Regionalism, Security and Development in Africa Ernest Tooche Aniche, Ikenna Mike Alumona, Innocent Moyo, 2021-04-29 This book charts the history and contemporary landscape of African regionalism investigating how regional cooperation can be used to help to tackle security and development challenges in Africa Africa has a long tradition of regional cooperation with the oldest trade and monetary integration schemes in the developing world but its colonial period and partition of have caused lasting damage that still be seen in today s African economies Contemporary post colonial African regionalism deeply rooted in notions of pan Africanism has served as a means of collective self reliance and economic transformation and development This book starts with the history and theory behind African regionalism before discussing and comparing regional organisations such as the Economic Community of Central African States ECCAS the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS the Community of Sahel Saharan States CEN SAD Southern African Development Community SADC the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA and the East African Community EAC Finally the book considers how regional integration and cooperation can help to address security and development challenges This ambitious and broad ranging book will be a valuable resource for researchers working on African regionalism security African integration and development and comparative regionalism Policymakers should also consider it a useful guide to the background and contemporary landscape of African regionalism

Africa's Progress in Regional and Global Economic Integration - Towards Transformative Regional Integration Achim Gutowski, Tobias Knedlik, Patrick N. Osakwe, Isabelle Ramdoo, Karl Wohlmuth, 2016 Based on Africa s deep rooted structural problems the key aspect of a transformative regional integration is how to promote structural transformation by adapted strategies and policies for the African regional economic communities for the Continental Free Trade Area and for the Tripartite Free Trade Area Regional integration in Africa is based on a conventional linear model starting with trade preference zones and moving to free trade areas customs unions and monetary and economic zones with the ultimate goal to reach political unity Specific problems of a more transformative regional integration agenda are discussed such as food security and agriculture industry development enterprise growth and competition and economic partnership agreements with extra regional partners In the final section the impact of three global value chains of importance for Africa diamonds shea butter and sesame are considered on regions on sub regions and on regional integration Series African Development Perspectives Yearbook Vol 18 Subject African Studies Economics

Borders, Mobility, Regional Integration and Development Christopher Changwe Nshimbi, Innocent Moyo, 2020-06-22 This book examines social economic and political issues in West Eastern and Southern Africa in relation to borders human mobility and regional integration In the process it highlights the innovative aspects of human agency on the African continent and presents a range of empirical case studies that shed new light on Africa s social economic and political realities Further the book explores cooperation between African nation states including their historical socioeconomic interconnections and governance of transboundary natural resources Moreover the book examines the relationship between the spatial mobility of borders and development and the migration regimes of nation states that share contiguous borders in different geographic territories Further topics include the coloniality of borders sociocultural and ethnic relations and the impact of physical borders on human mobility and wellbeing Given its scope the book represents a unique resource that offers readers a wealth of new insights into today's Africa

Regional Development Poles and the Transformation of African Economies

Benaiah Yongo-Bure, 2020-02-17 This book argues that the development of capital goods manufacturing industries in four relatively large African economies will create regional development poles from which industrialization will spread to the smaller African countries In this book Benaiah Yongo Bure explains the need for capital goods industries in Africa and shows how manufacturing can transform economies He outlines the roles of the Democratic Republic of Congo DRC Ethiopia Nigeria and South Africa as potential regional development poles showing how the existing economies natural resources and populations of these countries make them ideal candidates while also considering possible challenges to industrialization Finally the author assesses what major infrastructural development is needed to link the countries and regions to increase the spread effects of economic growth This book will be of interest to scholars and policy makers in economic development and regional development in Africa

Innovation, Regional Integration, and Development in Africa

Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Mammo Muchie, 2018-07-26 This edited volume discusses the role of innovation and regional integration in economic development in Africa Over the past five decades post colonial African countries have struggled to break loose from the trap of poverty and underdevelopment through the adoption of various development strategies at regional national and continental levels However the results of both national and regional efforts at advancing development on the continent have been mixed Although the importance of agglomeration and fusion of institutions have long been recognized as possible path to achieving economic development in Africa the approach to regionalism has been unduly focused on market integration while neglecting other dimensions such as social policy mobility of labor educational policy biotechnology regional legislation manufacturing innovation and science and technology This volume investigates the link between innovation regional integration and development in Africa arguing that the immediate and long term development of Africa lies not just in the structural transformation of its economies but in the advancement of scientific and innovation capacities The book is divided into four parts Part I addresses the theoretical and conceptual underpinnings of innovation and regional integration in Africa Part II presents case studies which examine how regional economic institutions are fostering innovation in Africa Part III of the book deals with sectoral issues on innovation and integrated development in Africa Part IV sets the future research on innovation regional integration and development in Africa Combining theoretical analysis and a comparative interdisciplinary approach this volume is appropriate for researchers and students interested in economic development political economy African studies international relations agricultural science and geography as well as policymakers in regional economic communities and the African Union Pan Africanism, Regional Integration and Development in Africa Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, 2020-03-10 This edited volume addresses the accomplishments prospects and challenges of regional integration processes on the African continent Since regional integration is a process that ebbs and flows according to a wide range of variables such as changing political and economic conditions implications and factors derived from the vagaries of migration and climate change it is crucial to be cognizant with how these variables impact regional integration initiatives The contributors discuss the debates on Pan Africanism and linking it with ongoing discourses and policies on regional integration in Africa Other aspects of the book contain some of the most important topic issues such as migration border management and the sustainable development goals This content offers readers fresh and innovative perspectives on various aspects of sustainable development and regional growth in Africa Development Centre Seminars Regional Integration in Africa OECD, Asian Development Bank, 2002-04-25 Regional integration and co ordination are not a panacea but they could hold the key to African countries long awaited participation in the world economy This was one of the conclusions of the second International Forum on African Perspectives Migration Conundrums, Regional Integration and Development Inocent Moyo, Christopher Changwe Nshimbi, Jussi P. Laine, 2020-07-08 This book examines Africa Europe relationships and intra Africa relationships vis vis migration It analyses the African integration project that is being used to effectively manage migration within Africa and across its RECs and harnessing it for development The book presents debates related to the EU s hardening and securitisation of its external border against migrants from Africa It shows that migration actually challenges Africa European relations which is discussed as an important theme in this book Authors in this book volume investigate several issues ranging from conundrums relating to migration between Africa and Europe to migration within Africa but also in relation to borders and boundaries its bearing on regional and continental integration and the significance of this in terms of relations between Africa and Europe This book volume brings into conversation issues relating to the governance of migration for development social cohesion and regional integration Africa's Development Dynamics 2023 Investing in Sustainable Development African Union Commission, OECD, 2023-07-07 Africa s Development Dynamics uses lessons from Central East North Southern and West Africa to develop policy recommendations and share good practices across the continent Drawing on the most recent statistics the analysis of development dynamics aims to assist African leaders in reaching the targets of the African Union s Agenda 2063 at all levels continental regional national and local Regional Policy in the Southern African Development Community J. Ernst Drewes, Mariske van Aswegen, 2024-03-19 This book analyses regional development policy or the lack thereof in the Southern African Development Community SADC which forms a key trading bloc on the African continent as well as the Global South It explores the main attributes relevant to the formulation of regional policy in terms of socio economic policies as well as spatial planning instruments Further it integrates macro and sectoral policy frameworks and applies the goals and objectives thereof practically through the appropriate and timely application of spatial targeting instruments within the SADC as a developing region The focus of the research is to reflect on the social economic environmental and political arguments through a focused analysis of relevant planning instruments policies and barriers in terms of the regional policy goals for the SADC region The book provides insight into the role of the SADC in the context of regional development analyses regional policy on a national regional and continental scale with reference to the SADC and evaluates the inherent potential in the regional economy as well as barriers to regional development It identifies gaps in the existing regional policy framework of the region and its constituent members and makes recommendations for improved regional policy frameworks and their implementation The book is targeted at scholars researchers and students studying international trade as well as regional and economic development and urban and regional planning and policy It will also be a useful resource for policymakers as it provides practical policy guidelines for improved regional planning towards a comprehensive regional policy framework The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Regionalism and Africa's Development S.K.B. Asante, 2016-07-27 A critical appraisal of regionalism as a key strategy in Africa's development explaining the failures thus far of attempts at regional integration on the continent This is the first text to highlight the main features of the new post 1990 regional initiatives such as the all embracing African Economic Community and World Bank IMF African Development Bank EC and French initiatives and the challenges to Africa from trading blocs elsewhere in the post Uruguay Round environment

Regional Integration, Economic Development and Global Governance Ulrich Volz, 2011 This book explores a central issue of the world economy today the role of regional integration for economic development and global governance The importance of this issue comes from the fact that the globalisation process that we have been experiencing in recent decades is also a process of open regionalism To what extent does this process contribute to development The reader will find many interesting answers to this question in the book which is an outstanding contribution to this debate I welcome its publication and look forward to its influence on global debates on the relations between regional integration development and global governance From the foreword by Jos Antonio Ocampo Columbia University US The contributors expertly provide a comparative perspective on regional integration in different regions of the world while at the same time analysing the various facets of integration relating to trade FDI finance and monetary policies They provide a comprehensive treatment of the subject and offer new perspectives on the potential developmental effects of regional integration and the implications of regional integration for global economic governance Whilst highlighting and illustrating the potential benefits deriving from regional economic integration the book also stresses the problems and challenges regional integration processes are usually confronted with

Integration in the Southern African Development Community Region Korwa Gombe Adar, Kebapetse Lotshwao, Thekiso Molokwane, Dorothy Mpabanga, Norbert Musekiwa, 2023-01-17 Integration in the Southern African Development Community Region Peoples Agency Popular Participation and Democratization edited by Korwa Gombe Adar Dorothy Mpabanga Kebapetse Lotshwao Thekiso Molokwane and Norbert Musekiwa engages in the debate associated with the people of Southern Africa people of the Region democratization and integration nexus envisaged in the 1980 treaty which established the Southern African Development Community SADC Using political and public administration perspectives the editors argue that for democratization and integration to be tangibly consolidated and institutionalized direct involvement of the people of Southern Africa the peoples agency is paramount and would lead to what is dubbed in this book as sadcnness and sadcnization More specifically democratization and integration are about people citizens the sovereigns and not merely the abstract actors called nation states Using the case studies of Angola Botswana Madagascar Mozambique South Africa and Zimbabwe the contributors have from political and public administration dimensions engaged in this epistemology assessing among other things the peoples of Southern Africa the Southern Africa Development Community integration nexus

The Southern African Development Community (SADC) and the European Union (EU) Johannes Muntschick, 2017-10-09 This book explores regionalism in the Southern African Development Community SADC and highlights the influence of the European Union EU as an extra regional actor on the organization and integration process The analysis is guided by theory and explains the emergence institutional design and performance of SADC s major integration projects in the issue areas of the economy security and infrastructure It provides in this way a profound assessment of the organization as a whole The study shows that South Africa plays a regional key role as driver for integration while external influence of the EU is ambivalent in character because it unfolds a supportive or obstructive impact The author argues that the EU gains influence over regional integration processes in the SADC on the basis of patterns of asymmetric interdependence and becomes a game changer insofar as it facilitates or impedes solutions to regional cooperation problems

The African Development Bank E. Philip English, Harris M. Mule, 1995 This work looks at the policies and projects of the African Development Bank which like other multilateral banks has come under growing criticism from grassroots organisations environmental groups and others
