Off The Battlefield Of War:

Catalogue of War Relics, Curiosities, Etc. Gathered from the Battlefields of Virginia, Pennsylvania and Maryland, During the Years 1886-7-8 Cotton & Hills, 1888 From the Battlefield to the Big Screen Melody Foreman, 2022-11-04 Look closely behind the lives of the stars who appeared in a host of legendary war films and discover how memories of their real life experiences in the armed forces were haunted with heartbreak and yet filled with extraordinary heroism Just what did America's most decorated soldier Audie Murphy go through in battle which led him to star as himself in the classic war film To Hell and Back When the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor in December 1941 Murphy joined the US Army aged just 17 He went on to fight at Anzio the Colmar Pocket and Nuremberg And for single handedly holding off an enemy attack he was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor But Murphy's military and celebrity stardom did little to extinguish the pain of his private battle to fit in to a new post war world he perceived as disappointing shallow and unfulfilling Tormented by PTSD Murphy was a man unable to escape from his past Only the great director and decorated wartime documentary maker John Huston gained Murphy's true respect When war broke out on 3 September 1939 a number of British stars including Laurence Olivier his future wife Vivien Leigh and David Niven were in the United States under contract to the Hollywood Studios Keen not to shirk their duties at home and against advice from the British Consul they made their way back to Blighty Olivier joined the Royal Navy's Fleet Air Arm as a pilot Then with Churchill's approval he directed and starred in powerful propaganda films including Shakespeare's Henry V In 1943 the beautiful Vivien Leigh ruined her health by enduring the brutalities of the North African climate to entertain the troops in the desert Meantime Dirk Bogarde was a British Army intelligence officer seconded to the pioneering RAF Medmenham where he studied aerial photographs and pinpointed enemy targets for Bomber Command As Lieutenant van den Bogaerde he was posted to France just after D Day He went on to star in many leading war films such as Appointment in London 1953 and King and Country 1964 Years later in 1991 Sir Dirk Bogarde was interviewed by the author of this book He had witnessed the horrors of Belsen in April 1945 and said it changed his attitude to life forever In this book the author honors the real life stories of some big screen idols who showed true grit behind the glamor Wounded Homecoming: The Uphill Journey of Wounded Veterans from Battlefield to Homefront John Gallina, Dale Beatty, 2018-05-07 John Gallina and Dale Beatty Combat Wounded Veterans who served together were injured together an established Purple Heart Homes together share details of their story in Wounded Homecoming The Uphill Journey of Wounded Veterans from Battlefield to Homefront The book delves into the background of both Purple Heart Homes Co founders while showcasing the stories of disabled Veterans from different conflicts The juxtaposition of similarities and differences from the over 3.4 million injured service members who live in the United States casts a new light on what it means to exist as a disabled Veteran The Allure of Battle Cathal Nolan, 2017-01-02 History has tended to measure war's winners and losers in terms of its major engagements battles in which the result was so clear cut that they could be considered decisive Cannae Konigsberg Austerlitz Midway Agincourt all resonate in the literature of war and in our imaginations as tide turning But these legendary battles may or may not have determined the final outcome of the wars in which they were fought Nor has the genius of the so called Great Captains from Alexander the Great to Frederick the Great and Napoleon play a major role Wars are decided in other ways Cathal J Nolan's The Allure of Battle systematically and engrossingly examines the great battles tracing what he calls short war thinking the hope that victory might be swift and wars brief As he proves persuasively however such has almost never been the case Even the major engagements have mainly contributed to victory or defeat by accelerating the erosion of the other side's defences Massive conflicts the so called people's wars beginning with Napoleon and continuing until 1945 have consisted of and been determined by prolonged stalemate and attrition industrial wars in which the determining factor has been not military but material Nolan's masterful book places battles squarely and mercilessly within the context of the wider conflict in which they took place In the process it help corrects a distorted view of battle's role in war replacing popular images of the battles of annihilation with somber appreciation of the commitments and human sacrifices made throughout centuries of war particularly among the Great Powers Accessible provocative exhaustive and illuminating The Allure of Battle will spark fresh debate about the history and conduct of warfare

Striking Power Jeremy Rabkin, John Yoo, 2017-09-12 Threats to international peace and security include the proliferation of weapons of mass destructions rogue nations and international terrorism The United States must respond to these challenges to its national security and to world stability by embracing new military technologies such as drones autonomous robots and cyber weapons These weapons can provide more precise less destructive means to coerce opponents to stop WMD proliferation clamp down on terrorism or end humanitarian disasters Efforts to constrain new military technologies are not only doomed but dangerous Most weapons in themselves are not good or evil their morality turns on the motives and purposes for the war itself These new weapons can send a strong message without cause death or severe personal injury and as a result can make war less rather than more destructive
