Of No Fixed Abode Vagrancy And The Welfare State:

Of No Fixed Abode John Stewart,1975 The Welfare State and the 'Deviant Poor' in Europe, 1870-1933 B.

Althammer,A. Gestrich,J. Gründler,2014-05-28 The strife for social improvement that arose in the decades around the turn of the 20th century raised the issue of social conformity in new ways how were citizens who did not adhere to the rules to be dealt with This edited collection opens new perspectives on the history of the emerging welfare state by focusing on its margins

Rehabilitating and Resettling Offenders in the Community Anthony H. Goodman,2012-05-25 Rehabilitating and Resettling Offenders in the Community is a significant examination of the historical development of work with offenders and their treatment by the state and society It offers unique perspectives and a wealth of information drawn from numerous interviews with probation staff Highlights how the work of probation staff has changed over time and the reasons behind these changes Includes discourse with probation staff carried out over many years for a comprehensive insiders view of the situation Focuses on contemporary issues including the changes brought in by the Conservative Liberal Democrat coalition Written by a leading academic with extensive experience in the probation service

The Study of Social Policy Barbara Rodgers,2025-07-15 Originally published in 1979 this book enabled students and practising professionals who wished to deepen their understanding of their subject by using a comparative approach The book begins with a stringent treatment of methodological problems moves on to suggest how they can be tackled and sets up a conceptual and analytical framework for the four case studies and the comparative analysis arising out of them These case studies from Britain France Israel and Australia are deliberately focused on the personal social services and social work although these are necessarily set within the political economic and social context and related to other areas of social provision in each country

The History of Labour Intermediation Sigrid Wadauer,Thomas Buchner,Alexander Mejstrik,2015-04-01 Searching for a job has been an everyday affair in both modern and past societies and employment a concern for both individuals and institutions The case studies in this volume investigate job search and placement practices in European countries Australia and India in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The contributors explore how looking for work becomes a means by which participants individuals placement agents trade unions municipalities administrations state authorities and schools articulated specific interests perspectives and agendas Taking an exploratory approach the chapters illustrate different approaches to the history of employment and job searching ranging from organizational and regulatory histories to the analysis of practices and autobiographical accounts In the process they uncover the interrelations of search practices and attempts to arrange placement services

Swept Up Lives? Paul Cloke,Jon May,Sarah Johnsen,2011-01-31 Utilizing innovative ethnographic research Swept Up Lives challenges conventional accounts of urban homelessness to trace the complex and varied attempts to care for homeless people Presents innovative ethnographic research which suggests an important shift in perspective in the analysis and understanding of urban homelessness Emphasizes the ethical and emotional geographies of care embodied and performed within homeless services spaces Suggests that different homelessness scenes develop in different places due to varied historical political and cultural responses to the problems faced Ending Homelessness? Mike Allen, Lars Benjaminsen, Eoin O'Sullivan, Nicholas Pleace, 2020-02-26 Homelessness is on the increase in most European states and remains at stubbornly high levels across developed nations This is despite increased policy attention economic provision and the implementation of strategies that have promised to stop homelessness in its tracks rather than simply manage the crisis Providing an in depth exploration of the experiences of Ireland Denmark and Finland in their various initiatives designed to end homelessness this book presents an authoritative comparative account of policies and strategies that have worked along with an exposition of those that have not Making an invaluable and timely contribution to the current debate it provides essential policy lessons for the multiple jurisdictions seeking to successfully bring homelessness to an end Governing the Dangerous John Pratt, 1997 Explains how dangerousness first became an object of penological discourse and why it has since remained so Draws on material from Australia New Zealand England the United States and Canada Unsettled Jordanna Bailkin, 2018 Over the course of the twentieth century dozens of British refugee camps housed hundreds of thousands of displaced people from across the globe Unsettled explores the hidden world of these camps and traces the complicated relationships that emerged between refugees and citizens Rescuing the Vulnerable Beate Althammer, Lutz Raphael, Tamara Stazic-Wendt, 2016-05-01 In many ways the European welfare state constituted a response to the new forms of social fracture and economic turbulence that were born out of industrialization challenges that were particularly acute for groups whose integration into society seemed the most tenuous Covering a range of national cases this volume explores the relationship of weak social ties to poverty and how ideas about this relationship informed welfare policies in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries By focusing on three representative populations neglected children the homeless and the unemployed it provides a rich comparative consideration of the shifting perceptions representations and lived experiences of social vulnerability in modern Europe
