Official History In Modern Indonesia New Order Perceptions And Counterviews:

Official History in Modern Indonesia Michael Wood, 2014-11-28 This volume describes specific reconstructions and interpretations by the New Order regime of the ancient Javanese past the Dutch occupation the Indonesian Revolution and the coup attempt of September 30 1965 Counterviews from an Islamic perspective will also be noted

Official History in Modern Indonesia Michael Wood, 2005-08-01 Dealing with New Order perceptions of the past this study gives insights into how the past can be used for purposes of national building and regime legitimization and into the nature of the New Order The Suharto regime created a coherent history that is reflected in recent archaeological and historical research in popular histories and biographies in monuments and in school textbooks The author describes an official history stretching from the proto Indonesia of Majapahit through the Indonesian Revolution up to the birth of the New Order in 1965 He also gives a counterview to this history stressing Indonesia's place in the larger Islamic world The past emphasized political stability and national unity under the guidance of the military and socially disruptive ideas were to be avoided

Research-Based Art Practices in Southeast Asia Caroline Ha Thuc, 2022-10-05 This book is the first overall study of research based art practices in Southeast Asia Its objective is to examine the creative and mutual entanglement of academic and artistic research in short the Why When What and How of research based art practices in the region In Southeast Asia artists are increasingly engaged in research based art practices involving academic research processes They work as historians archivists archaeologists or sociologists in order to produce knowledge and or to challenge the current established systems of knowledge production As artists they can freely draw on academic research methodologies and at the same time question or divert them for their own artistic purpose The outcome of their research findings is exhibited as an artwork and is not published or presented in an academic format This book seeks to demonstrate the emancipatory dimension of these practices which contribute to opening up our conceptions of knowledge and of art bestowing a new and promising role to the artists within the society

Literature and Politics Yoseph Yapi Taum, 2022-01-03 In the discourse of Indonesian literature history the relationship between literature and politics is pressing issue a situation that cannot be easily overcome A long time ago during the Dutch colonial government there was a rule that literature should not discuss ideology religion and politics This colonial policy lasts and never changes even though Indonesia was already get its independence That's why Indonesian literary society and writers have a strong believe that literature must not be involved in politics and it must not have any moral and political goals Literature cannot be related to real life directly because literature is only a fictional work The historical aspects outside literature are considered as a background or a foreground that cannot destroy the authentic characteristics of the literary works as imaginary fictional works Literary works tend to be only considered as entertainment tools that narrate an alternative world which is totally different from the world where we are living This book will be the first in discussing the relationship between literature and politics Students and experts of various sciences who would like to understand the episteme of the New Order can get benefits from this book This book gives us a reflection that the development is for human beings not the human beings are for the development The humanistic development dimension must be a must Literary works still exist continuously to guard the Indonesians struggles in defending their human dignity

The Mission of Development, 2018-05-29 The Mission of Development interrogates the complex relationships between Christian mission and international development in Asia from the 19th century to the new millennium Through historically and ethnographically grounded case studies contributors examine how missionaries have adapted to and shaped the age of development and processes of technocratisation as well as how mission and development have sometimes come to be cast in opposition The volume takes up an increasingly prominent strand in contemporary research that reverses the prior occlusion of the entanglements between religion and development It breaks new ground through its analysis of the techno politics of both development and mission and by focusing on the importance of engagements and encounters in the field in Asia The Encoded Cirebon Mask Laurie Margot Ross, 2016-08-29 In The Encoded Cirebon Mask Materiality Flow and Meaning along Java s Islamic Northwest Coast Laurie Margot Ross situates masks and masked dancing in the Cirebon region of Java Indonesia as an original expression of Islam This is a different view from that of many scholars who argue that canonical prohibitions on fashioning idols and imagery prove that masks are mere relics of indigenous beliefs that Muslim travelers could not eradicate Making use of archives oral histories and the performing objects themselves Ross traces the mask s trajectory from a popular entertainment in Cirebon once a portal of global exchange to a stimulus for establishing a deeper connection to God in late colonial Java and eventual links to nationalism in post independence Indonesia Colonial Counterinsurgency and Mass Violence Bart Luttikhuis, A. Dirk Moses, 2018-10-24 Whether out of historical interest romantic identification with the colonized or as models for contemporary counter insurgency experts the mass violence of insurgency and counter insurgency in the post war decolonization of the European empires has long exerted an intense fascination In the main the dramas in French Algeria and British Kenya in the 1950s have dominated the scene overshadowing the equally violent events that unfolded in the Dutch Belgian and Portuguese empires Colonial counterinsurgency and mass violence is the first book in English to treat the intense conflict that occurred during the Indonesian revolution the decolonization struggle of the Dutch East Indies between 1945 and 1949 This case is particularly significant as the first episode of post war colonial violence indeed one with global reverberations International opinion was ranged against the Dutch and the nascent United Nations condemned its euphemistically termed police actions to reclaim the archipelago from Indonesian nationalists after defeat by the Japanese in 1942 As this book makes clear however intra Indonesian violence was no less prevalent as rival independence visions vied for control and villagers were caught between the fronts Taking a multi perspectival approach eighteen authors examine the origins of the conflict as well as its representational and memory dimensions Colonial counterinsurgency and mass violence will appeal to scholars of imperial history mass violence and memory studies alike This
