The Oxford Illustrated History of the Holy Land Robert G. Hoyland, H. G. M. Williamson, 2018-09-06 The Oxford Illustrated History of the Holy Land covers the 3 000 years which saw the rise of Judaism Christianity and Islam and relates the familiar stories of the sacred texts with the fruits of modern scholarship Beginning with the origins of the people who became the Israel of the Bible it follows the course of the ensuing millennia down to the time when the Ottoman Empire succumbed to British and French rule at the end of the First World War Parts of the story especially as known from the Bible will be widely familiar Less familiar are the ways in which modern research both from archaeology and from other ancient sources sometimes modify this story historically Better understanding however enables us to appreciate crucial chapters in the story of the Holy Land such as how and why Judaism developed in the way that it did from the earlier sovereign states of Israel and Judah and the historical circumstances in which Christianity emerged from its Jewish cradle Later parts of the story are vital not only for the history of Islam and its relationships with the two older religions but also for the development of pilgrimage and religious tourism as well as the notions of sacred space and of holy books with which we are still familiar today From the time of Napoleon on European powers came increasingly to develop both cultural and political interest in the region culminating in the British and French conquests which carved out the modern states of the Middle East Sensitive to the concerns of those for whom the sacred books of Judaism Christianity and Islam are of paramount religious authority the authors all try sympathetically to show how historical information from other sources as well as scholarly study of the texts themselves enriches our understanding of the history of the region and its prominent position in the world's cultural and intellectual history

Portraying the Land Rehav Rubin, 2018-05-22 The book presents and discusses a large corpus of Jewish maps of the Holy Land that were drawn by Jewish scholars from the 11th to the 20th century and thus fills a significant lacuna both in the history of cartography and in Jewish studies The maps depict the biblical borders of the Holy Land the allotments of the tribes and the forty years of wanderings in the desert Most of these maps are in Hebrew although there are several in Yiddish Ladino and in European languages The book focuses on four aspects it presents an up to date corpus of known maps of various types and genres it suggests a classification of these maps according to their source shape and content it presents and analyses the main topics that were depicted in the maps and it puts the maps in their historical and cultural contexts both within the Jewish world and the sphere of European cartography of their time The book is an innovative contribution to the fields of history of cartography and Jewish studies It is written for both professional readers and the general public The Hebrew edition 2014 won the Izhak Ben Zvi Prize

Jerusalem, 1000-1400 Barbara Drake Boehm, Melanie Holcomb, 2016-09-14 Medieval Jerusalem was a vibrant international center home to multiple cultures faiths and languages Harmonious and dissonant voices from many lands including Persians Turks Greeks Syrians Armenians Georgians Copts Ethiopians Indians and Europeans passed in the narrow streets of a city not much larger than midtown Manhattan Patrons artists pilgrims poets and scholars from Christian Jewish and Islamic traditions focused their attention on the Holy City endowing and enriching its sacred buildings creating luxury goods for its residents and praising its merits This artistic fertility was particularly in evidence between the eleventh and fourteenth centuries notwithstanding often devastating circumstances from the earthquake of 1033 to the fierce battles of the Crusades So strong a magnet was Jerusalem that it drew out the creative imagination of even those separated from it by great distance from as far north as Scandinavia to as far east as present day China This publication is the first to define these four centuries as a singularly creative moment in a singularly complex city Through absorbing essays and incisive discussions of nearly 200 works of art Jerusalem 1000 1400 Every People Under Heaven explores not only the meaning of the city to its many faiths and its importance as a destination for tourists and pilgrims but also the aesthetic strands that enhanced and enlivened the medieval city that served as the crossroads of the known world

Memory - Papers Read at the Jewish and Christian Perspectives Conference, Utrecht 2022, 2025-07-28 Memory Papers Read at the Jewish and Christian Perspectives Conference Utrecht 2022 connects past present and future This conference volume demonstrates the diversity of memory in the Jewish and Christian traditions Memory turns out to be a key to investigating and better understanding many aspects of Judaism and Christianity including their mutual relationship In these traditions memory is not simply about recalling events but about preserving identity culture and divine teachings The act of remembering is central to how communities pass down their religious beliefs laws and moral frameworks across generations It also plays a role in communal cohesion ensuring that the experiences of the fathers and their wisdom would not get lost but rather actively re lived and celebrated

Reorienting the East Martin Jacobs, 2014-08-14 The first comprehensive investigation of premodern Jewish travel writing about the Islamic world Reorienting the East explores the Islamic world as it was encountered envisioned and elaborated by Jewish travelers from the Middle Ages to the early modern period The first comprehensive investigation of Jewish travel writing from this era this study engages with questions raised by postcolonial studies and contributes to the debate over the nature and history of Orientalism as defined by Edward Said Examining two dozen Hebrew and Judeo Arabic travel accounts from the mid twelfth to the early sixteenth centuries Martin Jacobs asks whether Jewish travelers shared Western perceptions of the Islamic world with their Christian counterparts Most Jews who detailed their journeys during this period hailed from Christian lands and many sailed to the Eastern Mediterranean aboard Christian owned vessels Yet Jacobs finds that their descriptions of the Near East subvert or reorient a decidedly Christian vision of the region The accounts from the crusader era in particular are often critical of the Christian church and present glowing portraits of Muslim Jewish relations By contrast some of the later travelers discussed in the book express condescending attitudes toward Islam Muslims and Near Eastern Jews Placing shifting perspectives on the Muslim world in their historical social and literary contexts Jacobs interprets these texts as mirrors of changing Jewish self perceptions As he argues the travel accounts echo the various ways in which premodern Jews negotiated their mingled identities which were neither exclusively Western nor entirely Eastern
