Off Hollywood Movies:

Off-Hollywood Movies Richard Skorman, 1989 This indispensable guide rates and reviews hundreds of old and new film treasures with an entertaining synopsis concise critique one to five star rating credits subject category running time date and more for each title Photos Hollyworld Aida Hozic, 2018-10-18 Hollywood is currently one of the largest and most profitable sectors of the U S economy In just a few decades it has transformed itself from a dying company town into a merchandising emporium of movies games and licensed characters It is quickly moving even further into cyberspace virtual reality and digital imaging Aida Hozic writes of these enormous changes in the film industry from a novel perspective by tracing shifts in spatial organization of film production from the enclosed worlds of old Hollywood studios through globally dispersed location shooting to digital production and distribution Hozic s fascinating tale of latter day capitalism suggests that the physical reorganization of production across the American economy but in Hollywood in particular alters material and conceptual boundaries between work and leisure public and private reality and fantasy Particular economic regimes and forms of spatial organization have specific moral implications and so the story of Hollywood s cultural production is partly a story of censorship and moral surveillance Hozic s account of industrial change in Hollywood and of its attempts at moral control over the production of fantasy is an illuminating confrontation with the peculiar nature of Hollywood s political authority and of its complex power

Off the Page Daniel Bernardi, Julian Hoxter, 2017-09-12 Off the Page examines the business and craft of screenwriting in the era of media convergence Daniel Bernardi and Julian Hoxter use the recent history of screenwriting labor coupled with close analysis of scripts in the context of the screenwriting paraindustry from how to write a winning script books to screenwriting software to explore the state of screenwriting today They address the conglomerate studios making tentpole movies expanded television Indiewood independent animation microbudget scripting the video games industry and online content creation Designed for students producers and writers who want to understand what studios want and why they want it this book also examines how scripting is developing in the convergent media beneath and beyond the Hollywood tentpole By addressing specific genres across a wide range of media this essential volume sets the standard for anyone in the expanded screenwriting industry and the scholars that study it

Korean Film Eungjun Min, Jinsook Joo, Han Ju Kwak, 2003-04-30 Despite its rise in the global market recent political progress and a surging interest worldwide Korean films are relatively unknown and rarely studied This new work begins by investigating the history industry structure and trends of filmmaking in Korea going on to examine how Hollywood films have affected both Korean mainstream and nonmainstream film industries in terms of both means of production and narrative Moreover the authors analyze the ways in which Korean films of recent years have represented the modernization process in Korea itself as well as the ideological implications that arise from the cinematic constructions of Korean imagination More than a mere chronological account of Korean cinematic history Korean Film R attempts to consider the films as a popular cultural form that have a life beyond their theatrical runs stars genres and key movies become part of any culture's identity and in their narratives and meanings can be located evidence of the ways in which a culture makes sense of itself Korea has never before been given such an extensive treatment of this central idea and here for the first time the nation's culture and cinema are merged into one discussion that both reflects and shapes our understanding of it A History of American Movies Paul

Monaco,2023-06-14 In A History of American Movies A Film by Film Look at the Art Craft and Business of Cinema Paul Monaco provides a survey of the narrative feature film from the 1920s to the present The book focuses on 170 of the most highly regarded and recognized feature films selected by the Hollywood establishment each Oscar winner for Best Picture as well as those voted the greatest by members of the American Film Institute By focusing on a select group of films that represent the epitome of these collaborations Monaco provides an essential history of one of the modern world's most complex and successful cultural institutions Hollywood Divided into three sections Classic Hollywood 1927-1948 Hollywood In Transition 1949-1974 and The New Hollywood 1975 To The Present Monaco examines some of the most memorable works in cinematic history including The General Wings Bringing Up Baby Gone with the Wind Citizen Kane Casablanca On the Waterfront The Searchers Psycho West Side Story The Godfat American Film History Cynthia Lucia,Roy

P. Telotte,2014-02-19 Play it again Sam is the motto of cult film enthusiasts who will watch their favorite movie over and over beyond all reason What is the appeal of cult movies Why do fans turn up in droves at midnight movies or sit through the same three hanky classics from Hollywood's golden era These are some of the questions J P Telotte and twelve other noted film scholars consider in this groundbreaking study of the cult film The book identifies two basic types of cult films older Hollywood movies such as Casablanca that have developed a cult following and midnight movies most notably The Rocky Horror Picture Show Telotte Bruce Kavin and Timothy Corrigan offer thought provoking discussions about why these two types of movies become cult films the sort of audience they attract and the needs they fulfill for that audience Subsequent essays employ a variety of cultural feminist ideological and poststructural strategies for exploring these films In a section on the classical cult film the movie Casablanca receives extensive treatment An essay by T J Ross considers Beat the Devil as a send up of cult films while another essay by Wade Jennings analyzes the cult star phenomenon as personified in Judy Garland Midnight movie madness is explored in essays on The Rocky Horror Picture Show movie satires of the 1950s science fiction double features and horror thrillers Illustrated with scenes from favorite movies and written for both fans and scholars The Cult Film Experience will appeal to a wider audience than the usual suspects
