Off The Reservation Reflections On Boundary Busting Border Crossing Loose Canons:

Off the Reservation Paula Gunn Allen, 1999-10-05 In this captivating collection of unpublished and published essays one of our most important scholars Paula Gunn Allen explores the symbiotic relationship between Native American culture and the larger Western world Through her own history and that of other Native peoples she searches for a connection that will link the eco spiritual and implicitly multicultural heritage to the demands of an increasingly global and culturally unilateral community

Native American Literature Helen May Dennis, 2006-11-22 Considering Native American literature within a modernist framework and comparing it with writers such as Woolf Stein T S Eliot and Proust results in a valuable and enriching context for the selected texts

Reckonings Hertha D. Sweet Wong, Lauren Stuart Muller, Jana Sequoya Magdaleno, 2008-03-11 Reckonings offers stories by fifteen Native women writers in what is now the United States much loved stories and vibrant new stories by the most famous contemporary Native American writers as well as the fresh voices of emergent writers Although diverse these stories are reckonings with the brutal history of colonization and its ongoing consequences This anthology gives fresh voice to Native American women for a new generation

The Praeger Handbook on Contemporary Issues in Native America Bruce E. Johansen, 2007-04-30 Most Americans know very little about Native America For many most of their knowledge comes from an amalgam of three sources a barely remembered required history class in elementary school Hollywood movies and debates in the news media over casinos or sports mascots This two volume set deals with these issues as well as with more important topics of concern to the future of Native Americans including their health their environment their cultural heritage their rights and their economic sustainability This two volume set is one of few guides to Native American revival in our time It includes detailed descriptions of efforts throughout North America regarding recovery of languages trust funds economic base legal infrastructure and agricultural systems The set also includes personal profiles of individuals who have sparked renewal from Sheila Watt Cloutier a leader among the Inuit whose people deal with toxic chemicals and global warming to Ernest Benedict and Ray Fadden who brought pride to Mohawk children long before the idea was popular Also included are descriptions of struggles over Indian mascots establishment of multicultural urban centers and ravages of uranium mining among the Navajo The set ends with a detailed development of contemporary themes in Native humor as a coping mechanism Delving occasionally into historical context this set includes valuable background information on present day controversies that are often neglected by the news media For example the current struggles to recover Native American trust funds and languages both emerged from a cradle to grave control system developed by the U S and Canadian governments These efforts are part of a much broader Native American effort to recover from pervasive poverty and reassert Native American economic independence Is gambling an answer to poverty the new buffalo as some Native Americans have called it The largest Native American casino to date has been the Pequots Foxwoods near Ledyard Connecticut In other places such as the New York Oneidas lands in Upstate New York gambling has provided an enriched upper class the means to hire police to force anti gambling traditionalists from their homes Among the Mohawks at Akwesasne people have died over the issue This two volume set brings together all of these struggles with the attention to detail they have always deserved and rarely received Daughters of Aataentsic Kathryn Magee Labelle,2021-03-10

Daughters of Aataentsic highlights and connects the unique lives of seven Wendat Wandat women whose legacies are still felt today Spanning the continent and the colonial borders of New France British North America Canada and the United States this book shows how Wendat people and place came together in Ontario Quebec Michigan Ohio Kansas and Oklahoma and how generations of activism became intimately tied with notions of family community motherwork and legacy from the seventeenth to the twenty first century The lives of the seven women tell a story of individual and community triumph despite difficulties and great loss Kathryn Magee Labelle aims to decolonize the historical discipline by researching with Indigenous people rather than researching on them It is a collaborative effort guided by an advisory council of eight Wendat Wandat women reflecting the needs and desires of community members Daughters of Aataentsic challenges colonial interpretations by demonstrating the centrality of women past and present to Wendat Wandat culture and history Labelle draws from institutional archives and published works as well as from oral histories and private collections Breaking new ground in both historical narratives and community guided research in North America Daughters of Aataentsic offers an alternative narrative by considering the ways in which individual Wendat Wandat women resisted colonialism preserved their culture and acted as matriarchs Native American Women Gretchen M. Bataille,Laurie Lisa,2003-12-16 This A Z reference contains 275 biographical entries on Native American women past and present from many different walks of life Written by more than 70 contributors most of whom are leading American Indian historians the entries examine the complex and diverse roles of Native American women in contemporary and traditional cultures This new edition contains 32 new entries and updated end of article bibliographies Appendices list entries by area of woman s specialization state of birth and tribe also includes photos and a comprehensive index Back to the Drawing Board Njoki Nathani Wane,Katerina Deliovsky,Erica Lawson,2002 What are the fundamental tenets of African Canadian feminism What are the elements of feminist theory that have contributed to African Canadian feminist thought African American feminists have influenced thinking and writing in Canada As well Black Canadian feminists have published on a wide range of issues relating to Black women s lives history and experience Back to the Drawing Board builds on this existing literature and maps out a new space in which to articulate a stronger vision of African Canadian feminism While the essays focus on key concepts and debates that underlie Black feminist theory and challenge the dominant structures that continue to exclude Black women the objective is to bring the plurality of African Canadian women s voices and experiences into the centre of analysis To accomplish this the editors draw on different theories and insights The fourteen contributors come from different race and gender backgrounds and are committed to creating an empowering space where Black women can speak to and about each other and find a home for their words They write on the subjects of Black Canadian feminist thought African Canadian feminist historiography Black feminist political activism white mainstream feminism as a liberatory movement Black women in the white feminism and anti racist education Native education and spirituality that form and shape identity how the media and law construct Black identity the social consequences of interracial relationships Includes a Glossary Bibliography and Index Back to the Drawing Board initiates a dialogue critical for defining feminisms that validate the contributions and experiences of African Canadian women

Rethinking Identities Across Boundaries Claudia Capancioni, Mariaconcetta Costantini, Mara Mattoscio, 2023-11-22 This collection of essays aims to widen the current critique on borders by examining their entanglements with constructions of identity and disciplinary categories In particular it calls into question established models of gender notions of narrative genres and typological genera of borders in today s literary artistic philosophical and socio political discourse The chapters interrogate boundaries and boundary crossing not only in terms of geographical frontiers and the physical acts of trespassing but also as discursive constructs that police crossing subjects as gendered subjects on the one hand and identify artistic genres and academic disciplines as fixed sealed in ways of understanding the world on the other Taking inspiration from the multiple meanings of the Italian word genere which stands for gender genre and typology genus simultaneously the volume reflects on the gendered narrative and typological nature of borders and border imagery and on the significance and potentialities of crossover phenomena taking place in borderlands in the fields of arts literature anthropology sociology and philosophy

Gendering the Trans-Pacific World, 2017-03-06 As the inaugural volume of the new Brill book series Gendering the Trans Pacific World Diaspora Empire and Race this anthology presents an emergent interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary field that highlights the inextricable link between gender and the trans Pacific world The anthology features twenty one chapters by new and established scholars and writers They collectively examine the geographies of empire the significance of intimacy and affect the importance of beauty and the body and the circulation of culture This is an ideal volume to introduce advanced undergraduate and graduate students to Transpacific Studies and gender as a category of analysis Gendering the Trans Pacific World Diaspora Empire and Race is now available in paperback for individual customers

American Indian Literature Kimberly Wieser-Weryackwe, 2025-07-10 Discover the essential people works movements and themes in American Indian literature American Indian literature is a varied and vibrant collection of Indigenous artistic expression American Indian novelists poets essayists and critics have over the last four centuries asserted powerful forms of intellectual and artistic sovereignty writing in English while building on discrete tribal oral traditions and forms of storytelling This encyclopedia introduces readers to the key historical and contemporary figures in American Indian literature and their defining works From the fiery sermons of Methodist minister William Apesto to the Pulitzer Prize winning novel House Made of Dawn by N Scott Momaday to the critically acclaimed and commercially successful novels of Louise Erdrich this book illustrates the indelible and influential imprint American Indians have on the landscape of American letters

Readers are also introduced to the key themes and context of American Indian literature exploring how it is inextricable from American literary history the American literary canon and the narrative of American history not on the fringes of the American experience but central to it
