People Of Vision A History Of The American Council Of The Blind:

People of Vision James J. Megivern, Marjorie Megivern, 2003-06 Encyclopedia of Disability Gary L Albrecht, 2006
Presents current knowledge of and experience with disability across a wide variety of places conditions and cultures to both the general reader and the specialist What We Have Done Fred Pelka, 2012 Compelling first person accounts of the struggle to secure equal rights for Americans with disabilities Crippling the Archive Jenifer L. Barclay, Stefanie Hunt-Kennedy, 2025-08-05 How do we explain the conspicuous absence of disability from the histories we write What forces and factors create this dynamic How can disability be everywhere and nowhere present and absent and obvious and overlooked in both the historical record and historians interpretations of the past Jenifer L Barclay and Stefanie Hunt Kennedy edit a collection of interdisciplinary essays that consider how and why physical sensory intellectual and psychological disabilities are underrepresented erased or distorted in the historical record The contributors draw on the methodology and practice of crippling to uncover disability in contested archives and explore ways to build inclusive archives accountable to and centered on disabled people and disability justice Throughout they show ableness informing the politics of the archive as a physical space a discriminatory record and a collection of silences An essential contribution to research methods and disability justice Crippling the Archive offers a blueprint for intersectional and interdisciplinary approaches that bridge disability studies history and archival studies The Country of the Blind Andrew Leland, 2024-07-23 FINALIST FOR THE PULITZER PRIZE Named one of the best books of the year by THE NEW YORKER THE WASHINGTON POST THE ATLANTIC NPR PUBLISHERS WEEKLY LITHUB Fascinating The great strength of this memoir is its voracious humble curiosity The Atlantic The 10 Best Books of the Year A witty winning and revelatory personal narrative of the author s transition from sightedness to blindness and his quest to learn about blindness as a rich culture all its own We meet Andrew Leland as he s suspended in the liminal state of the soon to be blind he s midway through his life with retinitis pigmentosa a condition that ushers those who live with it from sightedness to blindness over years even decades He grew up with full vision but starting in his teenage years his sight began to degrade from the outside in Soon but without knowing exactly when he will likely have no vision left Full of apprehension but also dogged curiosity Leland embarks on a sweeping exploration of the state of being that awaits him not only the physical experience of blindness but also its language politics and customs He negotiates his changing relationships with his wife and son and with his own sense of self as he moves from his mainstream typical life to one with a disability Part memoir part historical and cultural investigation The Country of the Blind represents Leland s determination not to merely survive this transition but to grow from it to seek out and revel in that which makes blindness enlightening Brimming with warmth and humor it is an exhilarating tour of a new way of being Ambassadors of Social Progress Maria Cristina Galmarini, 2024-02-15 Ambassadors of Social Progress examines the ways in which blind activists from the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe entered the postwar international disability movement and shaped its content and its course Maria Cristina Galmarini shows that the international work of socialist blind activists was defined by the larger politics of the Cold War and in many respects represented a field of competition with the West in which the East could shine Yet her study also reveals that socialist blind politics went beyond propaganda When socialist activists joined the international blind movement they initiated an exchange of experiences that profoundly impacted everyone involved Not only did the international blind movement turn global disability welfare from philanthropy to self advocacy but it also gave East European and Soviet activists a new set of ideas and technologies to improve their own national movements By analyzing the intersection of disability and politics Ambassadors of Social Progress enables a deeper bottom up understanding of cultural relations during the Cold War Galmarini significantly contributes to the little studied history of disability in socialist Europe and ultimately shows that disability activism did not start as an import from the West in the post 1989 period but rather had a long and meaningful tradition that was rooted in the socialist system of welfare and needed to be reinvented when this system fell apart

Self-esteem and Adjusting with Blindness Dean W. Tuttle, Naomi R. Tuttle, 2004 This new and expanded Third Edition analyzes blindness within the context of two overlapping theoretical constructs the development of self esteem and the process of adjusting to social and or physical trauma The book is divided into four sections The first section provides an overview of blindness and the essential background for subsequent discussions Section II explores the general theoretical model for the development of self esteem common to all persons and analyzes the impact that blindness imposes upon this model Section III explores the process of coping with social and physical traumas or crises Section IV is addressed primarily to members of the blind person's support team and provides suggestions for creating a climate for optimum development Factors that may influence the adjustment process descriptions of external and internal sources of self esteem activities for stimulating affective growth and guidelines for professionals who work with the blind are included Personal impacts and psychosocial implications of blindness are discussed in depth and illustrated with biographical and autobiographical statements by more than 50 blind men and women This book will serve as an excellent review and refresher for experienced practitioners and administrators working in the field of blindness Professionals in education social work vocational counseling rehabilitation recreation therapy ophthalmology and optometry will find this comprehensive resource to be an invaluable addition to their libraries

Children with Disabilities in America Philip L. Safford, Elizabeth J. Safford, 2005-12-30 Images of disabled children are found throughout well known works of literature film and even opera Their characters range from sweet to brave to tragic Disabled children are also a part of the reality of life either in personal ways or as poster girls and boys for drives and causes Behind these images is a historical presence that has been created by the societies in which these children live and have lived This work examines current knowledge about children's experience of physical cognitive and emotional behavioral impairments from the Colonial period to the present while revealing the social constructions of both disability and childhood throughout American history Just as disability has been advanced as an essential consideration in other historical inquiries such as that of gender this is a work intended to demonstrate the critical role of disability with respect to the history of childhood

An Hour by Sun Leonard C. Durrence, 2006-04 An Hour by Sun is a trip down lanes of memory rows of tobacco and corn on a thriving Georgia farm and amid the triumphs and travails of medicine in the last half of the 20th century It is funny and nostalgic and informative as Leonard Durrence a retired country doctor traces his beginnings on a depression era farm through the rigors of medical school and internship and the challenge of a small town medical practice For him the joys of retirement are just as vivid a color in the tapestry of his life as the boyhood escapades with his sisters and his curious adventures in scientific understanding The personal elements are the strongest notes in this account particularly the spiritual faith that weaves together all his experiences The adolescent who was born again grows into a thoughtful adult who finds God s solid presence supporting him as he tends the sick in Bangladesh and makes tough decisions in the emergency room and operating room of his Blackshear hospital This devoted Christian carries the same presence into a series of severe health problems that afflict him his beloved wife and the father who has been a hero in his life An hour by sun is a ritual phrase his father spoke at the close of every farming day and Dr Durrence has cherished the meaning of those words through the years When there is just enough light left to do the important things one must recognize and use this hour by sun to accomplish this task with gratitude for all the hours that came before He has used his significant hour to record the events of nearly 80 years and underline the way in which God has led him through them From early childhood when he kept the woodbox filled and harnessed the pesky mules to a discovery of the magic of reading and learning to the important discovery of a life partner and the joy of parenting from deep satisfaction with healing civic involvement gardening and travel and finally with retirement in a community he loves through all these stages the good doctor has found deep pleasure challenge and peace that passes all understanding Summary of Andrew Leland's The Country of the Blind Milkyway Media,2024-03-05 Get the Summary of Andrew Leland s The Country of the Blind in 20 minutes Please note This is a summary not the original book The Country of the Blind by Andrew Leland is a comprehensive exploration of the multifaceted experience of blindness Leland delves into the varied perceptions and realities of being blind from the common misconception of total darkness to the actual diversity of visual experiences among the blind He shares his personal journey with night blindness and gradual vision loss due to retinitis pigmentosa reflecting on the subtle changes that marked his transition into the blind community
