Hietamäki,2010-04-22 In recent bilateral ecumenical dialogue the aim of the dialogue has been to reach some form of doctrinal consensus The three major chapters of the book discuss the variety of forms of doctrinal consensus found in ecumenical dialogues among Anglicans Lutherans and Roman Catholics In general the dialogue documents argue for agreement consensus based on commonality or compatibility Each of the three dialogue processes has specific characteristics and formulates its argument in a unique way The Lutheran Roman Catholic dialogue has a particular interest in hermeneutical questions and proposes various forms of differentiated or perspectival forms of consensus The Anglican Roman Catholic dialogue emphasises the correctness of interpretations The documents consciously look towards a common future not the separated past Windsor Report 2004 ,2004 The Lambeth Commission on Communion Report Online

The Kenotic Trajectory of the Church in Donald MacKinnon's Theology Timothy G. Connor, 2011-09-29 The book explores those aspects of Donald MacKinnon's theological writings which challenge the claim of the liberal Catholic tradition in the Church of England to have forged an ecclesiological consensus namely that the Church is the extension of the incarnation MacKinnon destabilized this claim by exposing the wide gulf between theory and practice in that church especially in his own Anglo Catholic tradition within it For him the collapse of Christendom is the occasion for a dialectical reconstruction of the relation of the Church to Jesus Christ and to the world on the basis of the gospel His basic claim is that authentic ecclesial existence must correspond with what was revealed and effected by Jesus along his way from Galilee to Jerusalem to Galilee Reflection on the Church thus takes the form of a lived response shaped by a Christocentric grammar of faith the submission of the church to Jesus contemporaneous interrogation a sustained attentiveness to him and the willing embrace of his hour
