The Oxford Dictionary of Family Names of Ireland Kay Muhr, Liam Ó hAisibéil, 2021-10-19 The Oxford Dictionary of Family Names of Ireland contains more than 3 800 entries covering the majority of family names that are established and current in Ireland both in the Republic and in Northern Ireland It establishes reliable and accurate explanations of historical origins including etymologies and provides variant spellings for each name as well as its geographical distribution and where relevant genealogical and bibliographical notes for family names that have more than 100 bearers in the 1911 census of Ireland Of particular value are the lists of early bearers of family names extracted from sources ranging from the medieval period to the nineteenth century providing for the first time the evidence on which many surname explanations are based as well as interesting personal names locations and often occupations of potential family forbears This unique Dictionary will be of the greatest interest not only to those interested in Irish history students of the Irish language genealogists and geneticists but also to the general public both in Ireland and in the Irish diaspora in North America Australia and elsewhere Ireland and India M. Silvestri, 2009-10-22 Through a consideration of historical memory commemoration and the imagined communities of nationalism Ireland and India examines three aspects of Ireland's imperial history relationships between Irish and Indian nationalists the construction of Irishmen as imperial heroes and the commemoration of an Irish regiment's mutiny in India Agricultural Statistics, 1847-1926 Irish Free State. Department of Industry and Commerce, 1928 Tracing Your Irish Ancestors John Grenham, 2006 Tracing Your Irish Family History on the Internet, Second Edition Chris Paton, 2020-11-12 A simple easy to use guide to tracing your Irish ancestry via the Internet In this the fully updated second edition of his best selling guide to researching Irish history using the Internet Chris Paton shows the extraordinary variety of sources that can now be accessed online Although Ireland has lost many records that would have been of great interest to family historians he demonstrates that a great deal of information survived and is now easily available to the researcher Thanks to the pioneering efforts of the Public Record Office of Northern Ireland the National Archives of Ireland organizations such as FindmyPast Ireland Ancestry co uk and RootsIreland and the volunteer genealogical community an ever increasing range of Ireland's historical resources are accessible from afar As well as exploring the various categories of records that the family historian can turn to Chris Paton illustrates their use with fascinating case studies He fully explores the online records available from both the north and the south from the earliest times to the present day Many overseas collections are also included and he looks at social networking in an Irish context where many exciting projects are currently underway Paton's book is an essential introduction and reference for anyone who is keen to trace their Irish roots

Adventure Guide to Ireland Tina Neylon, 2004 Aiming at making the visitor a participant rather than just a spectator The author succeeds admirably in her descriptions from Ireland's pub life to its prehistoric sites The spectacular Cliffs of Moher and kissing the Blarney Stone Neylon takes us on a fabulous and thorough journey throughout this beautiful country

Where to stay is thoroughly researched with choices from rentals to government approved hostels B stone circles strategically placed to shine in the winter solstice moon and Of course In its pubs where local residents gladly share a pint and a tale Its cities are a treat to explore with winding streets packed with tiny antique stores Trips along the coast take you to traditional fishing villages and past some of the world s best golf courses This book written by an Ireland native tells it all

Global Sourcebook of Address Data Management Graham Rhind,2017-09-29 Which part of this Asian address is the street What is this accent and is it correct Which one of these numbers is the postcode In which language should I be corresponding How do I salute this person In which order should I output this name For every individual entered on to a world wide address database these questions and others need to be answered accurately and correctly This one stop reference work covering 194 countries will enable you to have the most accurate international marketing database around one that makes optimal use of the direct marketing activity generated in your company and ensures that your post is delivered to the correct destination and recipient Global Sourcebook of Address Data Management provides for each country such information as address and postcode formats postbox names salutations personal name patterns information about languages diacritical marks job titles casing rules street types and much more It will make the management and development of any marketing database more efficient less expensive and will result in fewer errors and most importantly will present the best first impression of the company to its potential customers No other book can claim to offer such a comprehensive source of essential information for any manager of an international database from data quality direct marketers market researchers through to telemarketing managers

The Road from Castlebarnagh Paddy O'Brien,2012-10-15 I entered the world in 1945 the middle of the twentieth century but my family s way of life had not changed substantially for more than a hundred years The area around our house is still known as Castlebarnagh which is a small townland near Daingean in northeast County Offaly in the midlands of Ireland The Road from Castlebarnagh is Paddy O'Brien s lyrical account of growing up as a budding musician in County Offaly in the 1950s and 1960s Paddy grew up at a time when the social life of the Irish countryside often took place around the fireplace where stories were told and music was played In his book he writes of the many colourful characters who shaped his perception of Irish life and culture Showing Paddy s flair for storytelling The Road from Castlebarnagh is the story of how a young musician absorbed his surroundings while developing his own distinctive musical style

Electoral Management: Institutions and Practices in an Established Democracy Fiona Buckley,Theresa Reidy,2018-02-02 Over the last three decades electoral reform has moved centre stage in both new and established democracies In Europe the post 1989 democratisation wave brought important debates about electoral system choice and free and fair elections But electoral reform also emerged on the agenda in a number of established democracies Declining political participation corruption scandals and party finance irregularities put the management of the democratic process on the political agenda Election administration problems such as those in the Gore Bush election of 2000 thrust electoral integrity into the global political spotlight In this edited collection we are primarily concerned with the mechanics of how elections are run Elections are complex administrative tasks and as International IDEA points out they are also usually administered against a politically charged backdrop This book brings together specialists to consider the election management process using diverse theoretical approaches and addressing both emerging and perennial election debates such as the role of voter advice applications election management bodies districting ballot design and media practices in the coverage of elections The volume includes a number of comparative chapters which utilise data from large international datasets VDem and CSES several Irish case studies and an important Dutch study of voter advice applications with pioneering data Collectively the chapters provide insights into election administration in Ireland and many other established democracies This book was previously published as a special issue of Irish Political Studies

Celtic FC Brian McGuirk, 2013-02-21 Celtic Football Club has a huge support in Ireland many of whom regularly travel to watch their team in Glasgow or follow them on TV Now Celtic FC The Ireland Connection explores the deep rooted links between Celtic Football Club Ireland and the 90 million supporters of Irish descent throughout the world links which include the club's founder Brother Walfrid from Sligo the first sod of turf on Celtic Park in 1892 from Donegal why the Irish flag flies over the stadium Celtic's first manager Willie Maley from Newry emigration from Ireland to Scotland and the many Irish players and staff who have played or managed at Celtic This is a fascinating must read book for supporters of Celtic Football Club in Ireland Scotland and around the world
