Of Self and Nation C. W. Watson, 2000 In looking critically at eight autobiographical works all concerned in one way or another with the question of what it means to be an Indonesian in the 20th century Watson anthropology U of Kent at Canterbury makes a case for reading autobiographies as accounts of nation building The autobiographies under consideration include those of an aristocrat celebrated as the founder of the Indonesian women s movement a Javanese man co opted into Dutch colonial service writers and religious leaders from Sumatra and Java and participants in the 1930s and 1940s nationalist movement Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Of Self and Nation C. W. Watson, 2000-01-01 Recent scholarly work on nationalism has revealed the importance of the nation imagined as a community The subjects of these works however have been largely political speeches polemical essays and radical journalism Missing has been the one literary genre where the individual s commitment to the imagining of the nation is most explicitly addressed autobiography In looking critically at eight autobiographical works all concerned in one way or another with the question of what it means to be an Indonesian in the twentieth century C W Watson demonstrates the value of reading autobiographies as accounts of nation building Opening with a critique of a turn of the century collection of letters by an aristocratic Javanese now celebrated as the founder of the women s movement in Indonesia Watson goes on to consider the autobiography of another Javanese who was coopted into the Dutch colonial service and whose reflections on his relationships with senior Dutch officials lay bare the dynamics of the process of twentieth century colonialism Other autobiographies by writers and religious figures from Sumatra and Java who actively participated in the struggle of the nationalist movement in the 1930s and 1940s are also carefully scrutinized The final chapter considers how autobiographies written by a younger generation of Indonesians in the late 1980s reconsider Indonesian nationalism in the light of a commitment to a modernist Muslim perspective on the nation Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers Imam Samudra's Revenge Angus McIntyre, 2016-02-01 On the evening of 12 October 2002 two suicide bombers detonated bombs inside Paddy's Pub and in front of the Sari Club in Kuta one of Bali's main tourist districts Two hundred and two people were killed including eighty eight Australians and thirty eight Indonesians The field coordinator of this terrorist operation was the Bantenese Abdul Aziz alias Imam Samudra who was later executed for his role in the attacks Imam Samudra's Revenge examines why Samudra bombed nightclubs in Bali paying due regard to the social and political context provided by both his experiences as a youthful member of the Darul Islam movement in Indonesia and Pakistan and the outbreak of religious violence in Indonesia from 1999 Yet these same factors also influenced his colleagues within the extremist Islamist group Jema'ah Islamiyah and they strongly disapproved of his actions in Bali Therefore it is also important to consider Samudra's personality and more particularly his proneness to humiliation which led him via the vengeful ideology of global jihadism to embrace terrorism in Bali Islamic Studies Series Volume 20

Autobiography and Decolonization Philip Holden, 2008 Philip Holden reveals deeply gendered connections between the writing of individual lives and of the narratives of nations emerging from colonialism Autobiography and Decolonization is the first book to give serious academic attention to autobiographies of nationalist leaders in the process of decolonization attending to them not simply as partial historical documents but as texts involved in remaking the world views of their readers Holden examines Mohandas K Gandhi's An Autobiography The Story of My Experiments with Truth Marcus Garvey's fragmentary Autobiography Joseph Ephraim Casely Hayford's Ethiopia Unbound Lee Kuan Yew's The Singapore Story Nelson Mandela's Long Walk to Freedom Jawaharlal Nehru's An Autobiography and Kwame Nkrumah's Ghana The Autobiography of Kwame Nkrumah Holden argues that these examples of life writing have had significant influence on the formation of new and often profoundly gendered national identities These narratives constitute the nation less as an imagined community than as an imagined individual Moving from the past to the promise of the future they mediate relationships between public and private and between individual and collective stories Ultimately they show how the construction of modern selfhood is inextricably linked to the construction of a postcolonial polity

Hamka's Great Story James R. Rush, 2016-06-07 Hamka's Great Story presents Indonesia through the eyes of an impassioned popular thinker who believed that Indonesians and Muslims everywhere should embrace the thrilling promises of modern life and navigate its dangers with Islam as their compass Hamka Haji Abdul Malik Karim Amrullah was born when Indonesia was still a Dutch colony and came of age as the nation itself was emerging through tumultuous periods of Japanese occupation revolution and early independence He became a prominent author and controversial public figure In his lifetime of prodigious writing Hamka advanced Islam as a liberating enlightened and hopeful body of beliefs around which the new nation could form and prosper He embraced science human agency social justice and democracy arguing that these modern concepts comported with Islam's true teachings Hamka unfolded this big idea his Great Story decade by decade in a vast outpouring of writing that included novels and poems and chatty newspaper columns biographies memoirs and histories and lengthy studies of theology including a thirty volume commentary on the Holy Qur'an In introducing this influential figure and his ideas to a wider audience this sweeping biography also illustrates a profound global process how public debates about religion are shaping national societies in the postcolonial world

Reading Autobiography Sidonie Smith, 2001 Telling Lives in India David Arnold, Stuart Blackburn, 2004-12-30 This book serves as a window into the rich and revealing lives and self representations of the particular individuals who have produced the life histories In so doing it makes very important broader points about the use of life histories in social science research in general and in the study of South Asian social cultural life in particular Sarah Lamb Life histories have a wide if not universal appeal But what does it mean to narrate the story of a life whether one's own or someone else's orally or in writing Which lives are worth telling and who is authorized to tell them The essays in this volume consider these questions through close examination of a wide range of biographies autobiographies diaries and oral stories from India Their subjects range from literary authors to housewives politicians to folk heroes and include young and old women and men the illiterate and the learned Contributors are David Arnold Stuart Blackburn Sudipta Kaviraj Barbara D Metcalf Kirin Narayan Francesca Orsini Jonathan P Parry Jean Luc Racine Josiane Racine David Shulman and Sylvia Vatuk

The Shariatisation of Indonesia Syafiq Hasyim, 2023-01-09 This book is a succinct and critical account on the shariatisation of Indonesia the largest Muslim country in the world It is the first book in English to uncover and explain the shariatisation of Indonesia in a comprehensive way With the abundant primary and secondary sources this book is a reference for other scholars who conduct research on the inclusion of sharia into legal and public sphere of Indonesia It comes with an important conclusion that the change of such a non theocratic state like Indonesia into a theocratic state is highly possible when its law is penetrated by those who want to change the state system

Islam in Indonesia Carool Kersten, 2015-01-12 A compelling account of the struggle for the soul of Indonesian Islam      Women in Southeast Asian Nationalist Movements Susan Blackburn, Helen Ting, 2013-07-31 Books on Southeast Asian nationalist movements make very little if any mention of women in their ranks Biographical studies of politically active women in Southeast Asia are also rare Women in Southeast Asian Nationalist Movements makes a strong case for the significance of women's involvement in nationalist movements and for the diverse impact of those movements on the lives of individual women activists Some of the 12 women whose political activities are discussed in this volume are well known while others are not Some of them participated in armed struggles while others pursued peaceful ways of achieving national independence The authors show women negotiating their own subjectivity and agency at the confluence of colonialism patriarchal traditions and modern ideals of national and personal emancipation They also illustrate the constraints imposed on them by wider social and political structures and show what it was like to live as a political activist in different times and places Fully documented and drawing on wider scholarship this book will be of interest to students of Southeast Asian history and politics as well as readers with a particular interest in women nationalism and political activism

The Struggle for the National Narrative in Indonesia Michael Hatherell, Alistair Welsh, 2021-09-16 This book offers a unique analysis of how political representatives construct ideas about the nation in contemporary Indonesian politics In their struggle to define what the authors call the national narrative would be national leaders seek to develop a story about the nation's past present and future These stories feature a unique plot set of characters and a moral that the political narrator hopes will resonate In contemporary Indonesia the authors assess two prominent national narratives the technocratic and populist national narratives The book concludes with an analysis that considers other potential sources of ideas about the nation as well as the potential implications for domestic politics and Indonesian grand strategy      Of Self and Injustice C.W. Watson, 2021-10-01 Since the downfall of Soeharto in 1998 many autobiographical writings have appeared in Indonesia from the pens of those who were marginalized by his so called New Order regime This book examines representative autobiographies of several such individuals two ex political prisoners who describe themselves as Muslim Communists two writers of the left one a woman in a senior position in the left wing women's organization Gerwani and one a well known male novelist who spent years in exile in China and Russia two Muslim opponents of Soeharto one an intellectual and the other a political campaigner and finally two collections of short autobiographies by the younger generation one a group involved in social welfare action the other a group of dedicated young Muslims The scrutiny of the texts is in all cases preceded by a brief account of the historical and cultural context of the writing of the autobiographies In the analysis of the works themselves the emphasis is on trying to represent the implicit tone of the narrative as much as its overt contents Both general and specialist readers are consequently invited to reflect on the memories and experiences of significant participant observers as a mode of understanding a recent period in Indonesian history      American Visions of the Netherlands East Indies/Indonesia Frances Gouda, 2002 A revealing reassessment of the American government's position towards Indonesia's
