Regional Integration And The Asia Pacific:

Regional Integration in the Asia Pacific Issues and Prospects OECD, The Bob Hawke Prime Ministerial Centre at the University of South Australia, 2005-04-28 This report published by the OECD's International Futures Programme in co-operation with the Bob Hawke Prime Ministerial Centre in Australia aims to stimulate informed debate about the main integration issues facing the Asia Pacific region in the Regional Integration and the Asia-Pacific Bijit K. Transparency, Trade Costs, and Regional Integration in the Asia Pacific Matthias Helble Ben Shepherd John S. Wilson, Awashima Forum, 1993 Cooperation Or Rivalry? Shoji Nishijima, 2021-11-28 This book examines two opposing interpretations of NAFTA's potential expansion into a Western Hemisphere Free Trade Association WHFTA one fearing the creation of a deliberately exclusionary Fortress America the other welcoming the prospect of substantial economic opportunities for Asia and the countries of the Pacific Rim Contributors evaluate the commercial financial cultural and political linkages between the Americas and the Pacific Rim assessing the magnitude of interests that might be affected by NAFTA or FTAA Authorities and experts in Japan and other Asian countries have expressed considerable fear that the North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA and the proposed Free Trade Area of the Americas FTAA will create a Fortress America that will deliberately exclude nations of the Pacific Rim Others argue that economic integration will provide substantial opportunity for Asia Pacific countries and thus contribute to the dynamism of the Pacific Century ahead This book explores the varying interpretations and looks at their implications for countries of the Pacific Rim Might NAFTA provoke the formation of an economic bloc in the Asia Pacific area Or will economic liberalization occur on a global and multilateral scale What are the political dimensions of these possible options and processes Examining the interconnections such policy alternatives may have for both the Pacific Rim and Latin America the contributors evaluate the commercial financial cultural and political linkages between the regions to assess the magnitude of interests that might be affected by NAFTA or FTAA Assessing the range of policy options available to countries involved they seek to make an original contribution to the debate about the formation and structure of the post Cold War world order The Evolution of Regionalism in Asia Heribert Dieter, 2007-12-10 By combining the analysis of the three dimensions of integration this book enables readers to gain a broad understanding of the theory and practice of integration processes in Asia Emerging Regional Integration in Asia Pacific, 1996 The New Regionalism in Asia and the Pacific Norman Dunbar Palmer, 1991 Fragmented Asia Ian G. Cook, Marcus A. Doel, Rex Li, 1996 Focuses on economic and political pressure for integration and disintegration in Pacific Asia Globalization and Regional Transformation in Pacific Asia Yue-man Yeung, 1999 Regional Integration and Economic Development N. Saavedra-Rivano, A. Hosono, B. Stallings, 2001-09-06 Regional integration seems to be thriving everywhere as the examples of the Association of South East Asian Nations ASEAN the North Atlantic Free Trade Area

NAFTA and the Southern Common Market will illustrate More ambitious schemes such as Asian Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC and those for Western hemispheric integration are also underway How do these trends for integration relate to national development strategies The contributors to this volume provide new insights into these developments as well as assessing the prospects for further integration

The Asia-Pacific Trade Agreement Joong-Wan Cho,Rajan Sudesh Ratna,2016 International trade and investment have enabled many countries in the Asia Pacific region to boost economic growth and have lifted millions out of poverty As the Asia Pacific region continues to thrive economically trade and investment barriers are being dissolved and eliminated As countries begin to depend on each other more trade policy is gradually becoming a useful measure to achieve inclusive and sustainable development Trade and investment are linked to the environment and social issues hence their impacts are also multi dimensional It has now been recognized that sustainable production and consumption are essential for sustainable development Countries realize that they are not able to approach global and regional problems on their own and require cooperation both at the level of government and business As a result the region has been active in concluding regional cooperation frameworks which routinely are centered on trade and investment In the meantime business has forged regional integration through the formation of regional value chains and production networks while governments have paved the way for the expansion of such production networks through the formation of regional trade agreements and economic partnerships Thus the Asia Pacific Trade Agreement APTA which is the oldest preferential trade agreement in the region with a large consumer base can play an important role in filling this gap Given a slow progress in the multilateral negotiations in the WTO especially when the members have started questioning the utility of the negotiations after 15 years and a lack of consensus on how to move forward the regional trade agreements can play a vital role Even if they pose a challenge to the multilateralism selected liberalisation of trade and economy in present time can become a building block for future multilateral negotiations One of the reasons for the surge in these preferential trade agreements is to make binding commitments on WTO plus and WTO beyond issues While there are many agreements that exist in Asia and the Pacific there is no such attempt to consolidate them in one umbrella framework Understanding the benefits of the consolidation one such initiative was started by ESCAP a few years back The RECI initiate for market integration could well be facilitated by APTA however it cannot deliver unless it transforms itself in a new generation agreement Regional integration and cooperation are also important to meet the 2030 agenda for sustainable development Instead of wasting resources in discussing a new institutional framework it would be more effective to use the existing framework and for the Asia Pacific economies the APTA provides an existing institutional platform The cases discussed in this book prepare a ground for the future and it is expected that all the stakeholders member States of ESCAP private sector as well as researchers would benefit from this publication on APTA South South Regional Integration and Sustainable Development

seen as one geographic or socio economic space Yet 58 regional economies occupying the space of 28 million square kilometers from Turkey in the West Russian Federation in the North French Polynesia in the East and New Zealand in the South belong to the Economic and Social Commission of Asia and the Pacific ESCAP This commission provides a forum for member states that promotes regional cooperation and collective action assisting countries in building and sustaining shared economic growth and social equity In 2013 ESCAP s members adopted the Bangkok Declaration to enhance efforts towards deeper regional economic integration Yet this document neither proposes a concrete modality or modalities of achieving deeper integration nor provides a sense of distance of individual countries to a perceived integrated Asia Pacific This paper aims to comprehensively quantify recent integration efforts of economies in the Asia Pacific region We provide an index of integration effort based on twelve metrics that measure the relative distance of a given economy to the region as an economic entity Generally we find that while the region has trended towards becoming integrated in general both the level of integration and integration effort are inconsistent among Asia Pacific economies We discuss potential applications and extensions of the index in developing our perspective of the region s economic and social dynamics
