The book also addresses the region's institutionalised regionalism of the 21st century embodied by the recent establishment of two mega regional institutions for trade and investment facilitation: Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans-Pacific Partnership (CPTPP) and Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP), analysing their economic potential and impact on East Asian economies as well as on regions including Europe. The Regional World Order Boglárka Koller, Alexei D. Voskressenski, 2019-04-15. In the evolving post-Westphalian world, regional entities become key political and economic players, as the authors argue in this volume. As a result of regionalization, the international politics and economics is witnessing great transformations too. This volume explores some ideas of how these transformations may develop. It is written by three generations of researchers and scholars at European, Russian and Asian higher education institutions. Their different perspectives are integrated in a coherent multi-dimensional view to answer challenges facing what is called increasingly Greater Eurasia. The volume employs a rigorous conceptual framework over a wide geographic range and applies different approaches to ask and answer challenging questions. The arguments presented in this book are built around the concepts of regionalism and transregionalism. The volume is focusing on three different geographical entities: Europe, Eurasia and East Asia, and examines ASEM, EAEU, BRI, EU, ASEAN, CIS as well as TTIP, TTP, OBOR.

Europe and Asia P. Murray, 2008-10-23. Much more than a simple examination of EU-Asia relations, this book examines the idea that the EU may constitute a model for East Asian regionalism. It challenges specialists on the EU to understand the EU's impact on Asia and Asia's impact on the EU whilst illustrating that there is a commonality of interests in both Europe and Asia.
