln Aries III His is an exceptional story told with wit and verve to military aviation historian Sean Feast who adds authoritative and informed insights The Atlantic
