The Navy as a Fighting Machine Bradley A. Fiske, 2019-12-17 In The Navy as a Fighting Machine Bradley A. Fiske presents a meticulous exploration of naval strategy and the intricate interplay of technology and warfare. Fiske employs a clear direct literary style marked by a blend of technical jargon and accessible narrative making complex military concepts digestible for both scholars and casual readers. The book contextualizes the evolution of naval warfare in the late 19th century particularly focusing on the technological advancements that reshaped naval combat including ironclads and torpedo vessels offering a critical examination of how these innovations influenced military tactics and national policy. Bradley A. Fiske was not only a distinguished naval officer but also a profound thinker on the nature of naval power and technology. His firsthand experiences during pivotal moments in naval history alongside his extensive analytical skills informed his writing and fueled his passion for advocating a modernized Navy. Fiske's knowledge of the intricacies of naval operations positions him as a crucial voice in American naval discourse illuminating the connections between technological progress and military effectiveness. This book is a must read for military historians naval enthusiasts and policymakers alike as it not only chronicles the transformation of naval warfare but also offers insights into its ongoing implications. Fiske's compelling arguments and rich historical detail ensure that readers will emerge with a sophisticated understanding of the Navy's role as a formidable fighting machine.

Germany's Fighting Machine: Her Army, her Navy, her Airships and Why She Arrayed Them Against the Allied Powers of Europe Ernest Flagg Henderson, 2020-09-28 When a great and extraordinary event takes place it is easy somewhere in the world to point to omens and prophecies that have heralded it But in the case of the present war we can see in the German newspapers how from month to month of the present year the struggle was felt to be more and more imminent and how Russia the power that eventually precipitated the catastrophe was felt to be the center of real danger In well informed diplomatic circles writes the Magdeburger Zeitung in January 1914 the impression can not be concealed that in Russia at present there prevails a thoroughly hostile attitude to Germany and Austria Hungary and that the agitation in the czar s realm is greater even than during the last Balkan crisis It looks as though Russia were preparing to make an extraordinarily great show of strength against a specific not far distant date And the Deutsche Tageszeitung What is Russia s purpose in building a mighty fleet of dreadnaughts for the Baltic Surely not merely to coerce Sweden Again the Madgeburg paper The Russian government which already owes French capitalists twelve billions has received a new loan of two billions five hundred millions of which five million are yearly to be issued in Paris This whole gigantic sum is exclusively to be spent for building strategic railways along the German Russian boundary France compelled Russia to do this The French general staff thinks that Russia because of her clumsiness in mobilizing but especially for lack of tracks leading to the German frontier will not be able in a new war with Germany to bring help to France in time Russia has now fulfilled France's wishes in this regard Thus does the Franco Russian alliance which of late seemed to be falling into oblivion celebrate its resurrection In February the Hallesche Zeitung writes To keep friendship with Russia is one of the chief aims of our foreign policy but it is sometimes made very hard for us indeed They keep the peace because it is to the advantage of the czar's empire to do so but they are to be had for every combination directed against Germany And the Dresdener Nachrichten The Russian German relations leave very much to be desired at the moment The Russian government fails to show the least approachableness in foreign questions and Russian society and the press are in an extremely anti German mood Evidences of the same thing are to be seen in their attitude to Austria The Russian policy lets itself be taken more and more in tow by the French desires and has nothing but polite speeches left for Germany The Weser Zeitung finds the explanation of the hostility in Germany's efforts to help the Turks reorganize their army and declares Here we have touched one of the weakest spots in Russia's world policy her endeavor to get to the Mediterranean The Frankische Kurier thinks that Russia intends to form a protectorate over the Balkan states as a military weapon against Austria and her allies The soul of this endeavor is the Russian diplomacy and the Servian minister president Pasitsch The Dresdener Anzeiger observes that the influence of the Pan Slavist party over the Russian government is steadily growing and that the extraordinary activity in military matters ill suits the constant peace assurances The measures are pointed against Austria Hungary Germany's Fighting Machine Ernest F.
