TV Finales FAQ

Stephen Tropiano, Holly Van Buren, 2015-11-01 FAQ TV Finales FAQ is the first book devoted exclusively to television's most memorable series finales. From Mary Richards' heartfelt goodbye to the WJM TV newsroom in the classic finale of The Mary Tyler Moore Show to the puzzling conclusion of the enigmatic adventure series Lost to the tumultuous final hours in the life of Breaking Bad's Walter White, TV Finales FAQ takes an up-close, insightful and entertaining look at the most memorable final episodes of television's most popular prime-time daytime and late-night series. Crafting the final episode to a long-running television series can be challenging for producers and writers who want to remain faithful to the show's characters and history yet at the same time satisfy the high expectations of its loyal fan base. TV Finales FAQ offers television viewers the inside story on the creation, broadcast and aftermath of the most famous and infamous final episodes of over 50 television series from the 1960s through the present day. The book features such shows as Dexter, Roseanne, Will & Grace, X-Files, The Sopranos and some classic talk and late-night programs such as The Oprah Winfrey Show and The Tonight Show Starring Johnny Carson and many others.

Television: A Biography David Thomson, 2017-03-28 The invention or the quaint piece of furniture wandered into our lives in the 1940s as a primitive plaything, a clever if awkward addition to the household. It was expensive, unreliable and a bit of an invalid. Television: A Biography In just a few years, what used to be an immobile piece of living room furniture, which one had to sit in front of at appointed times in order to watch sponsored programming on a finite number of channels, morphed into a glowing cloud of screens with access to a near-endless supply of content available when and how viewers want it. With this phenomenon now a common cultural theme, a writer of David Thomson's stature delivering a critical history or biography of the six-decade television era will be a significant event which could not be more timely. With Television, the critic and film historian who wrote what Sight and Sound's readers called the most important film book of the last 50 years, has finally turned his unique powers of observation to the medium that has swallowed film whole. Over twenty-two thematically organized chapters, Thomson brings his provocatively insightful and unique voice to the life of what was television. David Thomson surveying a Boschian landscape illuminated by that singular glow, always on and peopled by everyone from Donna Reed to Dennis Potter, will be the first complete history of the defining medium of our time.

A Talk in the Park Curt Smith, 2011-07 In the largest collection of voices in any sports book, A Talk in the Park features the favorite stories of baseball's most famous and beloved announcers in their own words.
