Smith, Linda Mooney, 2010-04-29 My name is Alexis Hembree and I m a cop My partner and I are good at our jobs except we don t tend to work what others would call a normal beat For some reason we draw evil to us like flies to sugar Sometimes there are things in this world we can t explain or anticipate But when they cross that line between their existence and ours when they show up we have to deal with them as best we can Some cops fight criminals We fight something that never should have existed Through My Eyes Jon E. Stanley, 2016-10-26 This book begins with the authors opinion of the police image over the past several decades As well as a brief history of the Florida Sheriff It then flows smoothly in to a series of fictitious short stories all of which were inspired by actual events that took place during the authors law enforcement career There is both humor and tragedy as you follow Stoney Burke through his day to day experiences on the beat as a patrol sergeant with the Tomahawk County Sheriffs Office Although the events actually took place all names locations and police agencies are fictitious to protect the innocent and guilty The book is interlaced with scripture versus in an attempt to inspire and show the heart of the author 3000 Miles John David Harris ,2014-02-27 In Los Angeles nothing ever just happens The underbelly of the city works at a methodical pace and any one action can spiral into a tornado powerful enough to tear up the city A prisoner transport bus is ambushed in the pre dawn hours and all fifty four maximum security inmates escape The city s best detectives begin sifting through the sea of decoys to find the target of the attack but as law enforcement spins its wheels the eight men behind the heist get further away from the crime scene As the investigators dig for clues one thing becomes clear this was not merely a group of criminals breaking a partner out of jail This was an act of pure desperation
